Forecast—Moderate westerly and south westerly winds, fine and warm today and on Wednesday.

Forecast—Fine warm weather prevail throughout the maritime provinces. To banks, moderate westerly winds, to Antigonish, moderate westerly and southerly winds.

Weather Report at Moncton. Tuesday, Sept. 5, 1911. Temperature during last 24 hrs 60.

DIE IN JUNEAU FIRE. Alaska, Sept. 5—(Canadian Press)—Persons are believed to have died in the fire which destroyed the Juno and the McGrath building on day to not less than twenty years in prison.

ION. GEO. P. GRAHAM SHOWS UP THE DOUBLE GAME OF TORIES. In a speech at Beaverton last week, Hon. Geo. P. Graham declared that Mr. Borden, who was dealing almost exclusively in loyalty in Ontario, was leaving much of his campaign in Quebec to Messrs. Monk and Bourassa, who daily, particularly the latter, attacked Sir Wilfrid Laurier because he was too British and too Imperial.

"I have it on good authority," said Mr. Graham, "that Mr. Borden's financial friends in Quebec are paying for the circulation of the anti-British literature of the Nationalists. Mr. Hawks' appeal to the British born in Ontario and Mr. Bourassa's appeal against almost everything British in Quebec, are both accepted by Mr. Borden in the hope of defeating Laurier."

ECHOES OF THE GREAT CAMPAIGN

AT A BORDEN MEETING. At one of the meetings addressed by Mr. Borden in Quebec province the feature of the meeting was the Nationalist strain taken by Dr. Piquet, the Conservative candidate for Missisquoi.

HERE'S A GOOD CASE. "The Tories are endeavoring to get the country intoxicated with fear of annexation," stated Dr. M. E. Cross at a recent meeting in Ontario. "They remind me of a girl who was going to get married. Every time she came to the altar, the groom was drunk and the registrar refused to marry them. 'Why do you want to marry this man when he is such a drunkard,' he asked. 'Well,' replied the girl, 'I can get him to come when he's sober.' That's what the Tories see. They never can get the country to come when it's sober."

AND HERE'S ANOTHER. In a recent speech Sir Allen Aylesworth said that the attitude of the Conservative party reminded him of nothing so much as the joke played upon the boys when a farmer's boy put a setting of duck's eggs under a chicken hen, and when the eggs were hatched out the hen said to the farmer's wife, 'Why do you want to marry this man when he is such a drunkard?' because the ducks wanted to enter their natural element, the water. But just as the farmer's wife was unable with all her shouting to prevent the ducks from swimming, so would the Tories be unable to prevent the Canadian people entering their natural market.

STRAIGHT TO THE POINT. Sir Allen Aylesworth in a recent speech evaded great cheering when he read the election address issued in 1891 by the late Sir John Thompson ('of whom every Canadian has heard') in which the then Minister of Justice supported and advocated reciprocity and appealed for re-election to that position. 'Would anybody say that the great Canadian who died at Windsor Castle almost at the knees of his sovereign was dishonest? Of course not. Why then should they charge the Liberals with dishonesty? After dealing with the loyalty of Sir Allen Aylesworth, asked: 'Does anybody suppose that because we are spending thousands of dollars to promote trade with Japan and France and Germany, we are in danger of becoming Japanese or French or German?'

THE LOYAL FRENCH LIBERALS. In contrast to the anti-British shouts of the Nationalists in Quebec, read this from a French Liberal: 'When the country is menaced we will turn out to the last man and to the last penny. The words of Gen. Botha, the premier of South Africa who said as clearly and unambiguously as possible that he could not see how it was possible for any other denomination of Great Britain, to remain neutral while the mother country was at war, was impossible. He said that there could be no question of neutrality. The speaker concluded by saying that if that was his name, he would be proud to be a member of the British Empire. He was well satisfied with the outlook of St. John as the site for his harbor works. His return in a short time is looked for.'

PROPERTY WITHDRAWN. Auctioneer F. L. Potts on Saturday offered the Francis Kerr Co. property in Charlotte street at auction, but it was withdrawn at $4,388.

C. P. R. STEAMERS. The S. S. Empress of Britain arrived at Quebec this morning at 5 o'clock. The Montserrat is due at Quebec on Wednesday at 5 a. m.

