HATED BY BLACK MEN.

CRUELLY TREATED BY MAJOR BARTTELOT.

William Bonney Makes a Few Statements—Terrible Scenes in the Rear Column Camp.—Deeds Which Led Up to the Death of the Major—"Stanley Has Said No More than the Truth."

LONDON, Nov. 9.—William Bonney, the only living white officer of Stanley's rear column, who is personally acquainted with all the terrible events connected with the misfortunes at Yambuya camp, has made the following signed statement to the London Times:

"I regret very much that I am obliged to take part in the controversy which has arisen through the publication of Maj. Barttelot's diaries and letters. The facts in my posession I have never told to any person, except to Mr. Stanley, Walter G. Barttelot and Mrs. Jameson, and I have only told them because they asked me for the facts and I thought they had a right to them.

"Had Mr. Barttelot not placed Mr. Stanley upon the defence this would never have been made public, and I should not now be forced to confirm the painful circumstances connected with the rear column and the death of Maj. Barttelot. As it is, I will confine myself simply to the matter now before the public and will refer only to those events to which I can testify from personal knowledge.

"I take up these matters in the order in which Mr. Stanley has treated of them. I will first refer to the poisoning story.

"Mr. Stanley, in his statement to the Times, quoted two entries from the diaries of Maj. Barttelot, one of which (p. 169) under date of Nov. 24, 1888, is as follows:

"Bonny and I talked about our probable action in the event of Stanley doing certain things, and I expressed myself openly.

"The other quotation (p. 170) from Maj. Barttelot's diaries, under date of Dec. 6, is as follows:

"After dinner Bonney and I talked again, and I referred to our conversation of Nov. 24, I made a determination never to partake of Stanley's hospitality while out here, as we had a private medicine chest. Jameson, in reference to our conversation of Nov. 24, expressed his determination to act as I should—also to refuse Stanley's hospitality.

"Mr. Stanley's statement reads as though it was in Africa that he first saw the foregoing entries. As a matter of fact, it was Sunday, Oct. 26, this year, after the publication of Barttelot's diaries, that Stanley, reading these entries and wondering what they meant, asked me to tell him. What I told him was this:

"One of the officers, being in possession of Mr. Stanley's previous book, 'The Dark Continent,' examined some of the Arabs who had accompanied Stanley on one expedition referred to in that volume as to whether the statement in it were correct that he (Stanley) had paid Arabs so much money and given them so many trinkets, etc.

"Another man, a Zanzibar, was examined with regard to the death of Mr. Pocock, who was drowned upon that expedition, and an endeavor was made by the officer referred to to find out whether Pocock had died in the manner described by Stanley.

"Maj. Barttelot then asked me, 'Do you think Stanley is a Palmer poisoner?'

"I replied that many statements had gone abroad in Europe about Mr. Stanley's treatment of his white men, but nothing was ever proved against him. Barttelot then remarked that he believed Stanley would poison anyone if he got a chance, and that he should, therefore, decline to receive Stanley's hospitality for the future, as it would be dangerous. Jameson concurred in this, and said that for the future he would not receive Stanley's hospitality.

"Regarding the intention of Major Barttelot to poison Selim Ben Montameo, nephew of Tippoo Tib, and the latter's chief man, to which Stanley briefly refers, the circumstances occurred this way: Barttelot had many disputes with Selim, and the most bitter feeling existed between them. One day Barttelot came to me and asked me if I had any tasteless poisons.

"I asked him, 'why, what do you want with them?'

"He replied, 'I am determined to poison Selim.'

"I said, 'I will o and see.'

"I went to the medicine chest, removed from it all the dangerous drugs, hid them, and then went and told Barttelot what I had done.

"He said, half angrilly, 'why did you do that!

"I replied, 'I have done so in order that the drugs may not get into dangerous hands'

"After thinking for a moment, he made a rush for a bottle of cyanide of potassium, which Jameson kept to destroy insects. Bringing it back he said: This will do; but then, he asked, as though the thought just struck him, 'is it tasteless?'

"I replied: I don't know. Why don't you try?"

"How would you mix it—in hot or cold water?" he asked.

"Try it in warm,' I replied. 'It will disolve more quickly.'

"The quantity he put in was one-quarter ounce to three ounces of water. I advised him to taste it himself. He did so, and immediately dropped the whole lot on the ground. After a few seconds he said: 'No man could take that without knowing it was poison, it is so salty.'

