

FOR SALE
TWO ACRES OF LAND
with Grand Front Porch, in Substantial
Condition. Situated on E. Beatty Street, between MURKIN PLANT.
Apply
H. H. WILLIAMS & CO.
25 King St. E.—Main 5400.

The Toronto World

Office for Rent.
25 KING STREET EAST.
Opposite King Edward Hotel. 1600 square feet, steam heat, elevator, janitor service, large vault. Will accept partitions to suit tenant. Apply
H. H. WILLIAMS & CO.
25 King St. E.—Main 5400.

FRIDAY MORNING NOVEMBER 12 1915
VOL. XXXV.—No. 12,784

FRESH, REINFORCED, STILL ADVANCE ON STRUMITZA

Money Raised For Machine Guns Not Wanted---May Go To Red Cross

'SERIOUS INFORMATION' HURRIED LORD KITCHENER TO THE EAST

OTTAWA WANTS NO MORE FOR MACHINE GUNS

Two Million Dollars Subscribed May Not Be Used to Purchase Them.
GOVERNMENT SILENT
Premier Issues Statement Denying any Cabinet Minister Requested Gifts.

By a Staff Reporter.
OTTAWA, Nov. 11.—That the government does not want any subscriptions for machine guns, but will provide for them out of the public treasury was the substance of a statement handed out here by Sir Robert Borden tonight. Nothing was forthcoming from the government as to the use to be made of the $2,000,000 given by the people of Canada for these guns while Sir Robert Borden and Sir Sam Hughes were in England. The matter is expected to arouse controversy in the country. Sir Sam Hughes tonight refused to discuss the question of the subscriptions received for machine guns, nor would any of the other ministers indicate what the purpose of the government is, but apparently the money is to be turned over to some other fund, probably the patriotic fund. It was said that the appeal for subscriptions had been issued by Senator Loughheed.

Statement of Premier.
The statement of Sir Robert Borden is as follows:
"The government desires it distinctly to be understood throughout the country that no subscriptions or contributions for machine guns are required, as all expenditures for that purpose should be deferred out of the public treasury. The impression seems to have gained ground that an appeal for such contributions from the public was made by some member of the government. The prime minister has made careful inquiry and cannot ascertain that any such request was ever put forward. The money of the people of Canada for aid to the Patriotic Fund, the Canadian Red Cross Society and other similar organizations which are performing a national service. It is earnestly hoped that the efforts of the various committees in Canada will be directed to necessary assistance for such associations rather than to contributions for machine guns which have been amply provided for by the federal government."
It was said that Sir Robert Borden is correct in his statement about no number of the government issuing the appeal. Senator Loughheed, the government leader in the upper chamber, is not a cabinet minister.

'DRY' WAVE LIKELY TO SWEEP NEWFOUNDLAND

Latest Returns Please Prohibitionists, But Result Remains Doubtful.

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., Nov. 11.—Polar district declared its poll in the prohibition election as 1189 for, 249 against, being 261 above the quota. Placenticia district declared its poll last night, 785 for, 909 against, which is 389 below the quota. Majority against prohibition to date, 1220.
Burns district announced today the result of the poll as 1275 for, and 1393 against. This is 152 votes over Placenticia's quota and leaves only 5220 votes to be obtained from the remainder of the three districts to carry the measure. This, it is now admitted, will probably be the result, the uncertainty exists until the result of the election in the St. Barbe is known, it being delayed by bad weather.

RUSS PLANS UNSPOILED BY WINTER'S COMING

Rivers and Ground Have Not Yet Frozen, and Work Continues.
LONDON, Nov. 12, 2:34 a.m.—The correspondent of The Times at the headquarters of Gen. Ruzsky's northern Russian army says the preliminary advent of winter has not affected the Russian plans, as the rivers and ground have not yet frozen. In the Dvina Valley there has been no interference with railway work and supplies are coming satisfactorily.

