TURCO-GRECIAN WAR IS THREATENED

DIPLMATIC RELATIONS ARE SEVERED TODAY

Trouble Arises Over Expulsion Of Patriarchate

SCENE IN CHAMBER

Armed Force Only Remedy, Says Former War Minister In Speech

By ANTHONY PAPANIKOLAOU, United Press Staff Correspondent

ATHENS, Jan. 31.—Greece today severed diplomatic relations with Turkey, and Athens buzzed with talk of war, because the Ankara government expelled the ecumenical patriarchate, which for seven centuries has represented the orthodox Greek church in Constantinople. A wave of indignation has swept the Greek nation.

There were violent scenes in the Chamber of Deputies today, many deputies shouting, "Down with Turkey."

Former Minister of War Pangalos, in a stirring speech, declared: "It is by armed force only that Turkey can be taught reason."

It is probable, however, that an appeal will be made to the League of Nations and possibly to other nations against the expulsion.

The Greek nation is in mourning. Church bells throughout the country were tolled today and the president of Greece cancelled a diplomatic banquet.

Expulsion by the Turks of the patriarchate at Constantinople marks the culmination of their effort to obliterate the orthodox church in Turkey.

At the Lausanne conference, the Turks, having first defied the Greeks in war, promised to respect the patriarchate. It is understood here that following recent threats against the patriarchate, the Archbishop of Canterbury and leaders of Christian churches generally have brought pressure on the British government to intervene.

Patriarch Returns. The expelled patriarch and his staff arrived on Greek soil today, and was received with great reverence. He may stay at the monastery atop the Holy Mountain in Macedonia.

Meanwhile, the Greek government is doing its best to avert the possibility of another war, although to great indignation and religious fervor that a conflict is not impossible.

Envoy Is Recalled. Rumors of mobilizing, however, are premature. The Greek charge d'affaires at Ankara was recalled today.

Speaker Believes Government Can Arrange Scheme to Protect Interests

MONTREAL, Jan. 31.—The Canadian Pulp and Paper Association yesterday put itself on record as in favor of a limitation of the export of pulpwood. Without any opposition, a motion along the lines of a report presented by F. W. Clarke, chairman of the Mechanical Pulp section, was adopted.

Keep Our Water Power. In the course of his address Mr. Clarke said that if Canadian water power was to be kept in Canada, we must find a use for it, and an important move in that direction would be the retention of pulpwood in Canada and its manufacture into pulp and paper here.

"Granted that the interest of the settlers and other private owners of pulpwood are involved to some extent in the problem of how best to deal with our diminishing wood supply, I submit that it ought not to be very difficult for the government, acting in co-operation with our industry, to devise ways and means whereby expenditures may be reduced to a minimum or stopped entirely without sacrificing these interests. We cannot, of course, expect to take away their present market without providing another equally as good or better.

Pay Forest Protection. An adequate export tax on pulpwood shipped out of the country would provide funds for the protection of our forests and to the benefit of the people of the country.

Both Quebec and Ontario have recently declared against the exportation of hydro-electric power and the massive position that our interests require that those who would use our water powers should come to Canada in order to do so.