"This was the end of the incident, for the major made no further attempts to poison Selim. All these drugs to which I refer are now in my possession.

"The statement that Barttelot seized a woman and fastened his teeth in her flesh is quite true, and the only mistake Mr. Stanley makes is that it was in the woman's cheek, and not in her shoulder, that Maj. Barttelot fastened his teeth.

"This was one of the occasions upon which I saved the life of Major Barttelot, for he would have died, with his teeth in the woman's face, had I not beaten off the crowd of enraged natives who started to attack the major with their cudgels. I bear upon my forehead a scar received in a fierce fight that followed, and have others which show how near we both came to losing our lives.

"It is perfectly true that Bartelott was in the habit of standing before the natives showing his teeth and trying to frighten them by grinning at them like a fiend. It is also true that he ran about the camp prodding people with a

JOHN HOFFMAN, FORGER

IS IN GOAL IN MONTREAL WAITING EXTRADITION TO NEW YORK.

Rumored Changes in the Montreal Post Office—Loading Lumber at British Columbia—Union Plasterers on a Strike—A Capsized Schr.—Found.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

MONTREAL, Nov. 11.—John Hoffman, alias Joseph Cole, is now in goal waiting extradition papers charged with forging several notes amounting to $3000, and for negotiating them with Isidore J. Dietz, of New York, who is agent for the National Thread company in that city. Hoffman is also wanted in New York by painter Francis H. Jacob, whose name he forged on a note for $300. Hoffman is a married man thirty-seven years of age, and the father of several children.

Rumored Changes.

Petitioners are interested just now in the rumored changes in the post office. The name of Joseph Tasse is put forward for the postmastership. George Davelny is trying to get the deputy postmastership and has forwarded petitions to Ottawa. He is willing to resign his insurance inspectorship. If appointed the latter position would be given to Celestin Bergesin, senior, M. P. P., whom the government promised to look after for past services.

Loading Lumber.

VICTORIA, B. C., Nov. 11.—The steamship Remus is now at Moodyville getting loaded for Melbourne. This is the first cargo of lumber ever loaded in British Columbia for Australia. If successful this will reduce the time between British Columbia and Australia from three months to one.

Union Plasterers Strike.

TORONTO, Nov. 11.—Twelve union plasterers employed on a building in course of erection at the corner of River and Gerrard streets have gone out on strike because they are being supplied with mortar by non-union men.

A Capsized Schooner Found.

COBURG, Ont., Nov. 11.—The schooner "Ocean Wave" was found capsized twelve miles out from Coburg on Lake Ontario. The crew are supposed to have perished; she was loaded with lumber consigned to an Oswego firm.

FREDERICTON ITEMS.

Death of Miss Lemont—Repairing—Winter Time Table—The Fredericton Park Association—At the Queen—Ice Forming.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

FREDERICTON, Nov. 11th.—Mabel R. Lemont, sister of William and Martin Lemont, died at her mother's residence, St. John street, yesterday morning, after a lingering illness of consumption. Funeral on Thursday next.

John B. Grieves has purchased the property of Robert Aiken situated on the corner of King and Northumberland streets, and is having the buildings which were badly damaged by fire some time ago, repaired.

The fall time table of the Northern & Western railway went into effect yesterday.

The semi-annual meeting of the shareholders of the Fredericton Park Association was held at the Queen hotel last night, the attendance being large. The financial statement showed the association in debt, which was incurred at the formation of the association, the indebtedness having occurred in erecting suitable buildings and putting the track in order. A large amount of new stock was subscribed at the meeting and the association are now in hopes to wipe out this indebtedness. A committee was appointed to solicit subscriptions among the citizens and stockholders. A number of the old shareholders increased their subscriptions.

John Stewart, superintendent of the Northern section of the N. B. D. of the C. P. R., was registered at the Queen last night, also H. C. Creighton, manager of the Canadian Express Co.

Ice formed along the shore of the river last night.

They are Indicted by the Grand Jury—Threatening Armed Citizens in the Streets.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE GAZETTE.

CHICAGO, Nov. 11.—A despatch from Graham, Tex., says: Every peace officer in Young county is in jail, having been indicted by the Grand Jury for participation either actually or passively in the famous mob which assaulted the jail for the purpose of hanging three murderers. The trial of three members of the mob is going on.

