

FINAL NOTE

The applicability of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade to the trade of contracting parties with the areas under military occupation has not been dealt with and is reserved for further study at an early date. Meanwhile, nothing in this Agreement shall be taken to prejudge the issues involved. This, of course, does not affect the applicability of the provisions of Articles XXII and XXIII to matters arising from such trade.

SCHEDULES

(The Schedules of Tariff Rates follow at this point. They are printed separately in Canada Treaty Series, No. 27A.)