DEATH OF MRS. FRALEIGH. Mrs. Margaret Fraleigh of this city died at her home, 52 St. George street, on Saturday, in her 84th year. Mrs. Fraleigh has been a resident of this city for some time, coming here from St. Johns, London Township, where she had resided for many years. She is survived by her husband, Thomas, and three sons, William of Birr, Edgar of Masonville, Thomas of this city, and one daughter, Mrs. Warren Jenkins, also of this city. The funeral will take place Thursday at 2:30 from the above ad-dress to St. John's Methodist Church, where services will be conducted at 3:30, after which interment will be made in the St. John's Cemetery. Rev. Canon Richardson will officiate at the services.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary A. Parnell, who died in this city on Thursday, took ace Saturday from her late residence at 2:30 o'clock to the family plot in Woodland Cemetery, where interment was made at 3 o'clock. The floral of-ferings were numerous and beautiful, and the services, which were conducted by Rev. Crosby Morris of the Askin Street Methodist Church, were very im-pressive. Mr. Barnes, who was 87 years of age, resided in Wyoming, Ont., and was visiting in this city. He was in his usual good health Sunday, and was out walking in the afternoon. He returned to the home of his son, and later in the evening went to bed. About 1:30 o'clock this morning his son, thinking he heard a noise in his father's room, went there to find that Mr. Barnes was dead. Heart failure or indigestion is thought to have been the cause of the sudden death. Mr. Barnes is well known about Wyoming, having lived there for a number of years. His sudden death will come as a great shock to his many friends in that district. He is survived by his wife, Louise, two sons, A. F. and Albert of this city, and one daughter. Mrs. John Carnegie of Elgin, Illinois. The funeral will take place to Wyoming, and interment will be made in the Wyoming Cemetery, the arrangements appearing later.

Col. Pour people are in the hospital here as a result of being struck by an eastbound T. H. and B. passenger train on Saturbay on the Burford road, one mile west of Brantford.
The injured are Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Eagleson, their 8-year-old son, and Mrs. McIntyre, all of Parkhill. The party was proceeding home by auto after a visit to this city and on backing off a private roadway which they had entered in error, backed over the railway track, where the auto stalled momentarily. The occupants were hurled some distance when struck, and escape from death was miraculous. The members of the Eagleson family will recover. It was reported today, that BRANTFORD, Sept. 22.—Four people are in the hospital here as a result of being struck by an eastbound T.
