COMMITTEES AND THEIR REPORTS

Rule 37.—The member first named in the appointment of a special committee shall be convener of the same, and shall call the committee together at such time and place as he may select; but when thus convened, any committee shall elect its own Chairman and Secretary.

Rule 38.—All reports of committees, except reports of progress, shall be made in writing and signed by the convener.

Rule 39.—When a majority report is followed by a report from the minority of a committee, the former shall lie on the table until the latter is presented on motion, either may be considered.

Rule 40.—When a report has been read and considered as properly before the Division with a view to its acceptance.

Rule 41.—All Committees shall be appointed by the Division unless otherwise provided for.

Rule 42.—All reports, &c., to be handed to the convener, who shall read the same.
