

CORONATION OF THE CZAR.

Brilliant scene in the Russian Capital. Details of the ceremony—The Imperial Procession—Seating in the Kremlin—The proclamation of amnesty.

Moscow, May 27.—At seven o'clock this morning the inauguration of the magnificent ceremonies attendant on the coronation of the Emperor and Empress of Russia was announced by the ringing of hundreds of bells and by the thunders of artillery.

THE DIPLOMATIC CORPS here assembled at his mansion and were conveyed thence to the Kremlin in superbly equipped coaches, richly gilt harness and coats of arms.

THE IMPERIAL PROCESSION started, it was made known to those inside the Cathedral by the renewed ringing of bells, by acrobatic music from the score of bands, and by the shouts of those outside.

NET BY THE EMPRESS, wearing the white uniform of the Imperial Guards, and by the Empress dressed in the Russian national costume of black velvet, richly embroidered with diamonds, girdled with a belt of precious stones.

THESE OF IVORY AND SILVER Alexander occupied the historical throne of the Czar Vladimir, while the Empress was seated in an armchair gilded and encrusted with jewels.

AFTER THEIR MAJESTIES had been seated, the Metropolitan of Novgorod asked the Emperor in a loud, distinct voice, "Are you a true believer?" and was answered in a clear voice with the Lord's Prayer and the Apostle's Creed of the Greek Church.

THE CROWN OF RUSSIA, who placed it on his own head and, assuming the sceptre and orb, took his seat on the throne. He then returned the insignia of his title to the dignitaries appointed to receive them, and called the Empress, who knelt before him.

THESE THEIR CONGRATULATIONS to their majesties. The Emperor then knelt and recited a prayer, at the end of which the clergy and all present knelt before the Emperor. The Bishop of Moscow said aloud, on behalf of the nation, a prayer for the happiness of their majesties.

LEFT THE CATHEDRAL, wearing their crown and mantles, the Emperor also bearing the sceptre and orb. After praying in the Cathedral of Michael the Archangel their majesties returned to the palace, and followed by the procession, which presented a most splendid appearance than that which escorted them to the Cathedral, being now augmented by the gorgeous state carriages of the Imperial family.

THE IMPERIAL BANQUET began at 3.30 p.m. in the hall called the Granovitaya Palace. This hall was specially restored for the occasion and was splendidly decorated. The Emperor and Empress wore crowns, sat at separate tables, on thrones of unequal height.

THE CZAR'S MANIFESTO was issued at six o'clock this evening, and is a document of very considerable length. It was read by the printing office to obtain copies for perusal which caused a great rejoicing. The Czar has addressed the following RESCRIPT TO M. DE GIERSE, Minister of Foreign Affairs.

THE COST of the coronation is estimated at two million pounds, which will be covered by the issue of treasury bills. Only thirteen newspaper correspondents were allowed inside of the cathedral during the ceremony, six Russian and seven foreign. The latter including one English and one American.

THE EMPRESS'S PRAYER. Bear Admiral Ba dwin, representing the American navy, was in the group of special envoys, including Gen. Wolsey and others. After the coronation ceremony was concluded the Czar prayed as follows: "O Lord God of our fathers, King of Kings, who createst all things by Thy Word and by Thy Wisdom, mostest man, who rulest the world in holiness and in justice, Thou hast chosen me to be judge over Thy people, I confess Thine unspokeable watchfulness over me and bow down with thanksgiving before Thy Majesty. Do Thou, O Lord and Suler, support me in my appointed task, inspire me with wisdom and guide me in the great service. Let the wisdom that is before Thy throne be with me; let it descend upon me from Thy holy dwelling place, that I may know what is agreeable in Thine eyes and righteousness of Thy commandments. May my heart be in Thy hand, that I may direct all things to the benefit of my people confided unto my charge and unto Thy Glory, so that I may answer Thee in the day of judgment without shame, by the grace and bounty of Thine only son, to be blessed by him and by Thy holy sanctified and creative spirit, ever and ever.—Amen."

Tom Carroll, a hydraulic miner of Westington, Nevada County, Nev., weighs over 400 pounds, is 5 feet 4 1/2 inches high, measures 44 inches around the chest and 152 around the biceps, and can put out 204 pounds with one arm and with a strap raise 1,900 pounds. He is only 25 years old.

Beware of Imitations. Since Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil has become celebrated, a number of unprincipled persons have been endeavoring to palm off Electron and Electric Oil for the genuine Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil.

Finance and Commerce

FINANCIAL.

In the local money market the rates of discount remain firm and unchanged with a little more demand from commercial borrowers. Prime mercantile paper is negotiated at 6 1/2 to 7 1/2 as to name and date, and call loans are obtained at 6 1/2 and 6 in the open market.

There was a serious "break" in local stocks this morning. Prices fell 1/2 to 1 1/2 per cent. In view of the poor crop outlook and a lighter money market the decline should not cause surprise. The transactions on the Exchange were larger than for several weeks past.

