

"and who had become sufferers through the disloyal and disaffected in the Lower Province, were nobly and generously defrayed by Upper Canada from her own local resources. And further, that this House, considering the vast importance of the measure (both in a political and moral view) as now proposed by the present Administration, and embraced in the original Resolutions, and the sudden and peculiar mode of introducing it by which the country has been taken by surprise, and also considering the impoverished and embarrassed state of the finances of the Province generally, which has put a stop to our public improvements so much required, is of opinion that this measure ought not to be further proceeded with until a direct appeal has been made to the people, and their voice expressed in a proper constitutional manner."
