

STE. PETRONILLE,

Island of Orleans. Que.

May 3rd, 1932.

Dear Sir Arthur:-

I happened to be in New York some two weeks ago, and some of my old McGill friends took me over to the Annual Dinner of the New York Branch of McGill Graduates' Society, where I had the pleasure of renewing several old acquaintances, but the most impressive and memorable feature of that evening was the splendid and inspiring address delivered by yourself.

I just wanted to tell you how much I enjoyed your address myself, and what an excellent response I noted to it among a number of my own McGill friends who were present.

I am sorry that it was impossible for you to come down to our Dinner here a month ago, but, of course, we quite appreciate that these are days which make very exacting demands upon your time.

With kind regards and all good wishes for McGill, I am,

Sincerely yours,
