

French-speaking candidates may omit SHAKSPEARE, but will be expected to translate into French passages from the first half of the "VICAR OF WAKEFIELD," and answer questions of grammar and parsing. They will be required to have a critical knowledge of the "Athalie." Similarly, English-speaking candidates may omit "Racine," but will be expected to translate into English passages from the first half of "Telemaque," and answer questions of grammar and parsing. They will be required to have critical knowledge of the "Merchant of Venice."

TIME AND MARKS ALLOWED AT THE EXAMINATION.

Latin	2	Hours.....	300	Marks
English	1½	"	150	"
French	1½	"	150	"
Belles-lettres	1	"	100	"
History and Geography	2	"	200	"
Arithmetic	1½	"	150	"
Algebra	1½	"	150	"
Geometry	1½	"	150	"
Greek	1½	"	150	"
Natural Philosophy	1½	"	150	"
Moral Philosophy	1½	"	150	"

17 Hours

1,800 Marks.

Examiner,.

1. Distin
erent forms

2. Name
formation o

3. Descri
and their u

4. Define nial roots, a

5. Descri

6. Descri

7. State
ramificatio

8. Give a

9. Expla
glabrous.

10. State