THE UNITED STATES IS FINDING OUT

The Press of the United States Are at Last Denouncing German Frightfulness, and German Conspiracy Against the Peace and Welfare of Our Neighbors.
It has taken these papers a long while to come to this conclusion. The Germans were not slow to find out that they could put anything over on the public of the States and they proceeded to do it. The United States had two chances (1) when the neutrality of Belgium was violated; (2) when German agents with German gold bought up leading American weekly papers to favor by direct statement, still more by innuendo, German policies. Every newspaper in New York knew about the purchase by German agents of these prominent weeklies, but no protest was put in. The Toronto World named them and it has never had cause to change its view.
A vigorous upholding of the neutrality of Belgium at the beginning of the war, a denunciation of the American papers that were willing to betray the freedom of the world for German gold and a declaration of war on Germany for her Lusitania murders would have saved the United States much in money, her standing in the world, and her national honor. The faint-hearted policy of Wilson will cost the United States billions in defence organization hereafter!
But who could expect anything else from Wilson after the press of his country stood silent at the betrayal of the liberty of the world by The Saturday Evening Post, The Literary Digest, and papers like them?
The United States at a great issue and when free government might have perished from the earth had no fixed policy, no determination no courage to rush to the defence of that liberty which she had so loudly professed.
Where the United States failed, Canada acted, and by her act has assumed the leadership and the spokesmanship of the democracy of America!

FINANCING BY WHITE WILL SAVE BIG SUM
Issue of Bonds Directly to Public Cuts Out Private Profit.
By a Staff Reporter.
OTTAWA, Nov. 11.—By issuing the coming domestic loan direct to the public rather than thru financial agents, Hon. W. T. White, minister of finance, will save the Dominion some $75,000. This is the reckoning that the same commission would be paid here as was paid by the Anglo-French commission recently to the American financial agents who underwrote their $500,000,000 loan. They underwrote it at 96 and sold to the public at 98, but they had expenses amounting to about one-quarter of one per cent. This left them 1-4 per cent. clear commission. Hon. Mr. White's plan will obviate the necessity of paying any such commission. He will have some expenses, including the advertising of the loan, but they will be comparatively small in amount.
Present indications are that the loan will be quickly taken up by both financial institutions and private investors.

SEVEN CANCERS CURED IN LONDON HOSPITAL

Healing Done by Assisting Efforts of Nature Thru Diet Regimen.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—Seven patients suffering from cancer have been completely cured "by assisting nature's efforts," according to Dr. Robert Bell, head of the cancer research department of the Battersea General Hospital.
"We have been able," said Dr. Bell, "to demonstrate beyond doubt that the healing power of nature, if sufficiently assisted by regulating the diet regimen of patients, together with the administration of therapeutic agents, has proved in many instances quite competent, not only to overcome the disease, but to bring about complete recovery."

BRITAIN VOTES TWO BILLIONS

LONDON, Nov. 11.—The house of commons tonight formally agreed to a vote of credit for $2,000,000,000 asked for by Premier Asquith.

CONSCRIPTION FOR ENGLAND LAST CALL FOR VOLUNTEERS

Earl Derby Says Single Men Must Come Forward and Enlist By End of Month or Steps Will Be Taken for Compulsion.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—A strong intimation of compulsion at an early date is contained in a statement tonight by the Earl of Derby, director of recruiting. This statement is made, Lord Derby declares, with the authority of the prime minister. It says: "If young men medically fit and not indispensable in any business of national importance, or any business conducted for the general good of the community, do not come forward voluntarily before Nov. 30, the government will, after that date, take the necessary steps to redeem the pledge made on Nov. 2.
On the date referred to, Premier Asquith announced in the house of commons that if young men did not come forward voluntarily and enlist, "other and compulsory means would be taken to fill their engagement to serve."
Lord Derby adds: "Whether a man is indispensable or not to his business will be decided not by the man or his employers, but by competent authorities and tribunals which are being set up to consider such cases."

MONROE'S FORCE IS PRESSING ON TO STRUMITZA

Further British Reinforcements Are Sent to Strengthen Right Wing.
ENEMY IS SLOWING UP
Austro-German Advance West of Nish is Losing Momentum.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—There has been no material change in the last 24 hours in the situation in Serbia. The Austro-Germans claim to be advancing along the line west of Nish, but the official reports of the invaders do not record the capture of any town.
In fact, the Serbians are now facing the invaders in the mountains, and they may be expected to make the advance of the Austro-Germans and Bulgarians difficult. It is also probable that the opposition the Austrians are meeting in their efforts to drive back the Montenegrins is delaying Field Marshal Von Mackensen's army, for the right wing must be free from this menace before they proceed with their drive.
French Advancing.
The news from the southern part of the country is very conflicting. It is now known that the French did not occupy but simply made a cavalry raid into the town of Valos, destroying the Bulgarian ammunition stores. The French, however, are advancing on the west side of the Vardar River and at the same time are repelling and

POSED AS WIFE OF A SOLDIER

Police Claim Mrs. Simmons Drew Money from the Patriotic Fund.

SAY SHE ADMITS IT
Allege Husband Lived in Same House With Another Woman.

