

Speak more than once on the same motion, excepting the mover, who shall be entitled to speak once in reply; and every Member shall address his discourse to the President as organ of the Society.

President's vote. ART. 4. The President shall only vote when the votes are equally divided.

OFFICER'S ABSENCE. ART. 5. In the absence of the President, the oldest Vice President, if they are both present, shall preside. If they are both absent, the Members present shall choose a President for the Meeting. In the absence of the Treasurer the payment of the monthly contributions shall be deferred till the succeeding Meeting.

Stewards. ART. 6. The Stewards shall not be absent without leave of the President, or an excuse, the sufficiency of which will be determined by the Society.

DUTIES President. ART. 7. The President shall order and superintend the execution and observance of all