

ALD. CHISHOLM IS APPOINTED CITY PROPERTY COMMISSIONER TRINITY DEAL WILL BE CLOSED

Dr. Hastings Gets No Increase in Salary Just Now—Moore Park Will Be Annexed as Soon as Possible—First-Class Policemen Get $50 a Year Increase—Civic Committees Will Not Be Abolished—Bloor Street Viaduct Question Again Referred Back.

The City Council

Appointed Daniel Chisholm as property commissioner.

Decided to acquire the Trinity College property.

Decided to issue debentures for civic abattoir.

Gave first-class policemen $50 raise in salary.

Refused Dr. Hastings $1000 raise.

Decided to annex Moore Park.

Agreed to alter Wellington-street as proposed by commissioner Harris.

Granted legislation and reception committee an extra appropriation of $1500.

Decided to pay $25,000 to York Highway Commission on account.

Refused to merge committee and give controllers more power.

Decided to engage Allan Hazen to prepare plans for additional filtration plant.

Agreed to issue debentures for new $24,100 water main.

Decided to mention the bravery of Eldridge Stanton on the Heacock memorial.

Referred back proposal to construct Bloor-street viaduct of steel.

Following his resignation as an alderman in ward one, Daniel Chisholm was appointed property commissioner by a vote of 15 to 3 at the meeting of the city council last night. The necessary bylaw was introduced and given its three readings so that Mr. Chisholm will be authorized to take charge of the department to-day. Earlier in the evening the council had again refused to endorse the board of control's recommendation of Wm. Fitzgerald for the position, so that the sweeping majority Mr. Chisholm received indicates that he was favored both by those aldermen who favored compromise and by his own supporters.

Mr. Chisholm has sat in the city council for a longer consecutive period than any other member, being first elected for ward one in 1903. He was known in municipal circles as chairman of the committee on works, in which position he displayed great ability and industry, and is often referred to as the most efficient member who ever occupied that seat. He is at present engaged in the grain and produce business.

Besides filling the position of property commissioner, the council passed the board's recommendation to acquire the Trinity College grounds by a large majority. A vote of expediency was also carried to annex Moore Park. Among the other matters passed was Acting Mayor Church's proposal to give the first-class policemen a $50 raise in salary, and the proposal to issue debentures to cover the cost of the civic abattoir. The council refused to enforce the scheme of merging some of the committees and giving increased authority to the board of control; and Dr. Hastings was denied an increase of $1000 in salary.

Municipal Abattoir.

When the bylaw to provide for the issue of debentures for a $200,000 municipal abattoir was introduced, Ald. McBride claimed that the city was going into the deal without looking into the situation. He argued for delay until an investigation was held to find out if the scheme was feasible.

According to Ald. O'Neill, the deal was unanimous that it would be a successful venture for the city, and that it would secure the loyal support of all the smaller cattle dealers. The city was not going into the matter blindly, he said, since the present conditions demanded that the city should go into the enterprise.

Ald. Hilton had no objection to the city going into the cattle market business, but he thought the best location was in West Toronto. He pointed to the St. Lawrence Market, which he said was built in a place from which the trade was being rapidly diverted. If the council did not choose another site, he thought that the civic abattoir would be a failure.

Confession of Weakness.

Controller McCarthy could not see any argument in Ald. Hilton's remarks. If the city built in West Toronto, he thought it would be equal to a confession of weakness. What was needed, he said, was that the city should tighten up and meet the competition. The trade, and the citizens in general, were favorable to the scheme, and conditions were such that the city should act and act quickly. The council moved an amendment to the effect that the $200,000 be applied not only for the construction of the abattoir, but for the improvement of the market in general.

Ald. McMurrich counseled caution. The controller moved much too fast. He thought that the necessary amount of information had not been secured, and hence a delay was advisable.

Get Full Details.

