

A FATAL ERROR

A man steps into your office, draws up his chair, and talks right into your face. His breath is offensive. Your only thought is how to get rid of him and his business. You cut him short with, "I am not interested."

SOZODONT

is essential to one whose breath is not pure and sweet. Penetrating the little crevices, it deodorizes, sweetens and purifies them, and makes you feel genteel and clean-cut.

THE PRINCE IN TORONTO

but exceedingly interesting and important event in the history of the 10th Royal, now the Royal Grenadiers, in connection with the visit to Canada in that year of His Royal Highness Prince Arthur, now the Duke of Connaught. Lieut.-Col. Brunel, then commanding the regiment, had requested his royal highness to present the winners of the prizes won at the annual regimental rifle matches, and the request was graciously acceded to. Accordingly the 10th Royal's parade at the old drill hall on Saturday evening, Oct. 2, where, before a brilliant assembly, his royal highness presented the prizes and afterwards inspected the regiment. The officers were then presented to him, among whom were Surgeon-Major I. H. Richardson, Capt. F. Barlow, Cumberland, and Capt. (now Lieut.-Col.) G. A. Shaw, now retired officers of the regiment, but pleasant to relate "still to the fore." The prince was highly gratified with all he saw. As an evidence of his pleasure he later presented the officers with a photograph, signed "Arthur," October, 1889, taken in the uniform of the 10th Brigade. This picture hangs in the entrance of the Royal Grenadiers at the armory, and is one of the highly prized as a memento of this most interesting event in the early history of the "Old Tenth" and of the honor conferred on the regiment by the distinguished brother of His Majesty, H.R.H. the Duke of Connaught.

Twenty-seven hundred cadets, including St. Andrew's College, Victoria Industrial School, the blue-uniformed high school corps, and the scarlet-coated public school boys, will parade before the prince this afternoon in Queen's Park. With them in their line of march will be interspersed the Grenadier Pipe and Drum Corps, School Cadets Band and the Industrial School Band.

Dress parade discipline is somewhat of a new thing to the prince, and for this reason they were reviewed by Col. Galloway in practice yesterday on university lawn in command of Col. Thompson. When they have grasped the idea they went thru the manoeuvres of battalion drill and "march past," redoubtably, after which they were lined up and instructed to assemble at the armory to-day at 2 p.m.

They will be divided in nine battalions averaging six companies each. At 2:30 the parade begins at University-avenue and Queen's Park to University lawn, forming a line of quarter column, then as battalions, take post in review order and give a royal salute. They then advance in review order, form a square, receive the prince's greetings, afterwards marching past in four.

The Various Battalions. Each battalion will be commanded by an acting lieutenant-colonel, and will be composed as follows: No. 1, Jarvis, Harbord and Jameson-avenue colleges; St. Andrew's College and Industrial School; No. 2, Wellesley (1), Dufferin (1), Jesse Ketchum (1), Dufferin (1), Givins (1) and Parkdale (1); No. 3, Wellesley (2), Church, McCaul, John and Wellesley (3); No. 4, Jesse Ketchum (2), Huron, Palmerston, Dufferin, Borden and Jesse Ketchum (3); No. 5, Dufferin (2), Rose-avenue, Winchester, Queen's Park, Dufferin, Givins (2), No. 6, Boulton, Park, Rose, and Queen Alexandra (1); No. 7, Givins (2), Dawson, Manning, Grace and Clinton; No. 8, Parkdale (2), Queen Victoria (2), Fern, Gladstone and Brock-avenue.

The schools opened yesterday after the Easter holidays. The prince's visit will bring no holiday to pupils, except those in the cadet corps.

The members of the board of education will attend the parade in a body.

HACKETT GOES FOR TRIAL

Montreal, April 23.—(Special).—Jas. Hackett was formally committed to-day to stand his trial for the murder of little Edith Ahern.

A bylaw was adopted to-day placing all poolrooms, billiard rooms, refreshment rooms and confectionery stores under police jurisdiction.

Strict Army Order on Food

In the Japanese army during the late war with Russia, strict regulations were enforced to promote health among the soldiers. These regulations covered every phase of hygienic living. They were especially strict in regard to food.

"The origin of strength in the human body is good food," said these instructions to the conquering Japanese army. And this is just as true in America as it is in Japan.

In this country we have the ideal good food. It is the food which gives to the body and brain perfect strength and perfect health. We refer to Malta-Vita.

Malta-Vita is the whole of the best wheat grown, mixed with finest barley malt extract. This is the reason it is so rich in vitalizing, nourishing, health-giving, blood-making food elements.

