SUMMER CLEARANCE SALE.

Blue Serge Suits at Half-Price.

Surely we do not need to tell you of the popularity and durability of Blue Serge to arouse your interest. Neither need we say that the price is low at $750. These statements should convince you of the value of the suits. They are all-wool, fast color, carefully cut, well made and lined with the best of trimmings. Made by the Campbell Co., whose name is a synonym for reliability. Regular prices, $15, $16, $17 and $18.50; now, to clear the

There was but a small attendance at the Shamrock grounds last evening when the Franklins defeated the leadwhen the Franklins defeated the leaders in the city league race. The game a miserable exhibition of base ball, but was interesting inasmuch as the result has a big bearing on the result of the league series. The two teams will meet again this afternoon, and if the Franklins win it will put them in the lead in the league race. The Port-lands were not at their best last evenlands were not at their best last evening, Friars, Malcolm and Jim McLeod being absent. Beth McLeod, Jim's brother, was behind the plate and made a favorable impression, but things did not seem to go right and the Franklins, by playing a clean, steady game, easily won from the leaders. Dureen was in the box and pitched splendid ball. He was steady at all times, effective at critical points.

At Camp Sussex yesterday there took place a battle which, save for the fact that it was bloodless, had all time finale to the military operations which for the past two weeks have been carried on by New Brunswick's soldiery.

The battle resulted in the capture of fight and how it was to be carried out.

An invading army (designated as the blue force) was supposed to have arrived at Apohaqui its object being to seize the Intercolonial railway at Monoton and so cut off railway transport between the maritime provinces, and the remainder of Canada. It had passed up the Bay of Fundy in the fog, landed at St. Martins, and after seizing the Central railway at that point had cut and rendered completely useless the telephone line between St.
Martins and Hampton. The army then proceeded to Hampton by the Central railway, and from Hampton to have arrived at Apohaqui its object being to seize the Intercolonial railway at Monoton and so cut off railway transport between the maritime provinces, and the remainder of Canada. It had passed up the Bay of Fundy in the second class and steerage passengers, making a total of 21,580 souls.

In 1902-1903 the second class and steerage passengers from Halifax were ticketed as follows: To western Canada, 12,758; to U. S. points, 2,918.

At five o'clock in the morning Col.
McLean's party left camp and marched to Ferguson's farm, about two miles above Apohapui, where they turned and made plans for invading the camp.
About two hours later Col. Campbell placed outposts below the town, which extended down some distance. Scouts scoured the fields and woods on al-
