OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

MENUS OF THE WEEK.

For Friday.
Breakfast—Baked apples, oatmeal, sugar and cream, egg timbales, tomato sauce, corn muffins, coffee.
Luncheon—Succotash, rice, bread and butter, fruit salad, vanilla biscuits, cocoa.
Dinner—Blue fish, stuffed and baked; mashed potatoes, baked orange custard, French dressing, orange custard, assorted cakes, coffee.

Recipes For Friday.
—Blue fish, stuffed and baked—One good blue fish, two tablespoonsful butter, 1 cupful bread crumbs, 2 tablespoonsful chopped parsley, 1 tablespoonful salt, few drops lemon juice, 1-8 cupful milk or water. Wash and wipe blue fish. Put crumbs into a basin, add butter melted, salt, parsley, chopped pickles, milk and lemon juice. Mix and stuff the fish. Cut 3 gashes in either side of the fish and insert a slice of salt pork in each gash. Season with salt and pepper, brush over with melted butter, and dredge with flour. Place on a greased tin and bake, allowing 15 minutes to the pound. Baste frequently.

—Vanilla Biscuits—Three whites of eggs, 4 tablespoonsful sugar, few drops of red coloring, 1 teaspoonful vanilla extract. Beat up whites stiffly, then add sugar and coloring very gently. Put paper over a baking tin. Put mixture in small teaspoonfuls. When half is used up, add coloring to make remainder pink. Bake in a very slow oven with door a little open, till they become hard, when they easily come off the paper.

Suffragettes Holding Picturesque Parades.

LONDON, April 28.—The International Parliament, representing women of twenty countries, banded together to demand equal civil rights, is the one world event of the week in London.

An immense demonstration was made last night in Albert Hall, heralded by a procession of a thousand women workers. Carrying 500 ancient watchmen's lanterns and all the emblems of a hundred trades, they marched from Eaton-square to Albert Hall. The lanterns had no political significance. They were introduced only for picturesque effect. The suffragettes have at least introduced romance, realism, poetry and beauty into the somewhat squalid arena of party politics. One day the newly beautified Jeanne D'Arc rides astride her war steed at the head of a militant procession, another Queen Elizabeth with ruff and farthingale, ride amidst Amazons carrying an escutcheon bearing the telling device: "If queens, why not voters?"

But most powerful and effective of all these appeals to the imagination are the van loads of ex-prisoners, matrons and maidens who have gladly "done time" in the sacred cause. The Woman's International Suffrage Alliance, most strictly speaking, is not a suffragette organization, but no one who watches the ebb and flow of feeling of the great international assembly can doubt for a moment that it is a suffragette who are the heroines of the hour.

The American president, Mrs. Chapman-Catt, neither blessed them at all nor cursed them at all, holding herself strictly neutral, but her audience blessed them altogether.

It was a scene of tumultuous enthusiasm that hailed the appearance of Mrs. Despard, leader of the extreme wing of the suffragettes, when, fresh from her prison experiences, she arose to address the meeting. She showed unmistakably the real sentiment of women suffragists throughout the world. The suffragettes are on the firing line and whenever they come in view "even the ranks of Tuscany can scarce forbear to cheer."

Mrs. Nordheimer Honored.

Standing before a British flag at the Woman's Club, No 9 East 46th-street, yesterday afternoon, with the Stars and Stripes draped at one side and British and American flags standing among flowers and ferns on the mantels, Mrs. Nordheimer, of Toronto, president of the Canadian Chapter of the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire, conveyed the congratulations of the Canadian society to the newly-organized Edward Chapter of the United States.

Says The New York Tribune yesterday: "We trust," she said, "that the national chapter of the United States in all its future aims and greatness will emphasize and, if possible, further promote the good relations already existing between the United Kingdom, the self-governing nations of the British Empire, and the United States. This friendship is a world-wide influence and power for the maintenance of the sacred cause of peace all over the world—a cause which has been instilled into the hearts of our people and in such a potent and pervading force in the reign of His Gracious Majesty King Edward the Peace-maker."

Mrs. J. Elliott Langstaff, president of the King Edward Chapter, followed Mrs. Nordheimer with a few words about the intertwined flags, both of which she said, the Daughters of the Empire loved. She also mentioned that twenty-three places, including Cleveland, Chicago and San Francisco, had expressed a desire to form subsidiary chapters of the order.