Mrs. Eva Vine, alias Simmons, who gave her address as 737 Dufferin street, was placed under arrest last night by Detective Wickert on a charge of obtaining money from the Patriotic Fund and the government by false pretences. The arrest followed the investigation made on the complaint of a young man, since the United States, who claims that he was robbed of $21 while at the house of Mrs. Vine. According to the story of the police, Mrs. Vine had lived for four years with a soldier named Simmons, who went to the front with the first contingent, and on his departure she represented herself to the Patriotic Fund and the government officials as his wife. She had since then been paid $14.50 a month separation allowance from the fund and $20 a month by the government. When confronted with this, the police say she readily admitted that she had been receiving the money.
Under Conviction.
One week ago she was charged with keeping a house of ill fame and was convicted.
The young man who made the complaint to the morality department, R. J. Newman, he visited Mrs. Vine's house some time ago and they each spent $15, but after leaving he found that he had been robbed of $21. Next day Newman is alleged to have returned to the house and told Mrs. Vine that he knew she had robbed his friend, and that if she did not refund some of the money he would inform the police and have her arrested.
On the strength of his threats she refunded him $10. Newman was afterwards arrested on a charge of obtaining money from her by monies and on his appearance in the police court yesterday was committed for trial.
Mrs. Vine told the police last night that Simmons was not her real name, but that she assumed that name when she started to live with the soldier. Her husband, she alleges, lived in the same house with another woman while she was posing as the wife of Simmons.

SIXTY-NINTH BATTALION WINTERS AT MONTREAL

Unit Will Leave Quebec Tonight—Expected to Be Sent to Halifax.

MONTREAL, Nov. 11.—The 69th (French Canadian) battalion will, it was announced today at military headquarters, leave Quebec for Montreal tomorrow night, and will be quartered in the Guy street barracks here until called upon to go overseas. This is a change from the original plans by which it had been arranged for the 69th to winter at Halifax.

BARON VERNON WAS VICTIM OF DYSENTERY

Young Captain of Derbyshire Yeomanry Died at Malta.

LONDON, Nov. 12.—Baron Vernon, captain of the Derbyshire Yeomanry, has died at Malta from dysentery.
Captain Vernon was born in 1883 and succeeded to the title on the death of his father in 1898. His mother was Frances, daughter of Francis C. Lawrence of New York.

COMMAND TO BE GIVEN TO SIR MAX AITKEN

Canadian Eye-Witness Will Be Employed in Active Service.

By a Staff Reporter.
OTTAWA, Nov. 11.—Sir Sam Hughes intimated tonight that Sir Max Aitken will be given some command at the front as soon as he qualifies. Sir Max Aitken, who has been acting as a Canadian eye witness, has volunteered for active service, and if his services are not required in that capacity he volunteered to raise a regiment in Canada. Sir Sam Hughes prefers the former service and in remarking upon this tonight, gave unstinted praise to the Canadian financier.

HON. MARTIN BURRELL SAW U. S. PRESIDENT

Number of Matters Taken Up at Washington by Canadian Minister.

By a Staff Reporter.
OTTAWA, Nov. 11.—Hon. Martin Burrell, minister of agriculture, has returned from his trip to Washington, where he took up a number of matters with the United States Government. He also had an interview with President Wilson. The minister was accompanied by Mrs. Burrell, who unfortunately became seriously ill, and after her recovery they spent a few days at Hot Springs, Va.
According to supplementary information 1500 men, 21 officers and 11 machine guns were captured by us in the fighting at Kolki in addition to 2000 men and 50 officers previously reported. On the rest of the front there is no change.
"On the Caucasus front, in the region of Lake Tortum, in the sector of Kaladik-Akha, as well as in the district south of Khorassan, near the town of Kharasandag, and the valley of the Demorra, on the southern shore of Lake Van, there have been outpost skirmishes."

BRITAIN WILL BE ENABLED TO FIND MONEY REQUIRED

Former Chancellor of Exchequer Deprecates Criticisms in House of Lords—Resolution Asks "Effective Supervision" by Government.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—Earl St. Aldwyn, former chancellor of the exchequer, during the debate on the necessity for greater economy, which was resumed this evening in the house of lords, declared that whatever the financial requirements were they would be met. He believed the country would find the money and that there was no reason for faint-heartedness in these matters, giving the foes of the nation cause to rejoice, but the government was bound to exercise far more than it had yet exercised the means of economizing at its disposal.
Earl St. Aldwyn protested against delay in raising new taxation for the war. Large as the increases were, which had been made, he said, they were not large enough, especially in regard to indirect taxation.
Bankers Campaign.
Earl St. Aldwyn added, however, that unless drastic economies were put into effect, he did not think the issue of the war would be as successful as all hoped and intended it should be.
Baron Sydenham said he had reason to know that the bankers of the coun-

BRITISH AERIAL FLEET GROWING FAIRLY RAPIDLY

Balfour Says Shortage of Men is, However, Serious Handicap.

