FATAL ACCIDENT AT THE C. P. R. SHOPS.

A Promising Young Catholic the Victim.

On Thursday afternoon the tubing department at the C. P. R. shops was the scene of a frightful accident by which Michael O'Phelan sustained fatal injuries. The unfortunate lad, who was a son of Capt. P. D. O'Phelan, well known to many of our readers, as for a number of years an officer of the United States Customs in this city, was an apprentice and on the day mentioned by some means got caught in the belt attached to the main shaft, and before his horror-stricken shop mates could stop the machinery, which, we may say, they appear to have done in the very shortest possible space of time, was mangled in such a manner that it was a miracle he did not die on the spot. When he was rescued, however, it was found that in spite of his terrible injuries he was still quite conscious, and he appears to have actually made suggestions to those who picked him up as to the best steps to be taken. A medical man was at once called and on his advice the poor boy was taken to the general hospital where everything was done for him that science could suggest but without avail as he expired about five o'clock in the afternoon. It is consoling to know that as he was fully conscious almost the whole time he was at the hospital he died fortified with all the rights of Holy church, of which, although young, he was a most exemplary member. Barely seventeen years of age he already gave promise of being a good citizen, and those who knew him well feel that if he had been spared he would have made a most useful member of society. The heartfelt sympathy of all has been extended to the bereaved family. Capt. O'Phelan left Winnipeg some time ago and is now travelling in Minnesota and immediately after the accident steps were taken to notify him and to get his directions as to the disposal of the remains. It was found however that he had left St. Paul some days ago on a business trip and although messages were sent in every direction he could not be located. The members of the family here decided therefore to send the body to Graceville, Minn., for burial. The remains were first taken to the church of the Immaculate Conception on Sunday afternoon where the prayers were said by Rev. Father Fox, O. M. I., of St. Mary's. A large number followed the remains from the house, and the pall bearers were six of the deceased's fellow apprentices. On Monday morning Requiem High Mass was sung and the remains were then sent south on the Great Northern train, we would conclude this brief notice by offering to Capt. O'Phelan and the members of his family our sincere sympathy in their affliction. R. I. P.
