Mr. Speaker: I declare the amendment lost.

Resuming debate on the main motion, the Hon. Member for Hamilton East (Ms. Copps).

Ms. Sheila Copps (Hamilton East): Mr. Speaker, it certainly gives me great pleasure to speak on this motion. Before speaking, I would like to point out to the House that this is a special day in that it is the birthday of our honourable House Leader, the Hon. Member for Windsor West (Mr. Gray).

Some Hon. Members: Hear, hear!

Some Hon. Members: We want Herb.

Some Hon. Members: Herb for Leader.

Mr. Gray (Windsor West): I'm already a leader, I'm a House Leader.

Mr. Speaker: The enthusiasm for the birthday is getting in the way of the Hon. Member's remarks.

Ms. Copps: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I realize that this has very little to do with the main motion, but given that recently so many days around this place have been characterized by acrimony, I thought it would be a nice opportunity to recognize one of those who is never involved in acrimony. Plus, it will probably give me a few brownie points to enable me to get up in Question Period next time.

However, that is not the point of my intervention. My intervention deals with another chapter in the sequence of the "Sale of Canada Act". I am speaking specifically now to the heinous motion of the Government to privatize Air Canada.

Last night I was at the nomination meeting of an extremely able and long-standing Member of Parliament, the Hon. Member for Ottawa—Vanier (Mr. Gauthier).

Some Hon. Members: Hear, hear!
