

4. TABULATION OF REPLIES TO THE QUESTIONNAIRE

The tabulation of the thirty replies received is as follows:

Item	No. stating that this is			No. Not Replying
	A Major Objective	A Minor Objective	Not An Objective
1. To develop students with a broad background in the basic sciences	26	2	1	1
2. To train students in order that they may give safe and satisfactory service at the beginning of private practice	29			1
3. To develop in students a high degree of skill in restorative and replacement techniques....	25	3	1	1
4. To develop ability in the prevention and treatment of pathological conditions included in the field of dentistry	25	4		1
5. To train students to understand the relationship of the dental conditions of the patient to his general health	25	4		1
6. To train students in the recognition of oral manifestations of systemic disease	22	7		1
7. To prepare students in order that they may intelligently cooperate with physicians	18	10		2
8. To train students so that after graduation they will have a scientific attitude toward all of their professional problems	22	6	1	1
9. To develop the student so that he may carry on research and contribute to dental knowledge	4	22	2	2
10. To create in students initiative for individual study after graduation	14	11	3	2
11. To stimulate a desire for graduate work or postgraduate work	7	19	2	2
12. To train students to express clearly their ideas in spoken and written English	4	18	6	2
13. To train students in the principles of practice management	12	14	1	2
14. To train students to pass licensing examinations	5	6	19
15. To develop in students ideals of dentistry as an altruistic social service	15	12		3
16. To contribute toward the development of good character and citizenship	21	6	1	2
17. To serve as a center of influence for the improvement of dental service	20	6	2	2

Final conclusions cannot be drawn from the table. Nevertheless, the data may be summarized as follows: