EXCITED OVER QUARREL; GIRL'S BROTHER FELL DEAD AT HER FEET

UXBRIDGE, Mass., Aug. 6.—Excitement over a quarrel between his father and sister, which resulted in the death of the young man, was the subject of a story told by Dr. Baker, medical examiner of Worcester county, who conducted it, stated that the young man's death resulted, he was of the opinion shortly after he had fainted. There was absolutely no evidence of foul play, he said.

Grace Vance, the sister of young Vance, was standing in front of her home late last night, when her father John Vance, came to the front door and ordered Goldthwaite, who was talking with his daughter, to leave his yard. Goldthwaite, it is stated, refused to move, and blows were about to be struck, when Edward, who heard the commotion outside, came running out of the house. He rushed up to the trio mumbled incoherently about striking an old man. In another instant he had thrown his arms into the air and sank

Several weeks ago an Italian fortune teller arrived in the city to do business. He was asked to pay a license, and rather than part with $7.50 he left the city. He returned yesterday, however, and unfortunately made his first public appearance opposite City Hall. It is needless to say that he again was requested to make a deposit into the city's treasury, and this time he agreed to do so.

A BUSY DAY IN POLICE COURT; FRANCIS CASE UP

There were four men on the police bench this morning, one of the number Frank Hopper was only out of the cells about three hours yesterday when he was arrested again for drunkenness and was fined $3 or two months.

Guy Davis took the name of God in vain on Charlotte street early this morning and was fined $3.

David Hennessy charged with drunkenness, fined $8 or two months in jail. The second charge of resisting and assaulting a policeman in the discharge of his duty was treated by the court as a most serious offense. The magistrate said he had made inquiry and told Hennessy that it was fortunate for him that the policeman who arrested him was not quick tempered or he might have used his baton on him. He told Hennessy that he had a bad record and had been in jail far too often. He had escaped long terms of imprisonment in both the police, supreme and county courts. He had promised to stop drinking but then drank two days. Hennessy was then fined $3 or two months in jail for being drunk and $4 or 8 months for resisting the police. In all 12 or 10 months in jail with hard labor.

The magistrate said that there were two other complaints against the prisoner.

After Hennessy was sentenced he said, "Thank you and informed the court that he had only been drunk two days in three weeks and that it was torture in the cells for him when he threw the tin of water down."

Peter Dingham when called on jumped into court having cut his foot badly while attempting to escape from the chain gang yesterday. He pleaded guilty to escaping, and said he done so because he wanted to get away and do better. He was remanded to jail for sentence.

Two drunks were fined $3 or two months' jail each.

The case against Mrs. John Brady (nee) Minnie Ferrish, for stealing $300 from Wm. Lounsbury and John Francis for having stolen money knowing the same to be stolen, was taken up.

Wm. Lounsbury was called and said that when he left Bath, Me., he had $425 in American money, the denomination of the money was mostly ten and twenty dollar bills. Witness related his experience in the Sheffield street house with Mamie Ferrish as he had previously given in court. He said the Ferrish woman offered him $400 if he would say nothing about it. He was willing to do so but the matter was in the hands of the police.

Witness also said he saw Jack Francis in the house when the arrest of Mamie Ferrish was made. Mary Deegan told him that the Ferrish woman had stolen his money and it had not been the first money that she had stolen.

Detive Killen produced a pocketbook and some papers that he recognized as his, also a number of American ten dollar bills and a five dollar gold piece which he said was similar to the money that was stolen from him.

Lounsbury on cross-examination by Mr. Mullin said he was 36 years of age, was married, but was not now living with his wife.

