A Torontonian, just returned from the West, says that he found in the Chicago Athletic Club the utmost interest in Ed. Santry's meeting with Tommy Dixon, to take place Saturday night at the Auditorium. "They'll bet the clubhouse on Santry," is the way he puts the situation. The Chicago lad may be all that Harry Gilmore says, and he describes him as the coming champion of the world in his class, but he will find Dixon a pretty hard man to beat. They are going to go 20 rounds, the entertainment being under the direction of the Toronto Rowing Club. With the two preliminaries the bill calls for 36 rounds of boxing for the eyeuing, and the introductory affairs will be as keen as the main bout,

The Accident to Dan Hardisty.

Sporting Editor World: In to-day's paper you say that Dan Hardisty was roughly used at Peterboro, and that after his retirement the T.A.C. team went to pieces.

The T.A.C. team went to pieces.
The T.A.C. team wond—but it was purely accidental, as anyone could sec. He certainly was none the worse for the little blood-letting, as he played much faster after being hurt than he did before. But little blood-letting, as he played much faster after being hurt than he did before. But the between you and me and the puck the same young gentleman was the roughest player on the ice that night, and was warned by the referee.

Baltimore, Md., Jan. 19.—Chairman Mott of the L.A.W., in a circular issued to-day says: "In the Madison-square Garden sixday race case the following is the vote of the majority of the board: Sanctions will not be granted by the L.A.W. for races to be held on any track that Charles W. Ashinger may build in the future until a sworn statement from a competent surveyor is field with the board certifying to the measurement of the track. As it is considered by the board an impropriety for a handicapper to be also a race meet promoter. A. G. Batchelder is given the choice between, severing his connection with the American Cycle Racing Association or resigning as handicapper. The American Cycle Racing Association is warned that a repetition of the same over-confidence in a track builder, or of the same carelessness, either of which resulted in misleading the public as to the length of the track, will be followed by the refusal of the sanctions for races under the jurisdiction of the L.A.W.
