

present. The Doctor replied in an address of very great interest, in which he gave a sketch of his travels. He spoke of the social, educational and religious conditions in the old world, and compared them with the state of things in Canada. Certainly his lengthened visit to other lands has not made him think less of Canada and Canadians. All were deeply moved when, at the conclusion of his address, he said that never during all his absense had he been able to entirely free his mind of the thought of his "boys." With the Apostle Paul he could indeed say, "I have you in my heart." An evening unique in the history of the college was brought to a close by prayer and the pronouncing of the benediction by Dr. Barclay.

Homer, Alexander, Zoroaster, Chaucer, Spencer, Luther, MacKeracher, Bremner.

A college quartette, composed of Messrs. Cameron, Jamieson, Elmhurst and Crozier, has been winning flattering encomiums for good singing at certain church entertainments.

1st student.—"Professor, how would you answer that question?"

Professor.—"I really don't know."

2nd student.—"If I were to answer that question, I would say that I, etc., etc."

In a Second Year Theolog's "system."—"Why is a moral obligation like a railway ticket?" Ans.—"It is not transferable."

The Rev. Donald MacVicar, B.A., of Dromore, Ont., a graduate of '92, and Silver Medalist in Theology, was present at the reception to Dr. MacVicar. The Rev. Mr. George, M.A., of Belleville is in residence.

A number of students are down with influenza; bad enough at any time, but doubly irksome when exams are so near.

Two of our students came in for a good deal of praise in connection with the McGill Latin Play. Mr. W. M. Mac-