Twenty-five special United States deputies guard the jail but the town is full of determined citizens armed with Winchesters who say the United States court may convict but their friends shall not suffer the penalty. A riot will be precipitated by a convention.

THE SUN LIBEL SUIT.

MR. L. A. CURREY'S CROSS-EXAMINATION CONTINUED THIS MORNING.

The Nature of the Testimony—Witnesses for the Defence Still Arriving—Probabilities of the Duration of the Trial.

SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.

FREDERICTON, N. B. Nov. 11—The continuation of L. A. Currey's cross-examination by Mr. Vanwart occupied the morning session of the court. Witness was interrogated as to the applications he had examined, the defects, interlineations, etc.

There is little in this class of evidence, however important its bearing may be on the case, to form interesting and intelligible reading for the public. Several witnesses for the defence arrived last night and today.

The case will spoil the week by present appearances.

MONCTON MISCELLANY.

An Inharmonious Council—The Police and Scott Act—Scott Act Cases—A Seven Year Old Thief—Arrested for Breaking into the I. C. R. Freight House—A Reported Murder.

SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.

MONCTON, N. B., Nov. 11.—For some time past the meetings of the city council have not been as harmonious as they might be. A great deal of personal animosity appears to exist among the aldermen. Last night's session was a lively one and considerable cross-firing was indulged in. One alderman accused another of being interested in town contracts which was repudiated in forcible language, and an attempt was made in the absence of an alderman to spring a motion which had previously been defeated by the casting vote to the mayor and because the latter would not put the motion, the mover spoke in very distinct terms of his worship's ruling. The police committee were authorized to secure legal advice for the thorough enforcement of the Scott act.

Stephen Ryan was before sitting magistrate Smith today, on a charge of keeping and exposing liquor for sale. David Grant for the defence raised reveral objections, but they were overruled. The case was adjourned at Grant's request till tomorrow.

The adjourned cases against Connors and Delahunt were again brought up today. That of the former was again adjourned till tomorrow and Dalahunt's was dismissed.

A seven-year-old lad named Vye stole about $16 from Snider's market stall, yesterday, while the owner was in another part of the building. Twelve dollars of the amount was afterwards recovered and his parents promised to make good the balance.

Alfred Govang was arrested to-day by Officer O'Rourke for breaking into the freight house a few days ago and stealing canned goods. He will be tried to-morrow.

It is reported here that a man living at Belledune, near Bathurst, with a woman who is not his wife, was taken from his house on Saturday night by two young men—brothers—and fearfully maltreated and, afterwards murdered. The report may not be wholly true, but there appears to be foundation for the story.

THE CHARLOTTE CIRCUIT COURT.

Judge King's Address to the Grand Jury—No Criminal Cases—The Civil Docket.

SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.

ST. ANDREWS, N. B. Nov. 11.—The Circuit court opened at noon today, Judge King presiding. Geo. F. Stickney, Esq., of St. Andrews, was elected foreman of the grand jury.

The judge in his charge, which was very brief, stated that the sheriff had presented him a pair of white gloves which indicates a clean calander. He referred to the action now being taken looking towards the abolition of the grand jury system; he had not approved of taking away any of the safeguards of the subject. He was careful not to give a decided expression of opinion pro or con. He said that the present grand jury might be the last one summoned in this county and concluded by thanking them for their attendance, and said he was pleased to relieve them from further duty at this court.

The civil docket consists of; 1st, an action for trespass against Isaac Newton, of Grand Manan. The trespass complained of is the occupation by Newton of Dark harbor as a fishing station of which the company claim the ownership. Dr. Barker and J. A Belyea for plaintiff and C. W. Weldon and H. McLean for the defendant.

2nd—An action brought by Elizabeth Casey, administration of James Casey deceased against the town of Milltown to recover damages for the death of her husband who was killed by falling into one of the town reservoirs. J. L. Carleton for plaintiff and Geo. J. Clarke for defendant.

3rd—An action of assumpsit by James Murchie and others against Frederick I. Fisher and Charles H. Fisher. F. H. Grimmer for plaintiff. This cause will in all probability be settled out of court. The court was adjourned until 2.15 p. m., when the trial of the Grand Manan case will be begun.

FROM OTTAWA.

The British Farm Delegates—Some of Them to Visit the Maritime Provinces—The Deputy Indian Minister—The Lumber Cut—The Digby Pier Contract.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

OTTAWA, Nov. 11.—The British farm delegates were banqueted here last night. Eight of them sail by the Parisian from Quebec on Thursday, while two, Major Stevenson and Mr. Murphy, the Irish delegates, will remain over so as to visit the Maritime Provinces before taking their departure for the old country.