About three hundred British-born women accepted the invitation of the King Edward Chapter to meet Mrs. Nordheimer and other Canadian visitors. Mrs. Langstaff presented the guests to Mrs. Nordheimer, and with her in the receiving line were Lady Purdon Clarke and Mrs. Courtney Bennett, wife of the British Consul, honorary vice-presidents of the Canadian Chapter; Mrs. Albert Gooderham of Toronto, first vice-president of the Canadian Chapter; Mrs. K. B. Lapham, Mrs. William P. Haultain and Mrs. Carl von Fustau, vice-presidents of the King Edward Chapter, and Miss Catharine Welland Merritt of St. Catharines, Ontario, who was sent by the Canadian society to assist in the organization of the American chapter.

Suffrage Bill Killed.
MADISON, Wis., April 28.—The woman suffrage bill which passed the Wisconsin Senate some time ago was killed in the assembly to-day after a long debate by a vote of 53 to 24.

Dr. Rankin in the drawing-room, the bride couple standing beneath a canopy of white carnations and palm leaves, banked with tall seed pearls. The nation of honor was Mrs. Richard H. Biggs, Toronto, sister of the bride. The bride entered thru an aisle of heavy white cords with a father, who gave her away. Her beautiful princess gown was of white

FOR FAMILY USE

An Ideal Remedy for Coughs, Sore Throat, Catarrh, Weak Chest.

After having made a special study of the treatment of the throat and lungs for twenty years, Prof. D. Jackson states that in his opinion no preparation for general family use is so efficient, so healing, so certain to cure as Catarrhoxone.

As his reasons for making this claim for Catarrhoxone, Dr. Jackson says: "Catarrhoxone is free from opium."

"The patient can breathe its rich, balsamic fumes direct to the diseased spot."

"It is a remedy that treats and cures causes—prevents disease spreading—stops coughing instantly."

"Prevents bronchial irritations." "Relieves coughed nostrils."

"Cures sniffles and nasal catarrh." "Prevents La Grippe."

"Has proven itself a cure for weak lungs, loss of voice, speakers' sore throat, asthma, bronchitis, catarrh, coughs, colds and winter illness."

Catarrhoxone is unquestionably the world's greatest breathable cold, cough and catarrh medicine, and being free from all drowsy drugs, entirely safe for children and old folks; it makes an ideal family remedy. Recommended by the medical profession, and sold by all reliable dealers. Beware of imitations, get "Catarrhoxone" only; large size lasts two months, and is guaranteed, price $1; smaller sizes 25c and 50c. By mail from the Catarrhoxone Company, Kingston, Ont.

duchesse satin, enriched with duchesse lace, and she wore a lovely necklace of pearls and pearls, given her by the groom. The bride veil was draped over a coronet of orange blossoms, and she carried a shower of mauve orchids and lilies of the valley. Miss Mildred Thompson attended her cousin as bridesmaid in a dainty white gown of hand embroidered mull, inset with a cluny and lace, and carrying a bouquet of Killarney roses, her ornament being a brooch of pearls and pearls, a gift from the groom, who gave the best man, Jack Snary, a scarf pin with the same stones. After the wedding breakfast Mr. and Mrs. McIntyre left for Philadelphia and Atlantic City.

The bride going away in a navy blue broadcloth suit with Bruges lace waist, and hat of rough straw, with pink roses. When they return they will occupy apartments at "The Nanton," Rosedale.

A special despatch from Niagara Falls, Ont., says: Christ Church was the scene of a brilliant wedding to-night, when Miss Florence McGlashan, daughter of the late Leonard McGlashan, was united in marriage to Norman Baldwin Stark, son of the deputy chief of police of Toronto, by Very Rev. Stewart Houston, M.A., D.C.L., dean of Niagara.

