The States Parties to this Convention
Have agreed as follows:

CHAPTER I

ARTICLE 2

Without prejudice to the provisions of Article 4 and except when the safety of the aircraft or of persons or property on board so requires, no provision of this Convention shall be interpreted as authorizing or requiring any action in respect of offences against penal laws of a political nature or those based on racial or religious discrimination.

1. The State of registration of the aircraft is competent to exercise jurisdiction over offences and acts committed on board.
