

petitioners humbly pray and call upon Parliament that the Prime Minister of Canada, the Right Honourable Brian Mulroney, respect his commitment of the 1984 election campaign to maintain full indexation of old age pensions, as in duty bound your petitioners will ever pray.

Honourable senators, I have the honour to present a petition to the honourable the Senate of Canada, in Parliament assembled, on behalf of residents of Morinville, Edmonton, St. Albert, in the province of Alberta, who now avail themselves of their ancient and undoubted right thus to present a grievance common to your petitioners in the certain assurance that the Senate will therefore provide a remedy, humbly showing that a proposal has been introduced in the face of a campaign promise by the Prime Minister "that a Progressive Conservative government would once more index the old age pension to the actual cost of living on a quarterly basis." Wherefore the undersigned petitioners humbly pray and call upon Parliament that the Prime Minister of Canada, the Right Honourable Brian Mulroney, respect his commitment of the 1984 election campaign to maintain full indexation of old age pensions, as in duty bound your petitioners will ever pray.