HAMILTON HAPPENINGS
W. J. HARRIS' MISFORTUNE

Suffers Amputation of Leg—Market and Harbor Committees Meet.

Hamilton, April 23.—(Special).—This afternoon the doctors found it necessary to amputate just below the knee the leg of William J. Harris of Harris Bros., the Market-square bakers. The trouble started with a sore toe and developed into gangrene. To-night he was reported to be getting along as well as could be expected.

The markets committee agreed this evening to pay $100 of the $1100 bill that P. C. Harris incurred in his suit with B. Moriarty. It has been discovered that the new patrol stable cannot be built for less than $4500, and the council appropriated only $3500. The work will be proceeded with, however. Arrangements will be made to keep the public comfort station open Sundays and at night.

The harbor and beach committee, and a committee of beach residents, had another conference this evening on the proposed annexation agreement. Under this agreement the beach commissioners will be elected on the first Wednesday in July, and the beach taxation shall not exceed ten mills for ten years.

HAS HEEL-COMFORTING COUNTERS

IMPROVEMENT NUMBER THREE

Don't know what is meant by a shoe counter? Well, it's the stiff leather that fits around the heel. It's the back stop of the shoe. It forms a leather cavity into which the heel fits. If wrongly built that cavity can inflict more agony than any other section of a shoe. In nearly all shoes it's given little or no care. It's usually constructed of Hemlock tanned, scrap sole leather, hard and stiff as stone, and is lickered together in the cheapest way without shape or form. Result? A rigid, unbending, heel-skipping, pain-producing, walk-hindering counter.

Foot-rite counters are somewhat different—slightly. They're made of special oak-tanned counter stock, stout but soft, and being shaped the exact shape of a human heel, they are heel sockets, and when the heel ball fills them, they're practically ball and socket joints like the human shoulder, capable of moving in any direction and bound together by air suction.

What good are these Foot-rite ball and socket counters? They're this good! Their soft leather won't skin the heel, even though it may rub at every up and down movement, but that up and down rubbing is entirely eliminated by the ball and socket suction which forces the sole under the heel, also the counter at the back and sides, to hug the heel snugly as it lifts and lowers in walking. This suction is not noticeable. Like the shoulder joint it performs its office without being felt.

There's a Foot-rite dealer in your town. His name's below. Ask him to show you Foot-rite Heel Comforting Counters. You'll find his door swinging inward but never outward to find a more welcome store.

Anywhere in America, Canada or Great Britain—$4.00 and $5.00. Every pair Goodyear Welted.

German market. It was not a market of any importance at the best.

Mr. Henderson (Halton) said he was Canadian first and British afterwards. He referred simply meant that we took bread out of the mouths of our workmen to feed the workmen of England.

Mr. Paterson: Do you favor repealing it?

Mr. Henderson: Yes, if I had the power I would take this one-sided preference off the statute book. It is a jug-handled policy. I favor a mutual preference.

Mr. Schell (Oxford) and Mr. Derbyshire (Brookville) defended the government, and Mr. Fowler (Kings and Albany) suggested that Mr. Fielding's British loyalty was of recent origin. It had not been long since he tried to carry Nova Scotia into the United States.

Mr. Fisher explained.

Mr. Fisher explained the agriculture tried to explain once more his unfortunate speech, declaring that Canadian farmers asked for no preference in the British market. He explained that he did not want it; that is, they did not ask it because they knew that they would get it. Personally he felt that withdrawing colonies from Ontario meant the disintegration of the British empire.

Mr. Bennett (East Simcoe) ridiculed the idea that either the British or the German market was of any importance in the elections of 1900 or 1904. He declared that no minister from Ontario could represent his home in parliament.

Before the orders of the day were called in the house, W. F. Maclean (S. To.) stated that he would select St. George's anniversary to pay tribute to progress.

At a special meeting to-day the capital of the Canadian Westinghouse Company was increased from $250,000 to $500,000.

Wm. Freestone, the colored bellboy, was sent down for nine months.

The Conservatives will meet this week to complete their organization. J. W. Lamoreaux will be elected president of the west end association, and William Armstrong of the east end.

competition from the west. The speaker claimed that the Ontario farmers had the German market to sell their fruit and on the other hand required cheap sugar. He favored reciprocity with Germany. Admit their sugar free and they will permit our people to enter free of duty.

Mr. Paterson, minister of customs, claimed that the British preference had been approved by the people in 1900, and the German market in 1904. He was in hopes that some arrangement could be made with Germany.