There was no doubt that the city had not sufficient information, according to Controller Foster, who contended that full details should be supplied before the matter was given its third reading. The policy, he said, was a good one, and it only needed judicious management for the scheme to be successful. The small drover, he said, was handicapped under the present system, and the city could protect this part of the trade and thus confer a great benefit upon the most business in general.

Controller Foster believed that the importance of the by-products could not be over-estimated, and unless the city obtained a modern plant to deal with these, he thought that success would be doubtful. He contended that fact should be used with the small butcher, since if the city lost this trade, the venture was doomed, and the producer and consumer would both suffer.

One in Texas.

"In the United States there is but one strictly municipal abattoir, which is in Paris, Texas," said Ald. Rowland, who recently returned from a trip of inspection with Dr. Hastings, when frequent American abattoirs were inspected. The alderman told of the system in vogue in the United States, where co-operative methods had resulted with great success. His visit, he said, convinced him more than ever that a civic abattoir would be a great success in Toronto.

The bylaw was finally amended as proposed by Controller McCarthy, and passed on its first and second reading.

Covering Fruit.

E. W. J. Owens, M.L.A., and a deputation of prominent fruit dealers appeared before the council and protested against the health bylaw which compelled the covering of fruit. The bylaw, he said, defeated its own ends, because cloth covering only resulted in the fruit decaying much quicker than otherwise. On account of the war, the citizens had to pay higher prices, besides getting inferior fruit.

"It should be considered from a human standpoint and from a business standpoint," he said. "Any reasonable precautions would be supported by the dealers," he claimed, "but the present bylaw is an unjust interference with the trade, and if you don't see fit to repeal it, we would suggest that you instruct your medical health officer to have no more summonses issued until we look into the matter and find some more practical method of keeping the fruit."

When Mr. Owens finished, the council chamber resounded with prolonged applause from a large number of Italian fruit dealers in the gallery.

After several other speakers had discussed the situation, Acting Mayor Church called on Dr. Hastings.

"If the bylaw is carried out, it will accomplish all it was intended to do," said the doctor, who claimed that his department was having difficulty in securing convictions for the summonses issued. He claimed that the bylaw was merely to secure decent cleanliness and that similar regulations existed in 80 per cent. of the cities on the continent.

Destroy the Fruit.

Ald. McBride moved that the bylaw be not enforced until an effort was made to see if some more satisfactory arrangement could be made. He contended that if a proper system of inspection were inaugurated, the spoiled fruit could be destroyed and the people protected in this way.

Acting Mayor Church suggested that a deputation meet the local board of health at a special meeting to be held at 2 p.m. to-day. This was agreed upon.

More Pay for Police.

Acting Mayor Church brought up his motion on the order paper that all first-class policemen be given a $50 increase in salary. Provision for this was made in the estimates, he said, but it was struck out during the revision. He claimed that the first-class men were being underpaid in this city, as compared with the wages in the larger cities in the United States. There were 170 first-class constables, he said, and to give a $50 raise to each would mean an expenditure of $8500.

Ald. McMurrich and Controller Foster protested that it was the wrong time of the year to consider such a matter.

According to Ald. McBride, the council were under the impression that the first-class men had been given their raise like the third-class constables. When the vote was taken, the matter carried by 16 to 3, the division being as follows:

For the increase: Acting Mayor Church, Controller McCarthy, Heckson, Ald. Wanless, Maguire, Spence, Spence, Spence, McBrien, Austin, Weston, McBride, Rowland, Graham, Hilton, and O'Neill—16.

Against: Controller Foster and Ald. McMurrich—3.

Dr. Hastings' Salary.

The first item in the board of control's report was the proposal to raise Dr. Hastings' salary from $5000 to $6000. Controller Foster protested vigorously that it was bad procedure and inconsistent on the part of the council. While arguing the matter, the controller was forced to stop through lack of a quorum. Continuing, he said, that the policy of the health department had been a hardship upon many of the poorer people in the city. He was informed, he said, that several inspectors of the department had been dismissed last week, and told that the board of control had refused to provide funds for their salaries. It was a disgrace to the council if they raised the doctor's salary in spite of this.