THE NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE will be closed tomorrow, Decoration Day. New York, 1 p.m. Stocks dull, weak; Am Ex 92 1/2; C 84 1/2; D 107 1/2; E 123 1/2; F 123 1/2; G 103 1/2; H 107 1/2; I 148 1/2; J 102 1/2; K 107 1/2; L 107 1/2; M 102 1/2; N 107 1/2; O 107 1/2; P 102 1/2; Q 107 1/2; R 102 1/2; S 107 1/2; T 102 1/2; U 107 1/2; V 102 1/2; W 107 1/2; X 102 1/2; Y 107 1/2; Z 102 1/2.

COMMERCIAL.

WEEKLY REVIEW—WHOLESALE MARKETS.

The position of affairs is much the same as before. Maritime operations are being carried on to a greater scale, but business generally is flat. The greatest anxiety is beginning to be felt within a wide area of the mercantile world regarding the condition of the growing wheat crop, which recent advices from many of the winter wheat sections of Canada report as very unfavorable, and we trust they will prove as premature and deceptive as they have done on several former occasions, when the crop outlook has been depicted quite as gloomily as at present.

IRON AND HARDWARE.—Business during the week has been chiefly confined to small lots, and we hear of sales of leading brands at $21 to 21 1/2, a few lots of Garthrie, Summerlee and Oalder having been placed at within that range. Eglington is quoted at $18 50. Several consignments lots have been taken into store, as there was no sale for them ex wharf. Warrants have declined to 46 1/2 10/16. The stock of pig iron in stores in Glasgow on May 1st, 1882, was 531,401 tons, against 634,661 tons May 1, 1882; May 8, 1882, 580,799 tons against 634,744 tons May 9, 1882. Week's decrease, 602 tons. Shipments last week, 13,198 tons; corresponding week 1882, 11,387 tons. Bar iron remaining quiet at $1 90 to $2 00. Hoops and bands 2 1/2. Sales of cut nails have been made by manufacturers at $3 85 per bag for 3 inch and upwards at 4 months, and 10c per bag for 4c. The plates are quiet, but steady at $1 15 to $2 25 for I.C. charcoal and at $4 40 I.C. coke. Canada plates are quoted at $3 15 for good brands. Ingot tin rules steady at 23 1/2, prices in London having advanced 10s during the week to $35 10s. Invoiced copper was quiet at 18 1/2 for Canadian. Hardware merchants report a fair movement of general goods at about former values. Window glass is steady at $1 90 for flat, prices for fresh importations having not yet been established, but it is thought there will not be much, if any, change.

GRAIN.—The demand for refined sugars, although less keen than a week ago, is moderately active at steady prices, granulated being quoted at 8 1/2c. In yellows, the sale was reported of a carload of low grade at 8 1/2c. Finest qualities sell from 7 1/2 to 8 1/2c. In raw sugar there is very little doing, prices being too high for manufacturers at the present rates of refined. Bright Porto Rico is quoted at 7 1/2 to 7 3/4. The fruit market was quiet but without any material change in values. In Valencia raisins the sale of 700 boxes transported at 5 1/2c, prime fruit being quoted up to 6 1/2c. Malaga fruit is in small demand, some old loose Muscates being offered at $1 40 per box. Currents remain steady at 5 1/2 to 6 1/2c. Nuts have been in fair demand but values have ruled easy. Rice is firm at $3 50 for A and $3 60 B. Coffees are steady but quiet and spices hold firm at last week's rates. Tea moves very slowly, buyers holding off for Wednesday's sale. Prices are unchanged. A round lot of Japan changed hands on country account at 26 1/2c.

Trade has been dull since our last report, and stocks of both sole and black leather have shown some accumulation. Dealers will soon be busy stock-taking, and no change is looked for until after the first of next month. Prices are quoted as follows: No. 1 Spanish sole, 2 1/2 to 2 3/4; No. 2, 2 1/4 to 2 1/2; No. 1 China sole, 2 1/2 to 2 3/4; No. 2, 1 1/2 to 2 1/4; No. 1 Buffalo sole, 2 1/2 to 2 3/4; No. 2, 1 1/2 to 2 1/4; No. 1 slaughter, 2 1/2 to 2 3/4; rough (light), 2 1/2 to 2 3/4; harness, 2 1/2 to 2 3/4; waxed upper, light, 3 1/2 to 3 3/4; do medium and heavy, 3 1/2 to 3 3/4; grained upper, long, 3 1/2 to 3 3/4; Scotch grained upper, 3 1/2 to 4 1/4; buff, 1 1/2 to 1 3/4; pebbled cow, 1 1/2 to 1 3/4; medium, 2 1/2 to 2 3/4; do junior 1 1/2 to 2 1/4; calfskin, light, 6 1/2 to 7 1/2; do heavy, 7 1/2 to 8 1/2; French calfskin, $1 05 to 1 35; English kidskin, 6 1/2 to 7 1/2; patent cow, 1 1/2 to 1 3/4.
