MISCELLANEOUS.

Too much help is no help.
He who lives to eat does not live long.
Love will always do its best to bless and help.
Christ never showed anxiety about results.
Some people get very low to get up in the world.
A needless day is lost. We live in deeds, not years.
When we are grateful for our blessings, our trials look small.
A man must be great in soul to stand the test of being lifted up.
The man who minds his own business will not soon run out of work.
To the soldier of the cross, every step toward heaven is a test of courage.
Weakness is the symptom, impoverish- ed blood the cause, Hood's Sarsaparilla the cure. It makes the weak strong.
Forty days lent to the Lord does not pay back the balance of the year borrowed from Him.

"Bodily exercise profiteth but little," but that little is needed, as a light dessert aids the digestion of solid foods, and a morsel of salt seasons diet and conserves energy.

Like Falstaff, who said, "But for these vile guns I would myself have been a soldier," many would be Christians but for the self-denial required of soldiers of the cross.

RHEUMATISM CURED IN A DAY—South American Rheumatic Cure, for Rheumatism and Neuralgia, radically cures in 1 to 3 days. Its action upon the system is remarkable and mysterious. It removes at once the cause, and the disease immediately disappears. The first dose greatly benefits. 75 cents. Sold by all Drug- gists.

The first lady student of the Edinburgh Medical Missionary Society has taken her diploma, and is under appointment to the Irish Presbyterian Mission in India. She is the daughter of the Rev. Henry Mont- gomery, of Belfast.

The London County Council have determined to prohibit cricket and other games being played in their parks on Sunday, on the ground that their allow- ance would be sacrificing to the sport of a few the quiet and pleasure of the many.

STOP, LADY, STOP!

Lean and lank,
He's such a crank;
My stars! I thank
I'm not his wife;
He'd make my life
A scene of strife.

Stop, lady, stop! his liver is out of order. "He's just too nice for anything," his wife says, "when he is well." Every wife's husband, should, if sick, take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It puts the liver and kidneys in good work- ing order, purifies the blood, cleanses the system from all impurities, from whatever cause arising, and tones up the functions generally. Once used, it is always in favor. Sold by all dealers in medicine.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets permanently cure constipation, sick headache, indigestion and kindred derangements.

One can stumble and fall down a flight of stairs in a moment, but to ascend requires a steady step, one by one. A reputation may be lost by a single mis- placed step which it took many years to mount in the esteem of others. Only he can fall who is up, and the higher he has ascended the more rapid the descent, and the harder the thud at the bottom. He who is on the table lands of public appro- bation should calculate the force of the high winds that sweep the summit of a mountain range.