Best in the City.

According to Ald. McBride, there was no comparison between Dr. Hastings and the previous medical health officer. The doctor, he claimed, was the best man the city could secure for the position and was entitled to an increase, because of his excellent services.

"If Dr. Hastings resigned his position, we could not replace him for the best man the city could secure for the position," he said. "We need to pay our civic officials well if we are going to retain their services."

Ald. McBrien said that the M. H. O. should get his increase when the estimates were under consideration. Dr. Hastings had done excellent work, he declared, but many of his measures were mere fads. Ald. Hilton also took the stand that it was not the time of year to discuss the matter.

"The reason that this matter is brought up at this time will be appreciated," said Controller McCarthy. "When the matter was last up and was refused, it was a reflection on Dr. Hastings, and all that is proposed now is to pay the present very energetic and very competent medical health officer the same salary as his predecessor received."

"I think the doctor has just about as pleasant a time as any official round this building," said Controller Foster, who argued that the doctor was being well paid for his duties. He had competent men under him, he claimed, who were able to carry on the work of the department. He moved that the matter be struck out and this was carried by a vote of 9 to 7, without any discussion.

Back Again.

When the board's nomination of William Fitzgerald for the position of property commissioner came up, Ald. Hilton immediately moved that the matter be referred back. This was carried by a vote of 9 to 7, without any discussion.

Moore Park Annexation.

Protesting against the proposed annexation of Moore Park, E. W. D. Butler wrote to the council asking that the matter be deferred until the present land holders. Mr. Butler claimed that the petition asking for annexation was insufficiently signed, according to the Municipal Act. He also contended that the council according to the 1212 assessment roll, he claimed, which should be the case before definite action was taken. Mr. Butler said that the present land speculators were behind the annexation scheme.

When the matter came up in the board of control's report, Ald. McBride protested that the question either should be referred to the ratepayers or a vote should be taken to find out how the district itself stood regarding the proposed annexation. The policy of taking in the outside sections, he said, was costing the ratepayers in the 712 section of the city millions of dollars. The people behind the Moore Park annexation were only land speculators.

Ald. Spence pointed out that Moore Park was closer to North Toronto than the North Toronto annexation only obtained a majority because the members did not want to see the town tied up with railway franchises.

A Little Chunk.

According to Controller Hooker, if Moore Park was not annexed it would simply be a little chunk of the County of York stuck between two sections of the city. There was no district which provided such an economical annexation proposition as Moore Park, he said. The district he claimed would provide a bigger revenue in the way of taxes than the sum which it would be necessary to spend there.

Moore Park would be necessary to carry out the civic car lines program, according to Ald. Maguire, who said that the proposition was worthy of support on these grounds alone. Ald. Sanderson was also of this opinion.

Other Cities' Areas.

"We must either build more apartment houses or take in more of the surrounding territories," said Ald. Austin, who gave a list of the areas of other cities about the same population as Toronto, all of which had a much larger area.

Ald. McBride moved that the matter be referred back, but when the vote was taken this was lost by 13 to 2.

Address to Drayton.

Controller Hooker moved a resolution expressing the council's appreciation of the services of Corporation Counsel Drayton. It was decided that the resolution should be fittingly engrossed and presented to Mr. Drayton. It read as follows:

"That this council, having accepted the resignation of Henry L. Drayton, K.C., from the office of counsel to the corporation, desires to record on its minutes an expression of its sincere appreciation of his eminent services in that arduous and responsible position, and its sense of the loss which the municipality sustains by his retirement from the city service.

