

Poetry.

TO MY CHILD THAT LIVETH STILL.

BY ALEXANDER HOME.

My Baby, they say thou art gone,
Deep laid in the quiet grave,
And slumbering there all alone,
While young flowers o'er thee wave,
And pity and tell,
The fate that befel
To some heart, that loved a sweet Baby as well.
My Baby, they say thou art gone,
Gone o'en as the young flowers go,
When summer's warm rays are all flown,
And winter is bringing its snow,
And bloweth the wind,
So rude and unkind,
But, ah, thou hast left a sweet fragrance behind.
Again they repeat thou art gone,
How little know they of death:
Hear I not thy tremulous tone,
And feel on my cheek thy soft breath,
And gaze on thy smile,
Yet they all the while,
Are telling thou'rt dead, near the old church pile.
Well, let them repeat thou art gone,
'Tis only the body has died,
They dream not there's something lives on,
Whatever the body betide,
Oh, helpless are they
Who linger, the prey
Of grief, for the loss of some beautiful clay.
My Baby, they say I am ill,
That still I am suffering pain,
But how can I mourn for thee still,
When thou liv'st in my very brain,
And whisperest me,
As I do love thee,
To love all young things that in this world may be.
My Baby, they say thou art gone,
But, no, thou abidest yet,
And cheerest thy father alone,
Until his last sun shall set,
When heart, tongue, and eye,
Shall spiritless lie.
Till then, my sweet Baby, thou canst not die.

HEALTH FOR A SHILLING!

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.

EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF LOSS OF HEALTH, DISORDERED STOMACH, INDIGESTION AND DETERMINATION OF BLOOD TO THE HEAD.

Copy of a letter from Mr. John Lloyd of Erw-ven, near Harlech, Merionethshire.

To Professor HOLLOWAY.

SIR,—I avail myself of the first opportunity of informing you, that for a very long period I was afflicted with a dangerous giddiness and frequent swimings in the head, attended by loss of appetite, disordered stomach, and generally impaired health. Every means had failed to give me any permanent relief, and at length it became so alarming that I was really afraid of going about without an attendant. In this melancholy condition I waited personally upon Mr. Hughes, Chemist, Harlech, for the purpose of consulting him as to what I had better do; he kindly recommended your Pills. I tried them without delay, and after taking them for a short time I am happy to bear testimony to their wonderful efficacy. I am now restored to perfect health, and enabled to resume my usual duties. You are at liberty to publish this letter in any way you may think proper. I am, sir, your obedient Servant.
(Signed.) JOHN LLOYD.

MIRACULOUS CURE OF DROPSY.

Extract of a letter from Edward Rowley, Esq. of India Walk, Tobago, dated April 8th, 1852

To Professor HOLLOWAY.

DEAR SIR—I deem it a duty I owe to you and the public at large to inform you of a most miraculous recovery from that dreadful disease, Dropsy, and which, under God, was effected by your invaluable Pills. I was tapped five times within eight months, and skillfully treated by two medical practitioners, but could not get cured until I had recourse to your remedy and notwithstanding all I had undergone, this miraculous medicine cured me in the course of six weeks.
(Signed.) EDWARD ROWLEY.

INFALLIBLE CURE OF A STOMACH COMPLAINT WITH INDIGESTION AND VIOLENT HEAD-ACHES.

Extract of a letter from Mr. S. Gowen, Chemist, of Clifton near Bristol, dated July 14th, 1852.

To Professor HOLLOWAY.

DEAR SIR—I am requested by a Lady named Thomas just arrived from the West Indies, to acquaint you that for a period of eight years herself and family suffered from continual bad health, arising from disorders of the Liver and Stomach, indigestion, loss of Appetite, violent Head-aches, pains in the side, weakness and general debility, for which she consulted the most eminent men in the colony, but without any beneficial result; at last, she had recourse to your invaluable Pills, which in a very short time effected so great a change for the better, that she continued them, and the whole family were restored to health and strength. Further she desires me to say, that she has witnessed their extraordinary virtues in those complaints incidental to children, particularly in cases of Measles and Scarlatina, having effected positive cures of these diseases with no other remedy.
(Signed) S. GOWEN.

A DANGEROUS LIVER COMPLAINT AND SPASMS IN THE STOMACH EFFECTUALLY CURED.

Copy of a letter from Mr. Bostock, Druggist, of Ashton under Lyne, dated July 31, 1852.

To Professor HOLLOWAY.

DEAR SIR,—I have much pleasure in handing to you a testimonial of the efficacy of your Medicines. A person in this neighbourhood with whom I am well acquainted was afflicted for a long time with violent spasmodic pains in the stomach and liver, arising from frequent colds, smelt of paint, and the effects of a stooping position which he was obliged to assume in his business. The spasms were of an alarming character, and frequently left him in a weak and debilitated condition. At length he heard of the salutary effects of your invaluable Pills, and was induced to give them a trial. The first dose gave him considerable relief, and by following them up in accordance with your directions, they have acted so wonderfully in cleansing the liver and stomach, and strengthening the digestive organs that he has been restored to the enjoyment of good health. I remain, dear Sir, yours faithfully,
(Signed) WILLIAM BOSTOCK.

These celebrated Pills are wonderfully efficacious in the following complaints.