ATTACK ON KITCHENER
Lynch, Nationalist, Declares Men in High Command Are Incapable.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—Measures taken by Britain in the development of its aircraft for both offensive and defensive operations were discussed in the house of commons tonight. Hon. A. J. Balfour, first lord of the admiralty, said it was recognized as most desirable that Britain should have overwhelming forces of modern aircraft, which could not only be hurled against Zeppelin invaders, but become invaders themselves.
"The government is doing its best to increase the number of aviators and machines for their use," he declared.
In the earlier debate Hon. Mr. Balfour laid down the principle that as the war moved on, the conduct of the war on the ground that "all criticism on the conduct of the war must be left to the men in the field, and indeed long after, be a matter almost impossible to deal with, because facts are not and cannot be known."
Disatisfaction Alleged.
The aeroplane question was raised by William Joyson-Hicks, member for the Brentford division of Middlesex, who drew attention to the conduct of the war on the ground that "all criticism on the conduct of the war must be left to the men in the field, and indeed long after, be a matter almost impossible to deal with, because facts are not and cannot be known."
Disatisfaction Alleged.
The aeroplane question was raised by William Joyson-Hicks, member for the Brentford division of Middlesex, who drew attention to the conduct of the war on the ground that "all criticism on the conduct of the war must be left to the men in the field, and indeed long after, be a matter almost impossible to deal with, because facts are not and cannot be known."

RUSSIANS GAIN MORE SUCCESS

Increase Number of Prisoners Taken at Kolki by Fifteen Hundred.

WIN FIGHT AT IKSKUL
Borsemuende Farm Captured With Germans and Machine Guns.

PETROGRAD, Nov. 11, via London, Nov. 12, 12:05 a.m.—The following official communication was issued today:
"On the left bank of the Dvina near Ikskul our troops, with the assistance of local artillery, captured the farm of Borsemuende and took some dozens of German prisoners, besides capturing two machine guns. Two counter-attacks by the enemy were repulsed with heavy German losses."
"Near the village of Kostoukshovka, west of Radalovka, a stubborn action developed."
"According to supplementary information 1500 men, 21 officers and 11 machine guns were captured by us in the fighting at Kolki in addition to 2000 men and 50 officers previously reported. On the rest of the front there is no change."
"On the Caucasus front, in the region of Lake Tortum, in the sector of Kaladik-Akha, as well as in the district south of Khorassan, near the town of Kharasandag, and the valley of the Demorra, on the southern shore of Lake Van, there have been outpost skirmishes."

EARL KITCHENER DID NOT TENDER HIS RESIGNATION

Premier Asquith Throws Light on Suppression of Globe Newspaper.