Thomas Williams, a boot black, was the next witness, and said that he met Jack Francis and Francis asked him to see if he could trust him, and they went into the outdoor and showed witness a pocketbook and a roll of money. Witness asked him where he got it and he said never mind. Francis then asked witness if he wanted to go away with him, and witness after some hesitation decided to go. They came up town and entered Gannett's barroom on the King Square. Francis counted out the money and gave Gannett a piece of gold. They afterwards met Willie Burns on Charlotte street and Francis asked Burns to go away with him, and after some hesitation Burns decided to go. Francis said that they would go to Amherst and Halifax. Francis afterwards went into Gannett's bar to get the money he had left there Burns told Bessie Hope to pack her trunk and Francis was to take her along also Bessie was to take the train in the city and the other three walked to Goldbrook to take the train, but found that the train didn't stop there. They returned to the city. They then met Pete Williams who was a witness to one side and informed him that there had been some money stolen and advised him not to go with Francis. Francis had said he found the money and gave witness $3. Witness returned the money and did not take the trip to Halifax. Witness identified the Lounsbury pocketbook and some papers as the ones that Francis had shown him on Duke street on the Wednesday evening of the robbery. He threw the papers away and witness got the papers there yesterday for Detective Killen. As far as the witness could recollect Francis had over $300.

Pete Williams testified that he heard that some money had been stolen and told Tom Williams about it. Tom gave witness eight dollars and he gave it to Detective Killen. He also went to Hope's pocketbook and found the Lounsbury pocketbook for him.

Robert Gannett, the proprietor of a King Square bar, testified that Francis called at his place on Wednesday evening last and requested witness to take care of the money for him, there was over $300 in the roll, and among the amount was a five dollar gold piece. He identified the money in court as similar to the money that he had been holding for Francis. Francis gave him the five dollar gold piece as a present. It did not occur to witness to notify the police about Francis having such a large amount of money with him.

Wm. Burns testified that last Wednesday he met Francis and Tom Williams, and Francis asked him to go to Amherst and witness consented. Francis gave witness three dollars to give to Bessie Hope. He asked Bessie if she wanted to go and he said she wanted to go. Bessie went to pack the trunk and the three men went out the road. Near the one mile house Francis gave a white man something out of his hand. Francis bought three bottles of liquor in the three mile house. Jack Francis afterwards told him that he had been blamed for stealing the money. Witness got the three dollars from Bessie Hope and returned the money to Francis.

Bessie Hope, a young colored girl, gave evidence that Francis offered to pay her way to Amherst. She wanted to go to Amherst because she had left a dress suit case in Amherst on a previous visit and she wished to go to Amherst, but on learning that the money was stolen she returned the ticket and money.

The case was adjourned until Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

WELLAND FIRE DID MUCH DAMAGE

Punctured G's Main Caused Big Blaze Which Destroyed Church and Wrecked Street Roller

(Special to the Star)

WELLAND, Ont., Aug. 7.—Welland suffered an unusual disaster last evening. Destruction first of a road roller worth $3,500 and subsequently of the Methodist church at a loss of about $15,000, came as a result of a gas main being near the surface of the ground. Two men suffered serious injuries and the town was cut off from the gas supply.

Wm. Phillips, who operates the road roller was turning the huge machine to the roadside preparatory to putting his day's work at six o'clock when one of the caulkers on the wheel punctured a six-inch gas main just as he closed the throttle. The escaping gas leaked from the firebox and in a moment the flames sprang up with a roar that could be heard for miles. Phillips was thrown several feet when the roller was sent to the ground. The flesh came from his hands and face and all the hair was burned from his head. Nothing could be done to save the road roller for the flames shot many feet in the air and the fire was so hot that in one moment the street was half a block. The gas main is the largest in town, bringing the supply from the Rumburgers and the Crowland. Men were sent to the air line three miles distant to close off the pipe and about 6:30 the flames quieted down. It was a complete wreck, all the parts being melted.

A few minutes after seven fire broke out in the Methodist church just across the street. It is thought from the roller. The building was destroyed. There is $5,000 insurance.

IRISH TENANTS BILL

PASSED SECOND READING

LONDON, Aug. 6.—After a long and uninteresting debate, in which the leaders of the opposition indicated their intention of amending the measure in committee, the evicted Irish tenants' bill passed its second reading in the House of Lords today.

A dramatic incident of the debate was the appearance of Lord Clon-Rickards, the most hated landlord in Ireland, who, with bent and shrunken frame, outstretched shriveled fingers, and in a voice now shrill, now husky with passion, denounced the bill in unmeasured terms as the "apotheosis of robbery." Every member of the house turned to watch the speaker, but his speech was received with chilly silence.
