Extract from the Minutes of the Proceedings of the Senate, Thursday, September 19th, 1968:

"With leave of the Senate, " " a adding of

The Honourable Senator Lamontagne, P.C., moved, seconded by the Honourable Senator Benidickson, P.C.:

That the name of the Honourable Senator Robichaud be substituted for that of the Honourable Senator Argue on the list of Senators serving on the Special Committee on Science Policy.

The question being put on the motion, it was— Resolved in the affirmative."

ROBERT FORTIER, Clerk of the Senate.

erality of the foregoing, to inquire into and report upon the following: (notal of a procept trends in research and development expenditures in (sonire) as compared with those in other industrialized countries;

Canada as compared with those in other industrialized countries;
(b) research and development activities carried out by the Rederal Gevenoment in the fields of physical, life and humanosciences;
(c) federal assistance to research and development activities moves raised other groups

(d) the broad principles, the long-term financial requirements and the structural organization of a dynamic and efficient science policy for Canada.

That the Committee have power to engage the services of such counsel, staff and technical advisers as may be necessary for the purpose of the inquiry:

That the Committee have power to send for persons, papers and records, to examine witnesses, to report from time to time, to print such papers and evidence from day to day as may be ordered by the Committee, to sit during sittings and adjournments of the Senate, and to adjourn from place to place;

That the papers and evidence received and taken on the subject in the preceding session be referred to the Committee; and

That the Committee be composed of the Honourable Senators Aird, Argue, Bélisle, Bourget, Cameron, Desruisseaux, Grosart, Hays, Kinnear, Lamontagne, Lang, Leonard, MacKenzie, O'Leary (Carieton), Phillips (Prince), Sullivan, Thompson and Yuzyk.

> After debate, and— The question being put on the motion, it was— Resolved in the affirmative."

> > 11-4