CEYLON TEA COMPANY

WHAT

"THE TIMES" OF CEYLON

Says of this Company, May 4th, 1889.

"We are asked by a Correspondent, 'Which Company, for the sale of Ceylon Tea at home, does the largest business?' and we really do not think that anybody can answer this question. In all probability, the Ceylon Tea Growers, Limited (Khangani Brand), sell more Tea than most, seeing that they have no less than one thousand Agents in Great Britain alone, and, in the course of twelve months, must sell a very large quantity of Tea."

This is indisputable evidence that this Company is a GENUINE CEYLON TEA COMPANY.

CATARRH

PROMOTES DIGESTION. Mr. Neil McNeil, of Leith, Ont., writes: DEAR SIR,—For years and years I suffered from dyspepsia in its worst forms, and after trying all means in my power to no purpose I was persuaded by friends to try B.B.B., which I did, and after using 5 bottles I was completely cured.

Sparkles.

"Ma," remarked Jamesy, "what's the difference between that veil you've got on and your hand?" "I don't know," said his mother. "Well," replied Jamesy, "you use the veil to hide your tan and your hand to tan my 'ide!" And he dodged just in time.

WHAT SAY THEY?—In popularity increasing. In reliability the standard. In merit the first. In fact, the best remedy for all summer complaints, diarrhoea, dysentery, cramps, colic, cholera infantum, etc., is Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. All medicine dealers sell it.

THE five-year-old boy had seen a wedding for the first time and naturally the family asked him what he thought of it. "Pooh!" he said, disdainfully, "it's nothing but a prayer-meeting with a sociable after it."

GREAT and timely wisdom is shown by keeping Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry on hand. It has no equal for cholera, cholera morbus, diarrhoea, dysentery, colic, cramps, and all summer complaints or looseness of the bowels.

YOUNG Doctor: What is your complaint? Visitor: Impenitency! Do be so kind, Doctor, as to give me a shilling, and I'll go around and tell everybody that you've relieved me.

"A WONDER of Medical Science," may well be applied to DR. WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY. It is nearly half a century since this remarkable remedy was introduced to the public, and yet the immediate and enviable reputation which it gained by its wonderful cures of coughs, influenza, consumption, and all bronchial complaints, is to this day fully sustained.

THE man who advises authors to write only one story a year if they want to achieve fame evidently believes in the old maxim that a man's best writing is done on an empty stomach.

LIVES of children are often endangered by sudden and violent attacks of cholera, cholera morbus, diarrhoea, dysentery and bowel complaints. A reasonable and certain precaution is to keep Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry always at hand.

"WHAT I like about Charlie," said Ethel, "is his kindness to animals. Why, last week when he took me to the menagerie, he gave a whole peanut to one of the elephants."

LOOKING for flowers without thorns is one of the best ways in the world of fooling our time away.

"I TOOK six bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters for liver complaint, headache and dull stupid feeling, but now I am entirely well and healthy, having also a good appetite which I did not have previously."—MRS. T. DAVIS, Regina, N.-W.T.

THE rain-maker says that his rain machine is operated by a crank. Many people firmly believe him.

OLD Lady: What's that awful smell? Farmer: That's the fertilizer we're puttin' on the field yonder. Old Lady: For the land's sake! Farmer: Yes, 'm.

BEECHAM'S PILLS cure Bilious and Nervous Ills.

THAT burglar who had pals in every city was certainly a most accomplished fellow.

"PAPA," said Willie, as they sailed down the bay, "do sea-horses come from the sea?" "Yes, my son." "And do the bay horses all come from the bay?"

MRS. JOHN MARTIN, of Montague Bridge, P. E. I., writes: "I was troubled last summer with very bad headaches and constipation and sometimes could scarcely see. One bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters made a complete cure of my case, and I wish you every success."

THIRSTY Lady: Is there any water aboard? Captain (excursion boat): Only 'bout four feet, mum; but please don't tell anybody.

SIMPSON: How do you know your rival and her father will soon fall out and fight? Jimpson (gleefully): They've both joined the same church choir.

"I HAD for years been troubled with dyspepsia and sick headache and found but little relief until I got Burdock Blood Bitters which made a perfect cure. It is the best medicine I ever used in my life."—HATTIE DAVIS, Mary St., Clinton, Ont.

"THERE seems to be a boom in yachting this summer." "Of course—would you expect to sail a yacht without a boom?"

RICE birds sell for twenty cents a dozen in Georgia. The amateur sportsman down there can have pretty good luck for a dollar.