'SERIOUS INFORMATION'
Decision to Send Kitchener to Near East Arrived at Suddenly.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—During the course of a discussion in the house of commons on the suspension of The Globe newspaper, James Myles Hogg, member for East Edinburgh, declared his belief that the statement that Lord Kitchener had resigned was true and that the seizure of the paper because of the publication of the statement was not justified.
Premier Asquith, who immediately replied, said that Mr. Hogg accused him of a "deliberate and inexcusable falsehood," and to make the matter quite clear he declared:
"Earl Kitchener never tendered his resignation either to the King or myself, the only two persons to whom he could have tendered it. Earl Kitchener never breathed a word of resignation to either."
A sudden call.
The decision to send Lord Kitchener to the near east, the premier added, was taken by the cabinet on Thursday (Nov. 4). Serious information which led the government to take the decision was brought to their knowledge for the first time on Wednesday. In the interests of public life he protested against the charges being directed against the head of the government, as likely, if believed, to do incalculable harm to the country throughout the world. He repudiated the charge that The Globe had been singled out for special treatment.
Sir John Simon, home secretary, pointed out that The Globe was in an entirely different position than the other papers, in that it had ignored the warning of the press bureau on Thursday night in the form of a resignation. The decision to send Lord Kitchener's movements until further notice.
If a paper would not listen to the government warning in a crisis, such as this, it must listen when the government acted. If the proprietors thought they had ground for action the government would offer every facility for these proceedings to be accelerated.
May Penalize Others.
The home secretary said that the length of time The Globe would remain under suspension depended on the attitude which the paper took towards the government. The decision to send Lord Kitchener to the near east, the premier added, was taken by the cabinet on Thursday (Nov. 4). Serious information which led the government to take the decision was brought to their knowledge for the first time on Wednesday. In the interests of public life he protested against the charges being directed against the head of the government, as likely, if believed, to do incalculable harm to the country throughout the world. He repudiated the charge that The Globe had been singled out for special treatment.
Sir John Simon, home secretary, pointed out that The Globe was in an entirely different position than the other papers, in that it had ignored the warning of the press bureau on Thursday night in the form of a resignation. The decision to send Lord Kitchener's movements until further notice.
If a paper would not listen to the government warning in a crisis, such as this, it must listen when the government acted. If the proprietors thought they had ground for action the government would offer every facility for these proceedings to be accelerated.
May Penalize Others.
The home secretary said that the length of time The Globe would remain under suspension depended on the attitude which the paper took towards the government. The decision to send Lord Kitchener to the near east, the premier added, was taken by the cabinet on Thursday (Nov. 4). Serious information which led the government to take the decision was brought to their knowledge for the first time on Wednesday. In the interests of public life he protested against the charges being directed against the head of the government, as likely, if believed, to do incalculable harm to the country throughout the world. He repudiated the charge that The Globe had been singled out for special treatment.
Sir John Simon, home secretary, pointed out that The Globe was in an entirely different position than the other papers, in that it had ignored the warning of the press bureau on Thursday night in the form of a resignation. The decision to send Lord Kitchener's movements until further notice.
If a paper would not listen to the government warning in a crisis, such as this, it must listen when the government acted. If the proprietors thought they had ground for action the government would offer every facility for these proceedings to be accelerated.
May Penalize Others.
The home secretary said that the length of time The Globe would remain under suspension depended on the attitude which the paper took towards the government. The decision to send Lord Kitchener to the near east, the premier added, was taken by the cabinet on Thursday (Nov. 4). Serious information which led the government to take the decision was brought to their knowledge for the first time on Wednesday. In the interests of public life he protested against the charges being directed against the head of the government, as likely, if believed, to do incalculable harm to the country throughout the world. He repudiated the charge that The Globe had been singled out for special treatment.
Sir John Simon, home secretary, pointed out that The Globe was in an entirely different position than the other papers, in that it had ignored the warning of the press bureau on Thursday night in the form of a resignation. The decision to send Lord Kitchener's movements until further notice.
If a paper would not listen to the government warning in a crisis, such as this, it must listen when the government acted. If the proprietors thought they had ground for action the government would offer every facility for these proceedings to be accelerated.
May Penalize Others.
The home secretary said that the length of time The Globe would remain under suspension depended on the attitude which the paper took towards the government. The decision to send Lord Kitchener to the near east, the premier added, was taken by the cabinet on Thursday (Nov. 4). Serious information which led the government to take the decision was brought to their knowledge for the first time on Wednesday. In the interests of public life he protested against the charges being directed against the head of the government, as likely, if believed, to do incalculable harm to the country throughout the world. He repudiated the charge that The Globe had been singled out for special treatment.
Sir John Simon, home secretary, pointed out that The Globe was in an entirely different position than the other papers, in that it had ignored the warning of the press bureau on Thursday night in the form of a resignation. The decision to send Lord Kitchener's movements until further notice.
If a paper would not listen to the government warning in a crisis, such as this, it must listen when the government acted. If the proprietors thought they had ground for action the government would offer every facility for these proceedings to be accelerated.
