FAVORED NATION TREATIES.

LONDON, April 5.—(C.A.P. Cable.)— The Standard, discussing the commercial treaty of England and Japan, says the worthlessness of the most favored nation treaties is exposed in the discrimination duties which the U.S.A. would impose on British goods if results of the Canada case into operation.

A Boy Housebreaker.

Garry Brown is 17 years of age and has no home. Yesterday he was found in a house at 824 Hamilton's Point on the island, by Special Constable Samuel Stevenson. He was brought to the city and locked up on a charge of housebreaking. When taken he was wearing a pair of pants and a vest which he had annexed during his brief visit to the house.

ANTENOR, AT 8 TO 1, WINS HANDICAP AT JAMESTOWN

Many Incidents on Opening Day of Meeting at Norfolk—Card For To-day.

NORFOLK, Va., April 5.—Antenor, a colt owned by W. H. Austin, captured the Victoria Hotel Stakes to-day in the feature event of the opening day of the Jamestown Jockey Club meeting, which is to continue until April 26. During the running of the fifth race San Matthews botted to the inner fence and broke his rider's (Wingfield) leg by crushing it against the rail.

Fred Miller and Wm. Hickey, layers, were arrested to make a further test of the Virginia race track law. Both were banned for their appearance to-day after afternoon before Magistrate Backus, engagements in court of the commonwealth attorney preventing an earlier trial.

The telegraph companies had no wires on the track to-day in order to avoid it was said, any possible violation of the Interstate commerce laws by giving one class of business preference over another.

The track was heavy to-day because of previous rains, as well as a severe storm between events.