Mr. Vankaughnet, deputy minister of Indian affairs, went east on official business yesterday morning.

The lumber cut in this district last season is estimated at 598,000,000 feet, a falling off compared with last year.

John Nicholson of Ottawa, is awarded the contract for constructing the pier at Digby, N. S. His tender was fifty thousand dollars.

The Weather.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—Indications—Light rain or snow. Continued low temperature. Northerly winds.

THIRD EDITION.

O'BRIEN AND DILLON.

PRESIDENT HARRISON AND SECRETARY BLAINE WILL NOT ATTEND THEIR RECEPTION.

No Government Official Will be Invited to Take Part in It—If the President or Secretary is Identified With the Reception it Would be Discourteous to England.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE GAZETTE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—A special from Washington says neither President Harrison nor Secretary Blaine will attend the reception to Dillon and O'Brien at Washington. The legal position of Messrs. Dillon and O'Brien being that of fugitives from justice the attendance of either the President or Secretary would be treated as an act of discourtesy to the British government and probably be regarded diplomatically as a serious offence. A prominent Irishman in Washington says that on this account no government officials will be asked to take part in their reception.

LOCAL MATTERS.

For additional Local News see Last Page.

The trustee sale of crockery, glassware, etc. at W. A. Lockhart's auction room will be continued to-morrow (Wednesday) at 10.30 a. m.

RESIGNATION.—Mr. Frank Rowan has resigned his position of agent of the New York Steamship Company in this city. Capt. J. H. Sherman will look after the company's interests here.

A CARLOAD OF HORSES from Three Rivers, Quebec, came through this morning by a special train over the C. P. R. and were forwarded to Halifax by the morning train. They were to be sent to England by steamer from the latter place.

EDWARD MESSENDER'S YOUNG WIFE charged him before the police magistrate to-day with illusing her. This young couple were before the court on the 15th of September last one day after their marriage, the bride's mother having had Massender arrested on the charge of enticing her 13 year old daughter away and marrying her. The girl then contended that she was 16 and she was bound to stick to her husband. To-day she wanted to break the matrimonial tie having apparently been won over by the mother. The magistrate gave them some good advice and dismissed the case.

Of Personal Interest.

Among the Shipping.

Bark Arcturus, at Barry from St. John, was damaged during the gale last Thursday night. Her windlass was smashed and she has been docked.

At Chambers.

BEFORE MR. JUSTICE TUCK.

An application for a winding up order under the winding up act of Canada in respect to the Provincial Building society came on for argument before His Honor Mr. Justice Tuck at Chambers this morning.

Messrs. G. C. & C. J. Coster appeared for Charles Hazelwood, the petitioning creditor and an alleged debenture holder by virtue of an assignment.

Mr. W. B. Wallace represented the society, and among a number of constitutional objections taken by him by way of demurrer to the petition raised the following interesting point:

That under the winding up amendment act of 1889, the Provincial Building Society inasmuch as it has a Provincial incorporation only is not subject to the winding up proceedings under the winding up act of the parliament of Canada. The act passed in 1889 reciting in substance that the act only applies to companies on whose incorporation and affairs the Dominion parliament can legislate.

On behalf of the company affidavits were also read showing that six months should be allowed them to wind up their affairs of themselves to avoid the expense of legal proceedings if in the discretion of the judge such would be the wisest course in the interests of all concerned.

Dr. A. A. Stockton, who is the president of the company, was also present, and acted with Mr. Wallace on behalf of the company. The argument will be resumed tomorrow morning at 11.30 o'clock.

REVOLUTION IN HONDURAS.

Bogran will have to leave the Country if not Captured.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE GAZETTE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—A special to the Herald says: A revolution has broken out in Honduras. Tegucigalpa is in a state of seige. It is believed the revolution will become general and Bogran be forced, if not captured, to leave the country. He is regarded as the tool of Barillas and has successfully bankrupted the country. In all probability Barillas will extend aid to his old ally, Bogran, and thus precipitate a general war in Central America.

Another despatch from San Salvador says that President Ezeta has received despatches confirming the reported revolution in Tegucigalpa, and adding that the slaughter in the taking of the State building and arsenal was very heavy.

An Inebriate Mayor Deposed.
