PROSPECTUS FOR 1875--- EIGHTH YEAR. THE ALDINE,

THE ART JOURNAL OF AMERICA, ISSUED MONTHLY.

A MAGNIFICENT CONCEPTION, WONDER FULLY CARRIED OUT."

The necessity of a popular medium for the tion of the productions of our great artists, has always been recognized, and many attempts have been made to meet the wan The successive failures which so invariably allowed each attempt in this country to estab nce of the people of America to the claims o ogh art. So soon as a proper appreciationi of the want and an ability to meet it were shown, the public at once rallied with outhu sisem to its support, and the result was a great rietic and commercial triumph-THE ALDINE

THE ALDINE, while issued with all the regularity, has none of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant mi-cellany of pure, light, and graceful literature; and a collection of pictures. the rarest specimen of artistic skill, in back and white Although each succeeding nom ber afferds a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it is bound up at the the year. While other publication may claim superior cheapness, as compared with rivals of a similar class THE ALDINE is unique and original conception—alone and un approached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possessor of a com plete volume can not duplicate the quan fine paper and engravings in any other shape supplied to dimensions. Designs and then, there is the chromo, besides! The national feature of THE ALDINE must be taken in no narrow sense. True art is cos mopolitan. While THE ALDINE is a strictly American institution, it does not confine itself American institution, it does not comme useful application to the Secretary at St. George, N. B., March 18, 1874. mission is to cultivate a broad and appreciative rit laste, one that will discriminate only on ground of intrinsic merit. Thus, while placing before the patrons of THE ALDINE, as a leading characteristic, the productions of the centretum stomp, M. Yei N., 183 Greenagh, t. N.Y. most noted American artists, a tention will always be given to specimens from foreign The artistic illustration of American scen $5 TO $20 ery, or iginal with THE ALDINE, is an import and feature, and its magnificent plates are of saize more appropriate to the satisfactory reatment of details than can be afforded by any inferior page. The judicious intersper ubjects, sustain an unabated interest, impost ble where the scope of the work confines the artist toe closely to a single style of subject.

The literature of THE ALDINE is a light and graceful accompaniment, worthy of the artistic catures, with only such technical disquisitions as do not interfere with the popular interest of the work.
PREMIUM FOR 1875

Every su'scriber for 1875 will rec ive a seautiful portrait, in all colors, of the same po ble dig whose picture in a former issue attract

"MAN'S UNSELFISH FRIEND" will be welcome in every home. Everybody loves such a dog, and the portrait is executed so true to the life, that it seems the veritable presence of the animal itself.

Dr. J. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters are a purely Vegetable preparation, made chiefly from the native herbs tound on the lower ranges of the Sierra Nevada mountains of California, the medicinal promountains of Californis, the medicinal proporties of which are extracted therefrom without the use of Alcohol. The question is almost daily asked, "What is the cause of the unparalleled success of Viregain Barrens?" Our masver is, that they fremove the cause of disease, and the patient recovers his health. They are the great blood purifier and a life-giving principle, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the world has a medicine been compounded possessing the remarkable qualities of Viregain Barrense in healing the sick of every disease man is heir to. They are a gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, relieving Congestion or Instammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs, in Bilious Diseases.

If men will enjoy good health, lot them use VINEGAR BITTERS as a medicine, and avoid the use of alcoholic stimulants and avoid the man in every form.