May Penalize Others.
The home secretary said that the length of time The Globe would remain under suspension depended on the attitude which the paper took towards the government. The decision to send Lord Kitchener to the near east, the premier added, was taken by the cabinet on Thursday (Nov. 4). Serious information which led the government to take the decision was brought to their knowledge for the first time on Wednesday. In the interests of public life he protested against the charges being directed against the head of the government, as likely, if believed, to do incalculable harm to the country throughout the world. He repudiated the charge that The Globe had been singled out for special treatment.
Sir John Simon, home secretary, pointed out that The Globe was in an entirely different position than the other papers, in that it had ignored the warning of the press bureau on Thursday night in the form of a resignation. The decision to send Lord Kitchener's movements until further notice.
If a paper would not listen to the government warning in a crisis, such as this, it must listen when the government acted. If the proprietors thought they had ground for action the government would offer every facility for these proceedings to be accelerated.
May Penalize Others.
The home secretary said that the length of time The Globe would remain under suspension depended on the attitude which the paper took towards the government. The decision to send Lord Kitchener to the near east, the premier added, was taken by the cabinet on Thursday (Nov. 4). Serious information which led the government to take the decision was brought to their knowledge for the first time on Wednesday. In the interests of public life he protested against the charges being directed against the head of the government, as likely, if believed, to do incalculable harm to the country throughout the world. He repudiated the charge that The Globe had been singled out for special treatment.
Sir John Simon, home secretary, pointed out that The Globe was in an entirely different position than the other papers, in that it had ignored the warning of the press bureau on Thursday night in the form of a resignation. The decision to send Lord Kitchener's movements until further notice.
If a paper would not listen to the government warning in a crisis, such as this, it must listen when the government acted. If the proprietors thought they had ground for action the government would offer every facility for these proceedings to be accelerated.
May Penalize Others.
The home secretary said that the length of time The Globe would remain under suspension depended on the attitude which the paper took towards the government. The decision to send Lord Kitchener to the near east, the premier added, was taken by the cabinet on Thursday (Nov. 4). Serious information which led the government to take the decision was brought to their knowledge for the first time on Wednesday. In the interests of public life he protested against the charges being directed against the head of the government, as likely, if believed, to do incalculable harm to the country throughout the world. He repudiated the charge that The Globe had been singled out for special treatment.
Sir John Simon, home secretary, pointed out that The Globe was in an entirely different position than the other papers, in that it had ignored the warning of the press bureau on Thursday night in the form of a resignation. The decision to send Lord Kitchener's movements until further notice.
If a paper would not listen to the government warning in a crisis, such as this, it must listen when the government acted. If the proprietors thought they had ground for action the government would offer every facility for these proceedings to be accelerated.
May Penalize Others.
The home secretary said that the length of time The Globe would remain under suspension depended on the attitude which the paper took towards the government. The decision to send Lord Kitchener to the near east, the premier added, was taken by the cabinet on Thursday (Nov. 4). Serious information which led the government to take the decision was brought to their knowledge for the first time on Wednesday. In the interests of public life he protested against the charges being directed against the head of the government, as likely, if believed, to do incalculable harm to the country throughout the world. He repudiated the charge that The Globe had been singled out for special treatment.
Sir John Simon, home secretary, pointed out that The Globe was in an entirely different position than the other papers, in that it had ignored the warning of the press bureau on Thursday night in the form of a resignation. The decision to send Lord Kitchener's movements until further notice.
If a paper would not listen to the government warning in a crisis, such as this, it must listen when the government acted. If the proprietors thought they had ground for action the government would offer every facility for these proceedings to be accelerated.
May Penalize Others.
The home secretary said that the length of time The Globe would remain under suspension depended on the attitude which the paper took towards the government. The decision to send Lord Kitchener to the near east, the premier added, was taken by the cabinet on Thursday (Nov. 4). Serious information which led the government to take the decision was brought to their knowledge for the first time on Wednesday. In the interests of public life he protested against the charges being directed against the head of the government, as likely, if believed, to do incalculable harm to the country throughout the world. He repudiated the charge that The Globe had been singled out for special treatment.
Sir John Simon, home secretary, pointed out that The Globe was in an entirely different position than the other papers, in that it had ignored the warning of the press bureau on Thursday night in the form of a resignation. The decision to send Lord Kitchener's movements until further notice.
If a paper would not listen to the government warning in a crisis, such as this, it must listen when the government acted. If the proprietors thought they had ground for action the government would offer every facility for these proceedings to be accelerated.
May Penalize Others.
The home secretary said that the length of time The Globe would remain under suspension depended on the attitude which the paper took towards the government. The decision to send Lord Kitchener to the near east, the premier added, was taken by the cabinet on Thursday (Nov. 4). Serious information which led the government to take the decision was brought to their knowledge for the first time on Wednesday. In the interests of public life he protested against the charges being directed against the head of the government, as likely, if believed, to do incalculable harm to the country throughout the world. He repudiated the charge that The Globe had been singled out for special treatment.
