

receive under Malaysia regulations for service in Malaysia. The Malaysian authorities shall ensure that adequate assignments or deductions are made from such pay and allowances to provide for the maintenance of a trainee's dependents and, in accordance with Malaysian regulations, to satisfy any other financial obligations of a trainee in Malaysia. A trainee may make private arrangements to draw upon any balance of such pay and allowances remaining to his credit to meet his personal expenses while in Canada, if and to the extent that such arrangements are permitted by the Malaysian authorities. Pay and allowances issued by Malaysia shall be exempt from Canadian taxation.

- (b) Allowances shall be issued by Canada to each trainee, to meet his living and other expenses during his period of training, as follows:
- (i) A Maintenance Allowance at a rate appropriate to the trainee's rank,
 - (ii) a Civilian Clothing Allowance when necessary, having regard to the duration of the training and season in which it takes place,
 - (iii) A Ration Allowance in an amount to be determined by the Minister of National Defence, at any time that rations are not provided to the trainee free of charge.
 - (iv) A Leave Transportation Allowance when appropriate, having regard to the duration of the training, and at the rates applicable to members of the Canadian Forces.

The rates of the Maintenance Allowance and the Civilian Clothing Allowance mentioned above will be determined in consultation with the Malaysian authorities. Allowances issued by Canada shall be exempt from Malaysian taxation.

Military Jurisdiction

Trainees shall not, during the period of their training in Canada, be subject to the Code of Service Discipline of the Canadian Forces. The authorities of Malaysia will, however, issue in advance to trainees appropriate written orders, a copy of which will be conveyed to the authorities of Canada, to ensure compliance by the trainees with orders and instructions issued to them by the authorities of the Canadian Forces during the period of their training in Canada.

Prohibited Activities

A trainee shall not during the period of training in Canada:

- (a) be required to participate in any form of combat operations either in or out of Canada or in aid of the civil power; or
- (b) be required to perform any function, duty or act that is inconsistent with the purpose of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 7

Canadian Law

Trainees will be amenable to the civil and criminal laws in force in Canada and to the jurisdiction of civil and criminal courts in Canada.