"While both the council and citizens deeply regret that the city is no longer to have the advantage of Mr. Drayton's advice and services, that regret is minimized by his acceptance of that most important office, the chairmanship of the board of railway commissioners for Canada, a post which his high attainments, his courage and determination, coupled with a sense of fairness not excelled, eminently qualifies him to fill. While heartily joining in the general satisfaction which his appointment has given throughout the Dominion, the council is contentedly assured that he will administer the varied and onerous duties of his new position fairly and advantageously, and to the general advantage of the Canadian people.

"He further resolved, that a copy of this resolution be suitably engrossed and transmitted to Mr. Drayton, with the best wishes of the council for his future success, and with an earnest expression of good-will and the hope that long life and every happiness may be yours and to himself and family."

Wanted Information.

The proposal to engage Engineer Allan Hazen, to prepare plans for the extension of the filtration plant, was challenged by Ald. McBride, who wanted information. Controller McCarthy suggested that the situation be explained to the council for his future success, and with an earnest expression of good-will and the hope that long life and every happiness may be yours and to himself and family."

Wanted Information.

The proposal to engage Engineer Allan Hazen, to prepare plans for the extension of the filtration plant, was challenged by Ald. McBride, who wanted information. Controller McCarthy suggested that the situation be explained to the council for his future success, and with an earnest expression of good-will and the hope that long life and every happiness may be yours and to himself and family."

Wanted Information.

The proposal to engage Engineer Allan Hazen, to prepare plans for the extension of the filtration plant, was challenged by Ald. McBride, who wanted information. Controller McCarthy suggested that the situation be explained to the council for his future success, and with an earnest expression of good-will and the hope that long life and every happiness may be yours and to himself and family."

STORE YOUR FURNITURE OR MERCHANDISE AT THE SCHOELLKOPF STORAGE PLANT 199 EASTERN AVE. Private Railroad Switch.

HAMILTON HOTELS, HOTEL ROYAL
Largest, best-appointed and most centrally located. $2 and up per day. American plan. 4375

HOFBRAU LIQUID EXTRACT OF MALT.
The most invigorating preparation of its kind ever introduced to help and sustain the invalid or the able-bodied. W. H. LEE, Chemist, Toronto, Canadian Agent.

MANUFACTURED BY THE FELSHARD SALVADOR BREWERY Limited, Toronto.

"606"
THE GREATEST SCIENTIFIC DISCOVERY OF THE AGE
BLOOD-POISON AND ALL ITS TERRIBLE COMPLICATIONS CAN NOW BE CURED.

The efficacy of this marvelous specific for Blood-Poison, Syphilis—constitutions acquired—has been endorsed by the Rockefeller Institute, the leading authority and highest Medical Authorities of America and Europe. Every man and woman suffering from Blood-Poison or any of its various effects, such as, coughs, etc., ought to know that with the aid of this marvelous remedy they are now curable.

Consultation free—personally or by letter.

THE ONTARIO MEDICAL INSTITUTE, 243-245 Yonge St., Toronto, 14.

To pay a portion of the cost of Trinity grounds, according to Ald. Weston, who could see no reason why the former should be retained for park purposes.

Controller McCarthy said the city should not lose an opportunity to acquire any park lands in the congested part of the city. There was not half enough area to accommodate the children and young people who wanted and

Continued on Page 10, Column 1.

Germania Hotel, John and Main streets, Hamilton. First-class table and rooming accommodation. 348

Stanley Park should be disposed of

THE WORLD'S FREE CERTIFICATES

GIF BIBLE

Printed on another page, clipped on consecutive days, together with the stated amount that covers the necessary EXPENSE items of this wonderful distribution, including clerk hire, cost of packing, checking, express from factory, etc., ENTITLES YOU TO THIS

This is not a bible with meaningless pictures. The illustrations serve a distinct purpose. They enrich the text, but they do more—they intelligently explain it, so that many a hitherto obscure passage assumes to thousands a new meaning through these eye-teaching pictures.