Sir John Simon, home secretary, pointed out that The Globe was in an entirely different position than the other papers, in that it had ignored the warning of the press bureau on Thursday night in the form of a resignation. The decision to send Lord Kitchener's movements until further notice.
If a paper would not listen to the government warning in a crisis, such as this, it must listen when the government acted. If the proprietors thought they had ground for action the government would offer every facility for these proceedings to be accelerated.
May Penalize Others.
The home secretary said that the length of time The Globe would remain under suspension depended on the attitude which the paper took towards the government. The decision to send Lord Kitchener to the near east, the premier added, was taken by the cabinet on Thursday (Nov. 4). Serious information which led the government to take the decision was brought to their knowledge for the first time on Wednesday. In the interests of public life he protested against the charges being directed against the head of the government, as likely, if believed, to do incalculable harm to the country throughout the world. He repudiated the charge that The Globe had been singled out for special treatment.
Sir John Simon, home secretary, pointed out that The Globe was in an entirely different position than the other papers, in that it had ignored the warning of the press bureau on Thursday night in the form of a resignation. The decision to send Lord Kitchener's movements until further notice.
If a paper would not listen to the government warning in a crisis, such as this, it must listen when the government acted. If the proprietors thought they had ground for action the government would offer every facility for these proceedings to be accelerated.
May Penalize Others.
The home secretary said that the length of time The Globe would remain under suspension depended on the attitude which the paper took towards the government. The decision to send Lord Kitchener to the near east, the premier added, was taken by the cabinet on Thursday (Nov. 4). Serious information which led the government to take the decision was brought to their knowledge for the first time on Wednesday. In the interests of public life he protested against the charges being directed against the head of the government, as likely, if believed, to do incalculable harm to the country throughout the world. He repudiated the charge that The Globe had been singled out for special treatment.
Sir John Simon, home secretary, pointed out that The Globe was in an entirely different position than the other papers, in that it had ignored the warning of the press bureau on Thursday night in the form of a resignation. The decision to send Lord Kitchener's movements until further notice.
If a paper would not listen to the government warning in a crisis, such as this, it must listen when the government acted. If the proprietors thought they had ground for action the government would offer every facility for these proceedings to be accelerated.
May Penalize Others.
The home secretary said that the length of time The Globe would remain under suspension depended on the attitude which the paper took towards the government. The decision to send Lord Kitchener to the near east, the premier added, was taken by the cabinet on Thursday (Nov. 4). Serious information which led the government to take the decision was brought to their knowledge for the first time on Wednesday. In the interests of public life he protested against the charges being directed against the head of the government, as likely, if believed, to do incalculable harm to the country throughout the world. He repudiated the charge that The Globe had been singled out for special treatment.
Sir John Simon, home secretary, pointed out that The Globe was in an entirely different position than the other papers, in that it had ignored the warning of the press bureau on Thursday night in the form of a resignation. The decision to send Lord Kitchener's movements until further notice.
If a paper would not listen to the government warning in a crisis, such as this, it must listen when the government acted. If the proprietors thought they had ground for action the government would offer every facility for these proceedings to be accelerated.
May Penalize Others.
The home secretary said that the length of time The Globe would remain under suspension depended on the attitude which the paper took towards the government. The decision to send Lord Kitchener to the near east, the premier added, was taken by the cabinet on Thursday (Nov. 4). Serious information which led the government to take the decision was brought to their knowledge for the first time on Wednesday. In the interests of public life he protested against the charges being directed against the head of the government, as likely, if believed, to do incalculable harm to the country throughout the world. He repudiated the charge that The Globe had been singled out for special treatment.
Sir John Simon, home secretary, pointed out that The Globe was in an entirely different position than the other papers, in that it had ignored the warning of the press bureau on Thursday night in the form of a resignation. The decision to send Lord Kitchener's movements until further notice.
If a paper would not listen to the government warning in a crisis, such as this, it must listen when the government acted. If the proprietors thought they had ground for action the government would offer every facility for these proceedings to be accelerated.
May Penalize Others.
The home secretary said that the length of time The Globe would remain under suspension depended on the attitude which the paper took towards the government. The decision to send Lord Kitchener to the near east, the premier added, was taken by the cabinet on Thursday (Nov. 4). Serious information which led the government to take the decision was brought to their knowledge for the first time on Wednesday. In the interests of public life he protested against the charges being directed against the head of the government, as likely, if believed, to do incalculable harm to the country throughout the world. He repudiated the charge that The Globe had been singled out for special treatment.
Sir John Simon, home secretary, pointed out that The Globe was in an entirely different position than the other papers, in that it had ignored the warning of the press bureau on Thursday night in the form of a resignation. The decision to send Lord Kitchener's movements until further notice.
