SUES FOR $20,000 DAMAGES

Real Estate Agent Bowerman Issues Writ Against J. F. Byam of Toronto.

ANOTHER SUIT FOR $100 ON AN IOU.

Capt. Wilson of Bronte Was Seriously Injured in a Runaway Accident Yesterday.

Hamilton, Jan. 17.—William Bowerman, real estate agent, city, at one time a broker in Toronto, has issued a writ against Jessie Francis Byam of Toronto for $20,000 damages for alleged slander.

The suit arises out of evidence given by the defendant Byam in the action of Aitchison v. McKelvey, tried before Chief Justice Falconbridge last Saturday.

When on the witness stand the defendant in the present suit, it is alleged by the plaintiff, said William Bowerman was not to be relied on, that he had a bad reputation in Toronto, and that he believed William Bowerman forged the name of Samuel McKelvey on a paper.

Who Got the Century? Elwood Jacobs, Woodstock formerly of the Stock Yards, this city, is suing James R. Lawry for $100 on an IOU. The defendant contends that he did not get the money for himself, but for his brother Harry, who says he repaid it. Harry Lawry is at present in Buffalo. He is the man whose wife figured in a sensational suit for $50,000 against Mrs. Harry Duckett Lawry, his divorced wife, a few months ago. See Boat Race.

"Where Dentistry is Painless."

THE PRICE OF SKILL. When patients look for the cheapest prices for dental work—we wonder if they are looking for the cheapest skill. Probably they are not—but certainly that's what they get. Dental work is skill—mostly all skill. What it wasn't cheap—time and money. It wasn't cheap—it never is. We think it is worth knowing. We think it is worth the fair, reasonable charges we make for our work.