CITY PAY-DAY. Today was 'pay-day' at City Hall and the following amounts were distributed: $720.00, ferry; $1,300.00, office; $1,250.00, police; $1,500.00, fire; $408.24, engineer's department; and $119.96, market.

COURTNEY BAY. Mr. Bath, of the engineering firm of Norton & Griffiths, who it is said are the lowest tenders for the Courtney Bay terminals, has returned to Montreal. He was well satisfied with the outlook of St. John as the site for his harbor works. His return in a short time is looked for.

IS DOING WELL. D. C. Richardson, who was for some time in the Royal Pharmacy, King street, was a visitor to the city for the holiday. He was warmly welcomed by old friends here. Mr. Richardson is now successfully located in Centreville, Carleton county, where he is doing well as the proprietor of a prosperous drug business.

BODY NOT RECOVERED. All efforts to locate the body of little Warren Boushey, drowned on Sunday, have thus far been fruitless. Diver Edward Howard went down yesterday afternoon at low tide in twenty-five feet of water but as it was muddy he found it difficult to see much. Grappling was carried on during the following day and another diver will go down this afternoon.

The Late Mrs. D. A. Steele. Amherst, N. S., Sept. 5—(Special)—The funeral of Mrs. D. A. Steele will take place on Wednesday afternoon. A body service will be held at the residence of her son-in-law, A. G. Robb, and the body will be taken to the First Baptist church, where a public service will be held.

GIVE US A PLAIN YES OR NO, MR. BORDEN

Mr. R. L. Borden:--- Do you personally believe reciprocity if adopted would lead to annexation? Do not evade the issue. Answer the question to-night---plain yes or no. If you say yes, how do you explain this statement made by you before the Manufacturers' Association in Montreal in 1904, as reported in the Montreal Star:---

"Was there any idea that a reciprocity treaty with the United States would in any way interfere with self-government in Canada? NO!"

EASY FOR "KNOCK-OUT" Police Stop His Toronto Bout With Moran—"Kid" McCoy in Ring Again, Scores Quick Victory

Toronto, Ont. Sept. 5—In Toronto last night Knockout Brown of New York and Johnny Moran, of England met at 133 pounds, but the exhibition, which was scheduled for ten rounds, was stopped by the police in the seventh after Brown had made a chopping block of his opponent.

RAILWAY LINE TO HAMPTON VILLAGE. Tenders for the building of an I. C. R. spur line from Hampton Station to Hampton Village are called for by advertisement in today's Times. The tenders will close on Sept. 29. This is a work that will be greatly appreciated.

PRICES HIGHER IN ENGLAND. London, Sept. 5—(Canadian Press)—The price of wheat is steadily advancing and prices of other foodstuffs are also rising. The potato crop has failed in most parts of England where usually it is most abundant, and there is now no doubt of a wholesale failure of the best sugar crop in Germany on which English refiners are largely reliant.

Bets Are Off. Chicago, Ill., Sept. 5—(Canadian Press)—All bets on the Gotch-Hackenschmidt wrestling match are called off for the reason that the police are determined to stamp out gambling in this city.

ANNEXATION THAT PAYS. (Ottawa Free Press). The Conservatives are accusing the Liberals of being annexationists, and while the Liberals naturally indignantly deny the allegation, so far as any desire to permit the absorption of Canada by the United States, they must plead guilty to being "annexationists" of United States citizens.

THE FOOD RIOTS IN FRANCE. Paris, Sept. 5—(Canadian Press)—Troops and police are now sharply suppressing the cheap food demonstrations in the northern departments. At Mauthouze in the department of Nord, 1,500 manifestants were charged by the cavalry and dispersed. Numerous persons were trampled upon and injured.

WILL MR. BORDEN READ THIS TO THE PEOPLE OF ST. JOHN? Sir John Bourinot, who was a strong Conservative, wrote a life of Lord Elgin, published in 1908. In that work, referring to the reciprocity treaty of 1854, he said: "Not only was a large and remunerative trade secured between the United States and the provinces, but the social and friendly intercourse of the two countries necessarily increased with the expansion of commercial relations and the creation of common interests between them. Old antipathies and misunderstandings disappeared under the influence of conditions which brought these communities together and made each of them place a higher estimate on the other's good qualities. In short, the treaty in all respects fully realized the expectations of Lord Elgin in working so earnestly to bring it to a successful conclusion."