If a paper would not listen to the government warning in a crisis, such as this, it must listen when the government acted. If the proprietors thought they had ground for action the government would offer every facility for these proceedings to be accelerated.
May Penalize Others.
The home secretary said that the length of time The Globe would remain under suspension depended on the attitude which the paper took towards the government. The decision to send Lord Kitchener to the near east, the premier added, was taken by the cabinet on Thursday (Nov. 4). Serious information which led the government to take the decision was brought to their knowledge for the first time on Wednesday. In the interests of public life he protested against the charges being directed against the head of the government, as likely, if believed, to do incalculable harm to the country throughout the world. He repudiated the charge that The Globe had been singled out for special treatment.
Sir John Simon, home secretary, pointed out that The Globe was in an entirely different position than the other papers, in that it had ignored the warning of the press bureau on Thursday night in the form of a resignation. The decision to send Lord Kitchener's movements until further notice.
If a paper would not listen to the government warning in a crisis, such as this, it must listen when the government acted. If the proprietors thought they had ground for action the government would offer every facility for these proceedings to be accelerated.
May Penalize Others.
The home secretary said that the length of time The Globe would remain under suspension depended on the attitude which the paper took towards the government. The decision to send Lord Kitchener to the near east, the premier added, was taken by the cabinet on Thursday (Nov. 4). Serious information which led the government to take the decision was brought to their knowledge for the first time on Wednesday. In the interests of public life he protested against the charges being directed against the head of the government, as likely, if believed, to do incalculable harm to the country throughout the world. He repudiated the charge that The Globe had been singled out for special treatment.
Sir John Simon, home secretary, pointed out that The Globe was in an entirely different position than the other papers, in that it had ignored the warning of the press bureau on Thursday night in the form of a resignation. The decision to send Lord Kitchener's movements until further notice.
If a paper would not listen to the government warning in a crisis, such as this, it must listen when the government acted. If the proprietors thought they had ground for action the government would offer every facility for these proceedings to be accelerated.
May Penalize Others.
The home secretary said that the length of time The Globe would remain under suspension depended on the attitude which the paper took towards the government. The decision to send Lord Kitchener to the near east, the premier added, was taken by the cabinet on Thursday (Nov. 4). Serious information which led the government to take the decision was brought to their knowledge for the first time on Wednesday. In the interests of public life he protested against the charges being directed against the head of the government, as likely, if believed, to do incalculable harm to the country throughout the world. He repudiated the charge that The Globe had been singled out for special treatment.
Sir John Simon, home secretary, pointed out that The Globe was in an entirely different position than the other papers, in that it had ignored the warning of the press bureau on Thursday night in the form of a resignation. The decision to send Lord Kitchener's movements until further notice.
If a paper would not listen to the government warning in a crisis, such as this, it must listen when the government acted. If the proprietors thought they had ground for action the government would offer every facility for these proceedings to be accelerated.
May Penalize Others.
The home secretary said that the length of time The Globe would remain under suspension depended on the attitude which the paper took towards the government. The decision to send Lord Kitchener to the near east, the premier added, was taken by the cabinet on Thursday (Nov. 4). Serious information which led the government to take the decision was brought to their knowledge for the first time on Wednesday. In the interests of public life he protested against the charges being directed against the head of the government, as likely, if believed, to do incalculable harm to the country throughout the world. He repudiated the charge that The Globe had been singled out for special treatment.
Sir John Simon, home secretary, pointed out that The Globe was in an entirely different position than the other papers, in that it had ignored the warning of the press bureau on Thursday night in the form of a resignation. The decision to send Lord Kitchener's movements until further notice.
If a paper would not listen to the government warning in a crisis, such as this, it must listen when the government acted. If the proprietors thought they had ground for action the government would offer every facility for these proceedings to be accelerated.
May Penalize Others.
The home secretary said that the length of time The Globe would remain under suspension depended on the attitude which the paper took towards the government. The decision to send Lord Kitchener to the near east, the premier added, was taken by the cabinet on Thursday (Nov. 4). Serious information which led the government to take the decision was brought to their knowledge for the first time on Wednesday. In the interests of public life he protested against the charges being directed against the head of the government, as likely, if believed, to do incalculable harm to the country throughout the world. He repudiated the charge that The Globe had been singled out for special treatment.
Sir John Simon, home secretary, pointed out that The Globe was in an entirely different position than the other papers, in that it had ignored the warning of the press bureau on Thursday night in the form of a resignation. The decision to send Lord Kitchener's movements until further notice.
If a paper would not listen to the government warning in a crisis, such as this, it must listen when the government acted. If the proprietors thought they had ground for action the government would offer every facility for these proceedings to be accelerated.
May Penalize Others.
The home secretary said that the length of time The Globe would remain under suspension depended on the attitude which the paper took towards the government. The decision to send Lord Kitchener to the near east, the premier