An Address from the Trustees Board of the Methodist Church.

To the Members of the Society of Friends, West Wellington.

Dear Fellow-laborers in Christ,—It having been intimated to the Trustee Board of the Methodist Church of this Village, that your Society desires the use of their church building during the sessions of your "Yearly Meeting," we, the undersigned, take great pleasure in informing you that, at a meeting of the Trustee Board of the Methodist Church, held May 18th, 1898, your desire was unanimously and most cordially granted. We trust that your delegates will have a pleasant stay in our village, and we unite with you in prayer that the Great Head of the Church will make their coming an occasion of great spiritual power and blessing to this entire community.

Signed on behalf of the Trustee board,

J. C. BELL,

JOHN N. MACDONALD,

Dear Brethren,—Your communication offering to us the use of your church building during the Sessions of our Yearly Meeting has been read and the offer thankfully accepted.

We are grateful to our Heavenly Father that we realize that in the great Vineyard of the Lord we are all one in Christ. We unite with you in the prayer that the Great Head of the Church may grant His blessing upon you and us in the extension of His Kingdom, and that the preaching of the Gospel may be in the demonstration of the Spirit and with power.
