1920

LABOR

Y PLACED I

tion in Tele

ov. 14.- (Special. dustrial situation

actories have indi off hands except ses, and that the all the big fac-ones, without ex-eir present staffe pointed out that

s Reported

tory.

MONDAY MORNING NOVEMBER 15 1920

FAVORS REFORM OF

TAXATION SYSTEM

OPPORTUNITY FOR

PAGE THREE

MASONIC MEMORIAL TO WAR BRETHREN

Grand Master Speaks of Great Part Taken by Order in the War.

"To the memory of our brothers who gave their lives for us in the Great War, 1914-1918." This was the in-scription engraved across the top of the memorial tablet unveiled in the Masonic Temple, yesterday afternoon. At the bottom was also engraved, "Their name liveth for evermore." This great building was crowded to canceling Their name liveth for evermore." This great building was crowded to capacity to witness the ceremony, which was one of simplicity, yet withal impres-sive. It was a ceremony which ap-pealed to the hearts of all, and drew a closer bond of fellowship betwee... members of the order.

members of the order. The bronze tablet, which was square in shape, was dedicated to the brothers of thirteen Masonic lodges who paid the supreme saerifice. The lodges represented were: Ashlar, Corinthian, Georgina, Harmony, Ionic, King Solo-mon, Rehoboam, St. Alban's, St. An-drew's, St. John's, Stevenson, Wilson and Zetland lodges. Among the names engraved thereon were those of many and Zetland lodges. Among the names engraved thereon were those of many Torontonians prominent in practically every walk of life. In unveiling the 'tablet, the grand master, F. W. Harcourt, K.C., spoke emotionally of the part the Masonic order had played in the war, and of the losses it had thus sustained by the death of some of its illustricus mer death of some of its illustrious men. bers. In referring to the tablet, he said that it was dedicated to the honor and glory of the Great Architect of the Universe. The invocation ceremony was .per-formed by Dr. J. A. Turnbull, and the prayers were conducted by Rev. Bruce Hunter. "Last Post" and "Reveille" were sounded by the buglers, and the benediction was performed by Rev. George Burghase benediction was performed by Rev. George Purchase. In reading the roll of the fallen, Marshal MacGregor named the lodge and its departed members as follows: Ashlar Lodge—Armour A. Miller, Herbert Spencer Holcroft, William J. Hollinger, Harry James McTaggart, Herbert Gerard Muntz, Archibald Webb Palmer, James E. Robertson, Arthur O. Williams

Featherston Aylesworth. King Solomon Lodge-Norman C. Pilcher, Albert E, Smith. Rehoboam Lodge-Chas. R. Needs. Frank G. Addison, Harry Taylor, James L. Wallace. St. Alban's Lodge-Empson Green. James Mitchell, Charles C. Watts, Alexander Duncan. St. Andrew's Lodge-Reginald N. C. Davis, Richard H, Hallas, Alfred G. Nugent, Gordon Oliver Forsyth. a St. John's Lodge-George C. Chap-St. John's Lodge-George C. Chap man. Stevenson Lodge—W. J. S. Connor, C. Grigsby, A. Stewart, W. J. Walsh. Wilson Lodge—Charles E. Cooper. William Henry Bateson, John Howard Emerson, Gilbert Duthia Harvid Wada Emerson, Gilbert Duthie, Harold Wade. Zetland Lodge-Norman C. Bilton, E. L. Johnstone, Arthur G. Millar. Frank S. Spence, Cris. F. Trees. Wil-fred J. Watts.

. A Arthur Roebuck Connects His

d, as all such ag for the dethan for mood mademand. here at ns are th unless outside the hope of get-hey are advised men being placed bureau last single men are ied men cannot x Case. ne of the colpupils of that a vaccinated will a has been placed in incli for the re-

H. Little of the Preaching, and preaching, and ert C. Grotke, in stone of the new King street, was effore a large and tion, which in-it the Lutheran itton. Kitchener. ton. Preston. Forum opening heads of civio department

GEORGIANS UATE BATUM

for. 14. — Then t is reported to dimatum from the s, ordering them re compelled to a armistics now in nand the Turkish of the necessity efr forces from t to put down an rebels.

