Campobello Wedding.

An Eastport letter says: A wedding of importance to the residents of Campobello and to many in this city, will take The Medding of the Wedshing Wedding of the Season at the Welshpool Arms.

The Wedding be a church at the English church at the Handsome little English church at the Pool is being beautifully decorated for the occasion. A large number are expected this week from Boston and are Giants' nine in three games. Of this sum the players have already $108,355.59 to their account: the lowners of each to their account; the owners of each club, $36,118.53; and the National Com-was $40,912.29, each club's $13,637.48, and the National Commission's $7,576.35.

Connie Mack had both Bush and Shawkey warming up for the game, but the way the former was shooting them in to Ira Thomas it was not hard to detect that Bush was the first choice of the Philadelphia manager.

aging cheer as he went to the pitching box and threw up four balls to Catcher McLean.

Eddie Murphy, the first batter up for the Athletics, watched Tesreau get his spit ball lubricated and then watched the first strike shoot across the plate. The Giants' rooters shouted when Umpire Rigler's right arm shot up, indicating the strike. Tesreau's second offering was a ball and the third he sent down was driven right at Fletcher, who threw Murphy out by an eyelash at first.

The first 'ball sent' down to Oldring was a strike, the next was a foul strike, the third a ball and the fourth was apparently a good one for Oldring laced it to centre field for a clean single to the great joy of the Philadelphia contingent.

The first pitch sent to Collins also was a strike. After taking another strike the Philadelphian second baseman hit to centre field and Oldring never stopped until he pulled up at third base. Then came Baker. Tesreau's first two pitches to him were strikes down near Baker's knees. The next ball just suited the home run hitter and he smashed a single to centre, scoring Oldring with the first run of the game. Collins went Merkle was given a base on balls, and Wiltse, went to for on base, Crandall gout, Collins to McInnis.

Wiltse went to first base in Merkle's place when the eighth opened. Neither Struk nor Barry could do anything with Crandall's pitching, both hitting weakly to the rescue pitcher, who threw them out affirst.

Schang then stepped to the plate and gave the ball a mighty wallop which sent it into the right field stand for a home run. It was as long as any of Baker's home runs on the Polo grounds, and as the young catcher went to the Athletics' bench Baker ran out and warmly shook his hand. Bush ended the inning by striking out.

The crowd started to leave the grounds as Murphy came to bat in the ninth inning, went out on a foul fly to Herzog, and Collins ended the Athletics' inning by raising a fly to Shafer.

The next ball just suited the home run hitter and he smashed a single to centre, scoring Oldring with the first run of the game. Collins went to second. Collins and Baker worked the double steal, McLean in his anxiety the double steal, McLean in his anxiety to make a throw dropping the ball at the plate. McInnis struck out, McLean missing the third strike and throwing him out at first.

missing the third strike and throwing him out at first.

Then the game was practically won when Amos Strunk shot a grounder at Fletcher, who threw over Merkle's head to the grandstand and allowing both Collins and Baker to score. Strunk kept on to second. Barry ended the inning by sending a high fly to Fletcher.

Leslie Bush was also given a cheer when he ascended the hurling mound. Getting two strikes on Herzog, Bush pitched three bad balls and a New York pitched three bad balls and a New York fan yelled: "Take him out." Both pitcher and batter being in a hole, Bush sent up a straight ball and Herzog was compelled to hit it, and he went out at first Barry to McInnis. Doyle rammed a sharp hit at Bush, who batted the ball down but could not field it in time to first to catch Doyle and he did not throw it. Fletcher was hit by a pitched ball, Doyle moving to second. Burns brought groans from the stands when he sent a sharp fly to Col-lins, who doubled up Doyle trying to get back to second, Barry making the put-Tesreau Batted Out of Box—