Illustrations Alone Cost $50,000

Every home needs a Bible, and one of convenient form. To appreciate this great book it does not necessarily mean that one must be a church member or a religious man or woman, but the grand educational distribution undertaken by this paper makes it available for every one, to be often referred to, and often read here and there as the most interesting of all books, as the book under whose teachings the development of civilization has been accomplished.

MAIL ORDERS: Include six certificates (printed elsewhere) with amount mentioned and include 25 cents additional for postage.

As an EDUCATIONAL work alone, the Bible demands a place in every home—this new ILLUSTRATED Bible fulfills the value 100 per cent. for purpose of its disciples. It portrays the actual scenes that permanently impress themselves upon the FACTS OF HISTORY.

Protestant and Catholic Editions

More than 600 Magnificent Illustrations—Full Page Engravings in color from the World-famous Tinselt Collection.

CHAPTER 12
1 Love somewhat Mary conceiving her son, Jesus, and she hid him in a cave, as the Jews had given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

2 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

3 Now had the chief priests and the Pharisees given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

4 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

5 Now had the chief priests and the Pharisees given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

6 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

7 Now had the chief priests and the Pharisees given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

8 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

9 Now had the chief priests and the Pharisees given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

10 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

11 Now had the chief priests and the Pharisees given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

12 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

13 Now had the chief priests and the Pharisees given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

14 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

15 Now had the chief priests and the Pharisees given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

16 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

17 Now had the chief priests and the Pharisees given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

18 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

19 Now had the chief priests and the Pharisees given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

20 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

21 Now had the chief priests and the Pharisees given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

22 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

23 Now had the chief priests and the Pharisees given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

24 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

25 Now had the chief priests and the Pharisees given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

26 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

27 Now had the chief priests and the Pharisees given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

28 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

29 Now had the chief priests and the Pharisees given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

30 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

31 Now had the chief priests and the Pharisees given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

32 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

33 Now had the chief priests and the Pharisees given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

34 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

35 Now had the chief priests and the Pharisees given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

36 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

37 Now had the chief priests and the Pharisees given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

38 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

39 Now had the chief priests and the Pharisees given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

40 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

41 Now had the chief priests and the Pharisees given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

42 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

43 Now had the chief priests and the Pharisees given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

44 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

45 Now had the chief priests and the Pharisees given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

46 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

47 Now had the chief priests and the Pharisees given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

48 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

49 Now had the chief priests and the Pharisees given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

50 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

51 Now had the chief priests and the Pharisees given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

52 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

53 Now had the chief priests and the Pharisees given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

54 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

55 Now had the chief priests and the Pharisees given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

56 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

57 Now had the chief priests and the Pharisees given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

58 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

59 Now had the chief priests and the Pharisees given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

60 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

61 Now had the chief priests and the Pharisees given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

62 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

63 Now had the chief priests and the Pharisees given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

64 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

65 Now had the chief priests and the Pharisees given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

66 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

67 Now had the chief priests and the Pharisees given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

68 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

69 Now had the chief priests and the Pharisees given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

70 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

71 Now had the chief priests and the Pharisees given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

72 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

73 Now had the chief priests and the Pharisees given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

74 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

75 Now had the chief priests and the Pharisees given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

76 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

77 Now had the chief priests and the Pharisees given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

78 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

79 Now had the chief priests and the Pharisees given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

80 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

81 Now had the chief priests and the Pharisees given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

82 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

83 Now had the chief priests and the Pharisees given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

84 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

85 Now had the chief priests and the Pharisees given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

86 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

87 Now had the chief priests and the Pharisees given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

88 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

89 Now had the chief priests and the Pharisees given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

90 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

91 Now had the chief priests and the Pharisees given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

92 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

93 Now had the chief priests and the Pharisees given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

94 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

95 Now had the chief priests and the Pharisees given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

96 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

97 Now had the chief priests and the Pharisees given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

98 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

99 Now had the chief priests and the Pharisees given a commandment, that if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

100 Then sought they for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?