RICT MAN EL CROSSING

Nov. 14.—James^{are} d near Brighton;⁴¹ Canadian Nationa^{rat}

<section-header><section-header><section-header><section-header><section-header><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

SOCIAL EVENTS

Items Intended for This Column Should En Addressed to The World City

CIVILIZED NATIONS AT LOCAL THEATRES

NEW ATTRACTIONS

Sunbeams Even in the "Dark Valley"

universe

O. Williams. Corinthian Lodge-Lou D. Anderson,

Corinthian Lodge-Lou D. Anderson, Roy Victor Jones. Georgina Lodge-Herbert M. Upton, Albert T. Skill, Charles B. Templeton. Charles Porter, Norman V. Cliff. Harmony Lodge-T. L. Blatchford, James L. Jamieson, C. A. Hillock, Geo. E. Farley. Ionic Lodge-Bruce Hosmer Acton-Burrows, John Ure Garrow, Walter King Pearce, George Crowther Ryer-son, Hugh Lewis Hoyles, James Miles Langstaff, Huson Grand Murray, Alan Featherston Aylesworth. King Solomon Lodge-Norman C.

the railway fives:

N HEARING t the tariff com-

ngston about Nov. ted at the session

OM POISON. est Adelaide street. General Hospitul suffering from At the hospital has that he was on the

COUNTS. ts to read a morn ast half an hour orld and get this city in snappy

age

icy rotect ruggle kind? of the ap to stem-

Life

te an int of natur-

ble to th the asider-

ife

DA

Il por-

Nome

Proprietor of Prince George

Magara-on-the-Lake, Mr. Thompson came to Toronto thirty years ago and joined the staff of the Queen's Hotel, becoming, in course of time. chief executive. Twelve years ago he took over the old Rossin House, changed its name to the Prince George and by remodeling both furnishings and ser-vice he made it one of the most pop-ular hotels in Canada. A member of many athletic asso-clations and a prominent member of the R.C.Y.C., Mr. Thompson was also a member of the best known golt clubs in the city. He was an An-glican in religion. Those who sur-vive are his wodow, daughter of Mr. Henry Winnett, proprietor of the gueen's Hotel; one son, Henry Win-tet Thompson, and a sister, Mrs. Thairs, wife of Colonel Thairs, of Ridley College, St. Catharines. Niagara-on-the-Lake, Mr. Thompson came to Toronto thirty years ago and Ridley College, St. Catharines.

PAPER OR NEWSPAPER?

People who buy newspapers, not for

ALGONQUIN PARK IN WINTER.

A handsome illustrated booklet entitled, "Enjoy Winter in Ontario High-Agent, Toronto.

main, most watches to minimum of the second watches had prevented the prosecution of re-form measures and only Ald. Honey-ford was agitating vigorously against Tunless a great pressure of public opinion is brought to bear upon the council members I am afmaid that tax reform so far as this municipality is concerned, will be defeated," Mr. Roebuck warned his audience.

In concluding his historical survey, the speaker declared that the Drury sovernment had at first drafted a bill far wider in scope and allowing the initiative in any municipality to be taken by the people, but had been intimidated from presenting it in that form by the combined pressure of the Liberal and Conservative parties. IEADDING HOTELMAN DIED ON SATURDAYProprietor of Prince George Alls. to Mich a bolic to the part of the teentale.
Alls. to Mich a bolic to bear upon the people.
Alls. to Mich and Mi

Proprietor of Prince George
Was Citizen of Toronto 36 Years.
From The Sunday World.
Toronto on Saturday morning lost a prominent business man in the per-son of Samuel Thompson, proprietor of the Prince George Hotel, who dia the residence of his father m-law, Henry Winnett, 205 Warren road, Death followed a painful lilness of several months' duration, neuritis being the primary cause of death; will be held from the residence, 205 Warren road, on Monday afternoon to Mount Pleasant Cemetery.
Samuel Thompson was a Canadian Miagara-on-the-Lake, Mr. Thompson came to Toronto thirty years ago and Stephenson and Miss Blanche Rev. M. Kaplan, assisted by Rabbi Gor-mony Bessie Miriam Pulman, eldet daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Pulman, to the Oddfellows' Temple. The bride-most charles the Chase, who keeps such a watchful eye as guardian of the partister, as maid of honor, and Mrs. J. S. Cohen as matron of honor. The brides-mad while roses. She was attended by per sister, as maid of honor, and Mrs. J. Pearlman, Miss M. Cohen, Miss L. Market Meneral, which will be private warene to Toronto thirty years ago and Oned the staff of the Queen's Hotel, The function, neuritis partist and last. Born 58, years ago and Oned the staff of the Queen's Hotel, and metal ast. Born 58, years ago and Oned the staff of the Queen's Hotel, and market and the staff of the Queen's Hotel, and metal ast. Born 58, years ago and of metal he staff of the Queen's Hotel, and the staff of the Queen's Hotel, evening's shower of books and vic-trolas held under the auspices of the Big Originals' Club. 441 James of the Big."