The ceremony was performed under a large bell of white carnations. The bride was given away by her brother, Les McGlashan, and looked charming in ivory satin dress with a copy from an 18th century model, the bodice being swayed in front, the back having a wistaria plant from shoulder to end of train. The bride veil was of tulle with Irish lace corners. There were four bridesmaids, Miss E. Powis and Miss H. Armstrong, both of Toronto, wore empire gowns of yellow duchesse satin; Miss Edith Rose, Montreal, and Miss Olive Wallace, Woodbridge, wore empire gowns of green satin, large hats wreathed with orange slips, completing the picture. Mrs. Cummings, the bride's aunt, was attired in black net robe trimmed with lace and black silk. Mrs. Stark, mother of the groom, was crowned in wistaria, striped broadcloth with Parisian trimmings. James H. Brand, Montreal, acted as best man, and the ushers were Colonel Raymond, Welland, Harry Kelson, Toronto; Dr. W. C. Wickett, North Bay; W. B. Powell, Galt. The groom's gift to the bride was a necklace of pearls, pearls and diamonds; to the best man and ushers cut links set with pearls. The bride presented her attendants with gold bar pins set with pearls and pearls. After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride, The Pines. Mr. and Mrs. Stark received under a canopy of smilax. To accommodate guests, of whom there were about 500 a large marquee was erected in the garden and the wedding supper was served there. Mr. and Mrs. Stark left for a trip thru the southern states, and on their return will reside in Toronto.

Public Amusements

Thomas E. Shea will open his spring engagement at the Grand next week by presenting a new play under the title of "The Counsel for the Defence," a stirring drama fresh from the pen of Henry Irving Dodge, a popular writer and contributor to current magazines. The theme is a triplicate one, having a complicated legal, political and financial evidence and romance, and many stirring incidents are uncovered. The great French masterpiece, "The Bella," will be given during the second week of the season.

The Princess will again have the most popular attraction ever presented in Toronto when the dramatic version of George Barr McCutcheon's celebrated comedy romance, "Brewster's Millions," will be given next week. The play has had an uninterrupted run of success all over the continent.

The new vaudeville bill at the Majestic this week is an attractive one, and the house is being taxed to capacity at every performance. No better entertainment has ever been offered Toronto theatregoers at 5c and the prices. You can come when you like and stay as long as you like.

For next week at Shea's Theatre Manager Shea has secured another big vaudeville bill, including such well-known favorites as Binns, Binns and Binns; "The Girl in the Red Dress"; "The Duke Detective"; Alcide Capitaine, Van Clive, Denton & Co., Harry Breen, Wilbur Mack and Well Walker, Mr. Quick and the Kinetograph.

"Clark's Runaway Girls Company" opens an engagement here on Monday next at the Gayety. "Salome and the Judge" will be produced, and between the acts the following vaudeville acts: Davis Imperial Trio, instrumentalists; Adams and Winfield, dancers; the great Carroll; the famous Livingstons; European Rinsley acrobats; Crawford and Manning, a funny black act, and Miss Estella Rose, French character singer.

The wonderful feats of "Everett" at the Star Theatre have never been equaled in this city. His marvelous escape from the Mammoth Milk Can is short of a miracle. To-day at noon at 12:30, weather permitting, he will jump from the upper deck of one of the boats ferried into the bay, shackled and handcuffed. While under water he will remove them.

Every theatrical celebrity will lend his assistance to make the local lodge of the Theatrical Mechanical Association benefit a success at the Princess Theatre on Friday afternoon, May 7. Enough talent has been offered to render several programs. The money derived from the benefit is for the aid fund of the organization. Box office opens Tuesday, 9 a.m.

The date for the combined concert by the Toronto Symphony Orchestra and Miss Edith Miller and her London concert company will be Monday evening next, May 3, instead of Tuesday, as first announced, so as not to clash with the Toronto Conservatory String Quartet's concert. The orchestra and vocalists will present selections of "Carmen," including all the notable arias in this popular opera. The sale of seats begins Friday morning.

Already the Berna Taxicab has impressed itself on the city, and the city is proud of it.

It has provided a semi-private, rapid and comfortable means of transportation, which has never been fully met by any other class of vehicle. The clean, dignified appearance and general cleanliness of the motors make the taxicab acceptable and inviting.

The taxicabs have given the city streets an up-to-date appearance, and are welcomed for their looks as well as for the service they provide.

If the little metal flag is up over the meter bearing the words "For Hire" the machine is ready to be hailed, and see how well and speedily it works.
