LES DARCY, AUSTRALIAN BOXER, DIES AT MEMPHIS

Champion of Antipodes Succumbs to Pneumonia After Month's Illness—Enlisted in Aviation Corps—Perfect Specimen of Manhood.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., May 24.—Les Darcy, the Australian pugilist, died at a hospital this afternoon from pneumonia. He had been ill more than a month.

Darcy died about 1:45 o'clock. Manager Gilmore and Trainer Hawkins were at the bedside. Gilmore immediately sent a cablegram to the dead man's mother in Australia, and the body will be held here, pending instructions from her.

Darcy had enlisted in the aviation reserve corps here shortly before he was taken ill. At that time he was pronounced by Capt. Christie, officer in charge of the corps, as the most perfect specimen of manhood that had applied for enlistment in the corps.

NE YORK, May 24.—Les Darcy, the Australian pugilist, who died in Memphis today, arrived in this country on the tank steamer Cushing, December 23, last year. He was met by Tex Rickard, the boxing promoter, then making arrangements for the Australian middleweight champion to meet Georges Carpentier, the French heavyweight champion, in a ten-round bout at the Madison Square Garden.

Fights Called Off.

This, as well as several other matches in which Darcy was to have been principal, had to be abandoned. In the first place, the French champion declined to leave France while the war was in progress. Then there were rumors to the effect that Darcy had left Australia surreptitiously to avoid joining the British army, and Governor Whitman issued an edict forbidding the Australian champion to appear in any glove contest in the state of New York. Meanwhile, other bouts were being promoted between Darcy and prominent light-heavyweight and middleweight American boxers, but none of these materialized, and the Australian followed the lead taken by Governor Whitman and declared that Darcy should not be allowed to fight on account of the way in which he left Australia. Darcy never appeared in a real ring contest in this country, and the only opportunity he had to show his ability and cleverness was when he went on a brief theatrical tour giving boxing exhibitions.

BICYCLE MEET IS POSTPONED TILL JUNE THE SECOND

Local Sport as Live as a Dead German Yesterday.

Sport in London on the holiday was about as live as a dead German. Although events in practically every line of summer sport had been scheduled, all had to give way to the insistent patterings of the alleged aqua pura that has soaked London and district since last Saturday.

Over 40 bicycle riders from Dan to Beersheba had gathered to try conclusions in the monster meet arranged by the London Bicycle Dealers' Association at Queen's Park, in hopes that the queen of the raindrops would go and visit her friends and relatives in distant parts. But it was not to be. The lady stayed and stayed with a vengeance. In fact it looks as if she had taken up her permanent abode above this particular city. Here's hoping it's moving day soon.

However, to get back to the bicycle meet, it has been postponed until June 2, which will give the contestants time to dry their wheels. The high wheel King, doesn't need it, but G. Wenzel, secretary of the meet, and a few others would like a little more time to take a few whiffs around the track.

Louis Rubenstein, president of the Canadian Wheelmen's Association, came from Montreal to take in the races, and although keenly disappointed that he could not be held, intends to be present June 2. With a good dry track there should be some records broken a week from Saturday.

The dog show and bowling tournaments will be held as soon as weather permits.

CHICAGO, May 24.—Dumont's wild pitch in the twelfth inning enabled Chicago to shut out Washington 4 to 0. Jackson opened the twelfth inning with a single and went to second on Felsch's sacrifice. TY COBB WILL GO WHEN HE'S WANTED

So Says Georgia Peach After Registering.

DETROIT, May 24.—Ty Cobb, baseball player and patriot, strolled into the city hall here at noon today on his way to the ball park, and formally enrolled himself as an eligible for war in the new selective draft law which is now operative. The Georgian dispensed publicity of a personal sort, and at once found himself the center of attraction he hurried through the formalities, and left the building as fast as he could walk.

Sure, I'll go any old time they want me," said Ty in response to a query, and added: "And so will every man on the team." The famous centre fielder expects to join the artillery branch of the army, going preferably with a Cobb on his enrollment card, gave his age as 30. He will celebrate his 31st birthday next December.

Eighteen members of the Detroit team have registered.

"BEAN BALL" TOSSERS WILL BE EXPELLED FROM ORGANIZED BALL

National Commission Makes Above Ruling at Yesterday's Meeting.

CHICAGO, May 24.—Pitchers convicted of using the "bean ball," a highly dangerous ball, thrown directly at a batter's head, will be expelled from organized baseball, as a result of a ruling by the national commission here today.

The ruling was not alone directed to players in the major leagues but to every member of clubs operating under the national agreement. The commission's ruling, as announced, by Chairman August Herrmann, follows:

"It has come to the notice of the national commission that certain pitchers are being charged with using the 'bean ball,' which charges, if true, would not only be a great detriment to the game, but would result in most severe injuries to players, and would be unsportsmanlike in the highest degree."

"The commission therefore serves notice that if a charge of this kind is presented to it at any time against any player, and after an examination thereof, the statement is proven, it will result in the expulsion of the pitcher or players so charged from the game."

"Bean Ball" Brutal.

Chairman Herrmann characterized the "bean ball" as brutal, and added that he could not force himself to believe that a pitcher would deliberately hurl a ball at a batter's head with the intention of injuring him. He declared that such a practice might result fatally. President Johnson of the American League had previously declared that a pitcher found guilty of using the ball deserved a jail sentence. Herrmann asserted that no specific cases had enforced the ruling, but that general reports that certain pitchers were using the delivery resulted in it.

Expulsion of a player for use of the illegal ball means that he cannot enter the employ of a club operating under the national agreement for at least five years, as a petition for reinstatement will not be considered in less time.

Plan for Sunday Ball.

The commission made tentative plans to play Sunday games in six eastern cities—New York, Brooklyn, Washington, Philadelphia, Boston and Pittsburgh—the receipts to be donated to the army and navy for a war relief fund. The commission suggested that the money be given to a fund for soldiers' dependents. These games, if permission for them is given, will be regularly scheduled contests, one of the week-day games being advanced for the Sunday date. Chairman Herrmann estimated that $100,000 could be raised by six Sunday games.

The commission also arranged to stir up enthusiasm at all major league games on June 5, the date for army registration. Bands will be engaged for the occasion.