Originals' Club, 441 Jarvis street.

The comfortable and commodious club weight of paper but for well-presented rooms were filled with a large gathnews, opinion and advertisements, will ering of the most notable members find just what they want in The World. and friends of the club, among these being Major Kippen, Dr. James L. Hughes, the well-known educationist, and Mrs. O. B. Sheppard. One interand Mrs. O. B. Sheppard. One inter-esting note to the assembly was the They will also reduce the cost of titled, "Enjoy Winter in Ontario High-lands," has been issued by the Grand Trunk Railway. The publication deals with winter sports in Algonquin Park, and gives particulars of the well-known Highland Inn, which offers first-class accommodation to visitors. Write for copy of booklet to Grand Trunk Ticket Agents or IC. E. Horning. Discretion and the sports of Mason & Risch, who presented it Discretion and the sports of the sports of as a gift when the cimb was opened. College 1878.

<text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text><text>

Cuticura Soap The Velvet Touch For the Skin ap, Oistment, Talcun, Mc. each. Sold everywh

ture, a splendid program being provided by the uptown symphony concert or-chestra. "Behold My Wife" at Oakwood. "In the Cakwood Theatre, the theatre with parking space for 400 motors, during the first three days of this week. It is ac-companied by a Harold Lloyd comedy. "Get Out and Get Under." Dorothy Dal-ton, in Sir James-Barrie's play. "Half an Hour," with a touch of comedy in "By Golly," is coming during the latter half of the week. Miss Louise Berwick, lyric soprano, is the soloist this week. "39 East" at the Alhambra. "Thirty-Nine East" is the story of a big city boarding house, where a de-lightful girl lived and loved. She was the daughter of a minister and a mem-ber of a musical show in order to make her living. Seldom does such a pleasing story of the love and struggles of two young people as Constance Binney tells in "39 East" come to the screen. It is at the Alhambra Theatre during the first half of this week, followed by "The Fortune Teller," a fascinating pleture, during the latter half of the week. At the Family Theatre. "Below the Surface" and a Pollard comedy are at the Family Theatre to-day; "The Copperhead," on Wednesday and Thursday. "Held in Trust." on Fri-day and Saturday.

YOUNG GIRL KILLED IN ELEVATOR SHAFT

Missed Footing in Trying to Alight While Car Was in Motion.

From The Sunday World,

[•] Miss M. Loudon, aged 23, an employe of the T. Eaton Co., living at 118 Ferrier avenue, was almost instantly killed on Saturday afternoon in an elevator accident at No. 6 factory, Louisa street. The head coroner was notified and the body was removed to the morgue, where an inquest will be

According to the police, the girl was attempting to alight from the elevator while in motion, and her body was caught between the floor of the eleval or and shaft. Before the car could be stopped by the operator, her chest was badly crushed. Dr. Edmund King, 61 East Queen street, was called, but his efforts were unavailing and the girl died shortly after.

"THE PIRATES OF PENZANCE."

Next week the Savoyards Operatic Society will present "The Pirates of Penzance" at Massey Hall. This de-lightful comic opera has not been seen or heard in Toronto for many years and, as the above society has a great reputation, a fine performance may confidently be expected.

The company numbers about 70 people and includes in its cast the following well-known names: Lee Woodland, Austin Douglas. W. R. Curry, Elwood Genoa, Lillian Dryden, C. R. Lea, Grace Patterson, Constance Stewart, L. Treloar, and, in the principal tenor role, John Hubbard. Mr. Reginald Stewart will again conduct the large orchestra, and Sir Arthur Sullivan's own orchestration has been imported from London for

The performances commence Tuesday. November 23, for five nights and Saturday matinee. The prices are ex-ceedingly small for this class of enter-tainment.

At the Garden Theatre. The Garden Theatre today presents "Ladder of Lies" and "By Golly"; "Be-tow the Surface," on Wednesday and Thursday, and "Away Goes Prudence," during the last two days of the week. At the Teck Theatre. "Something to Think About" is now at the Teck Theatre; "Erstwhile Susan." on Wednesday and Thursday, and "Be-low the Surface," on Friday and Satur-day.

found in any other less auspicious en-vironment. • Waiter Scanlan Coming. Those who love ballads, sung by a master of the art of ballad singing, have a treat in store for them in the perform-ance of "Hearts of Erin," to be pre-sented at the Grand next week by George M. Gatts. The singer will be Walter Scanlan, the tenor, whose singing of the leading role in opera, "Eileen," created