100,000 DROWNED IN FLOODS. Hankow, China, Sept. 5—(Canadian Press)—The American mission at Hankow has received a report that 100,000 persons had been drowned by the floods caused by the water flowing over the banks of the Yangtze-Kiang River. The floods are the worst that have been experienced in many years.

SUDDEN DEATH OF MRS. MARTHA DeLONG. The death of Mrs. Martha DeLong, widow of David DeLong, occurred this morning at her home in Elliot Row. She was enjoying good health until late last night, when on returning home about 10 o'clock she took ill and passed away just after midnight.

MAN OF 64 SHOOT "SOO" RAPIDS ON LOG. Soo, Ont., Sept. 5—(Canadian Press)—At the age of 64, Jack Earlight has gone in for breaking records and he shot the Sault rapids yesterday afternoon before a big crowd. The log he used was the same as that used a week ago by Pollock, when he established a record in being the first man to shoot the rapids on a log. Earlight made his feat the more hazardous by sawing four feet off the log, making it only twelve feet long.

THE FOOD RIOTS IN FRANCE. Paris, Sept. 5—(Canadian Press)—Troops and police are now sharply suppressing the cheap food demonstrations in the northern departments. At Mauthouze in the department of Nord, 1,500 manifestants were charged by the cavalry and dispersed. Numerous persons were trampled upon and injured.

BEATIE SIX HOURS ON STAND RECOUNTING A FEARFUL STORY. Chesterfield Court House, Va., Sept. 5—(Canadian Press)—Through six weary hours in a crowded and stuffy court room Henry Clay Beattie, Jr., indicted for the murder of his wife, bled for his life yesterday. Not alone the orator of the four years before his marriage and those that preceded the homicide, but the tale of the attack by the highwayman, the wild ride to the Owen House at a speed of 35 miles an hour with the lifeless blood-covered body of his wife in the machine beside him was given to the jury in all its horrible detail.

RUNS AUTO WILDLY INTO TORONTO CROWD; ARRESTED. Toronto, Ont., Sept. 5—Alexander S. Tracey, a contractor of Port Huron, Mich., drove his motor car along Queen street West last night, in an erratic manner, and ran into a crowd waiting for a street car. He was arrested and will be charged with drunkenness and criminal negligence. Six persons were more or less injured. His arrest probably saved him from severe treatment at the hands of an infuriated crowd.

THE TIMES' NEW REPORTER

MORE PORTRAITS UNVEILED. Portraits of Clifford Sifton and Sir William Van Home were unveiled at Patriot's Hall last evening. They hang on either side of the portrait of Mr. Bourassa. It was hoped that Mr. Borden would be present at the unveiling, but he was elsewhere on the king's business.

The Exalted Patriot, after wiping his feet on the stars and stripes, delivered the following eulogy on Sir William Van Home:—"Little Willie Van Home was a big American boy, who as an early age saw the rich future opening up before Canada as a part of the great British Empire. When he came here a Loyal and Patriotic government was in power, and gave him an opportunity to develop his talents. He took naturally to railroading, and soon accumulated several dollars, which with great prudence and thrift on his part enabled him eventually to acquire a melon farm and retire from the arduous toil of a railroad man. He has been cutting melons ever since.

"A Loyal and Patriotic government not only protected Willie's melons, but got him a title, and thus set the imperial stamp on his noble brow. By the exercise of his Loyal and persevering nature he acquired some pulp and paper mills, water power, steel works, street railways, farms, coal mines, art galleries, and many other trifles.

"Sir William is one of us. He is a Patriot. I will remember his noble occasion when I had the honor of conversing with him for some time. He told me of his devotion to the Union Jack, his scorn of servile persons who would reduce high imperial questions to terms of turnips and cabbages, or potatoes. In most impressive tones he said to me that of all the mottoes of all nations the one which most strongly appealed to him, and made him a Patriot, was the grand old British motto:—'What we have we'll hold.' Indeed Sir William has had it engraved on his coat of arms. What he has in the United States which was 'annexing' Canadians and converting them into American citizens to the extent of over a million in the eighteen years.

Which sort of 'annexation' is the more probable? The Liberal plan, which brings people from the States into Canada, or the Tory policy, which sent Canadians out of Canada into the United States?

"I may add," said the Exalted Patriot, "that Sir William is a great friend of the working man, and his frequently handed him large slices of lemon." "Don't you mean lemon?" shouted a back-bencher. "No," said the Exalted Patriot. "I said lemon." (Renewed cheers.)
