Report of Special Committee
Mr. J. W. Flavelle's Statement and Reply.

Your committee to make was delegated the duty of interviewing Mr. J.
W. Flavelle, of the Dominion Brewery, in connection with the alleged violation of the law in respect of the employment of children in the factory.

Mr. Flavelle's statement was as follows:—I am a member of the Dominion Brewery Company, and I am the manager of the factory located at the corner of Yonge and Denison streets.

I understand that you were delegated to make a report on the alleged violation of the law in respect of the employment of children in the factory. I am pleased to state that the factory is in full compliance with the law in this respect.

Before replying to your report, I would like to state that the factory is in full compliance
with the law in this respect.

The only matter which was presented to me was a scale of wages which had been submitted to me by the company. I am sorry to say that I am unable to accept this scale of wages.

I am sorry to say that I am unable to accept this scale of wages. I am sorry to say that I am unable to accept
this scale of wages.

I am sorry to say that I am
unable to accept this scale of
that I am unable to accept
this scale of wages.

The strike occurred during my absence in England. On my return I found that the factory was in a state of anarchy.

Your demand comes to me, therefore, at a time when there is no trouble between the Dominion Brewery Company and its employees.

I am sorry to say that I am
that I am unable to accept
this scale of wages.

I am sorry to say that I am
that I am unable to accept

THE GLORIOUS DAY.
Hurray! For the hands that They will whither we let them or not,
They have on hand
Will shake itself up and down the long,
No use to say
We will give the freemarker the right
It will take it anyhow
The third of July?
The great four p's Hurray!
When everything is in pain
The day we celebrate Early and late
Also the day before
And how?
Through the day after We pay every effort
In the sky
And don't look up
Towards the stars and the light
The hand
If you have carefully you may find
A glorious day.

But it is only the hand Showing up the city hall
Or taking a part
Of a lecture shop
They don't stop Hurray! For American boys they say
Hurray! For American boys they say
We looked the British once or twice
And don't look up
Towards the stars and the light
The hand
If you have carefully you may find
A glorious day.

"Old man Sigbee is the stingiest man alive."
"How do you prove it?"
"He is tickled to death because he is bathshowered and does not have to pay the barber to cut his hair."
"Glittering Success."
"I know, Clarence would make his mark in the world."
"What is he doing?"
"He writes that book keeping seems

Our condition
Hope we won't die.

Needed Every Resource.
"Why doesn't Jiggs, the humorist, get married?"
"He fears that he might not be able to use the mother-in-law joke so freely."
A Sober Truth.
"I never could see anything in the mother-in-law joke."
"She is no joke."

No Credit to Him.
"The hundredth year was made with And he was feeling well."
The people came and asked him why,
But, please, he couldn't tell.

Wanted to Get it.
"Didn't you see that sign, 'No Shooting on This Place'?" demanded the proprietor of the man with the gun.
"I ain't shooting," replied the humorist.
"I am just trying to score the game off into the road, where I can get it!"

FERT PARAGRAPHS.
