

THE U. S. PRESIDENTIAL SITUATION

Taft Throws Down Gage of Battle to Roosevelt and Progressives—President Calls Latter Neurotics.

...people who fought the revolution and who drafted the federal constitution the greatest self-governing people that the world ever knew.

Spark May Make a Flame.

It is somewhat significant that the president should have referred to the French Revolution. He must have had in mind the speech delivered a few days before by Judge Gary of the Steel Trust and Gary Dinner fame in which he found the following words: "There are things being said nowadays which are very similar to things said just before the French revolution."

HON. CHAMP CLARKE

Speaker of the house, who is considered too loose-tongued for a presidential candidate.

...faction which the people at large seem to entertain for their general president.

Side Step Tariff.

Curiously enough both Taft and Roosevelt fight shy of the tariff question.

Democracy Split.

As the split between the Conservatives and the Progressives, between the Taft and the Roosevelt men of the Republican party widens, the found sun of hope peeps over the misty horizon.

Meanwhile the Taft men are not discouraged. They have the advantage of following an avowed candidate, and one who by virtue of his office can outstep any other.

Q. What is a progressive Democrat?

A. He is not a real Democrat. The best you can say for him is that his father or grandfather may have been a Democrat.

By the court: Q. What is an independent Democrat?

A. He is a Republican.

Bryan Denounces now named Hon. Oscar S. Underwood as being much better or any better than a Republican.

Col. W. J. Bryan does not consider Hon. Oscar S. Underwood as being much better or any better than a Republican.

Mr. Underwood has spoken of Mr. Bryan with restraint but his real views probably coincide with those of Representative Dyes of Texas, who last Saturday denounced the Nebraska man as a dangerous demagogue.

Bryan openly declared that neither Harmon, Underwood nor Champ Clark must be nominated. That he can control more than one-third of the delegates in the Baltimore convention is not seriously disputed.

Wilson, undoubtedly, leads with Harmon a good second. Ex-Governor Polk, of Missouri, has formerly withdrawn from the contest, and Champ Clark will be presented by a solid delegation from Missouri.

Mr. Clark can't be nominated if only because he is too loose-tongued and too clownish for a presidential candidate.

It must be remembered also that Champ Clark, as speaker, has nothing like the authority possessed by his predecessors.

CURE YOUR RHEUMATISM, Be Immune from Further Attacks—Get AN OXYPATHOR.

EVERY sufferer from Rheumatism has been addicted to the "try this, try that" habit.

Drugs and medicines give only temporary relief—not one goes to the prime cause of the trouble.

They simply suppress the trouble for the time being; in a few days or a few weeks it returns with renewed vigor, requiring larger doses of the drug. Finally the drug loses its effect altogether.

Suppose you have tried everything—drugs, medicines, electricity, osteopathy, massage and so-called cures for Rheumatism; you feel that your case is hopeless.

But the OXYPATHOR will effect a cure in a few week's time even at this stage.

The OXYPATHOR has cured scores of cases after all other methods have failed even to benefit.

BY the natural process of oxidation the OXYPATHOR dissolves the alkaline deposits, and completely rids the blood of its acid poison, thus not only wiping out the disease but making the patient immune from further immediate attacks.

It is waste matter in the blood that, impeding and clogging the circulation, causes such dreadful pains.

Applying the OXYPATHOR increases the amount of Oxygen absorbed by the body. The Oxygen in the blood "burns up" the internal waste and poisons, converting them into the force and vital energy needed to restore, build up and forever support the nerves and other organs of the body.

In short, the OXYPATHOR is the modern means of assisting the body to remove waste products and other toxic materials in the same manner as when in a state of perfect health.

With the OXYPATHOR you treat yourself in your own home—no expensive trips to health resorts—no large fees for electrical and other treatments.

Learn about the wonderful science of OxyPATHOR and the Drug Evil which it is replacing. Send for our free book. Address our local office.

KUBELIK FINDS INDIAN REAL LOVER OF MUSIC

Celebrated Violinist Tells How He Enthralled The Red Men in Oklahoma.

Jan. Kubelik, the world-famed Bohemian violinist, who will be at Massey Hall for two nights this week, in conjunction with the Toronto Symphony Orchestra and Schubert Choir, tells of an interesting experience in Oklahoma recently, when he performed before audiences which consisted solely of Cherokee Indians.

He says: "I have played before royalty in foreign lands," he exclaimed, "but I have never played before Indians before whom I played before. They stood up and applauded madly, their hearts in it, as well as their hands. I have never perceived anything like it—never. Tears rolled down many a red cheek before I had finished. We hear of the Indian's stolidity. It was not noticeable in either of the packed audiences of red men before whom I played.

Those men and women are true children of nature, unspoiled, untrammelled by civilization. As I played in front of row after row of the eager 'American children' my own heart glowed as never before and I was able to play with a new spirit. I have never felt such a thrill before in my life.

"When I went down there I tried to myself that this was to be the true test. Here was an opinion which I could swing to me only by true art. I played, I think, as I have never played before. They harkened enraptured. Their delight was like that of children.

Feared for His Scalp.

And then their applause. I have Muskegon. The rest of his time while in what was Indian territory was passed in duck shooting. The violinist is an ardent sportsman. He tramped thru mud and water with high.

Delights of Duck Hunting.

"The excitement kept me warm," he declared. The hunting was fine and I shot many ducks. It was winter twice and summer three times while I was there. I liked the summer better, I tell you.

Kubelik is accompanied by his wife, who was not with him when he visited Chicago in the fall. Mrs. Kubelik was a courtesan before she was married to the musician.

"But now she is the wife of Kubelik," said the violinist. "Isn't that enough? What is a title?"

"Pomander Walk" Coming.

Besides being one of the most successful playwrights of the present time, Louis N. Parker, author of "Pomander Walk" and "Darsell," is considered one of England's greatest stage directors. His work on the national pageants of recent years has given him an international celebrity in this capacity. That his skill is not confined to the staging of such pretentious, sweeping works as these pageants, is
