The salmon fishing is about over in the harbor and dealers say the past season has been an average one.

Robert K. Smith, of the West End, fell out of a shell at Bay Shore last evening. People along the shore saw the young man clinging to the overturned shell and went to his rescue.

Not a cent's worth of old goods met season. That's why our clearance prices are so extremely low. We are going to make a clean sweep of all summer goods now and we have installed prices that make our offerings attractive. C. E. Pigeon.

A large crowd was attracted to North Market street last night when the glass in Sperdake's pool room was broken. There was some trouble between a couple of North End men and the Greek attendants and in the mix-up the glass was smashed. The Greeks claim that some person broke the glass with a stone.

Some of the street cars ran down King street yesterday afternoon with a little more speed than that anticipated. The cause of the excess speed was that the car used in macadamizing the road had got on the tracks causing the car wheels to slide over them. No damage resulted, however.

The Calvin Austin arrived this morning, bringing six hundred and thirty passengers, many of whom are provincial people on their way home to spend vacations. A good run was made under the most perfect climatic conditions. Many of the passengers spent the night in steamer chairs on deck.

In White's restaurant last evening Harry O. Warwick was the host at a dinner tendered to the members of the H. Warwick. The supper was given in view of a happy event which will take place on Wednesday next, when Mr. Warwick will be united in marriage to Miss Nina Belyea, daughter of J. F. Belyea of that place. An impromptu programme was effectively executed, and a very enjoyable evening was spent. The party broke up about midnight.

On Saturday last School Inspector William McLean was presented with a testimonial from the Board of School Trustees. At the last meeting of the board, a committee was appointed to draw up the testimonial, to be presented to him on account of his resignation from the teaching staff which was due to his appointment as school inspector.

The remains of Burton McClary, who accidentally shot himself at Jones Creek on Saturday morning were interred yesterday at Kingston. A preliminary examination into the affair was conducted by the coroner, being that the unfortunate man had been shot by a Canadian who had met his death by the explosion of his gun, which was accidentally fired while he was reaching for it from the canoe in which he was.

Rev. Dr. W. E. McIntyre will attend the Maritime Baptist convention to be held in Halifax. The subject of Canadian Union will be considered and the convention will also appoint a committee to act with a similar one from the N. B. Association to consider the proposal for the amalgamation of home mission interests in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick. At the time the question was brought up at the association meeting in Gibson there was a good deal of difference of opinion expressed on the subject. It was finally decided to appoint a committee to act with a committee from the convention to bring in a report next year.

THE BISHOP'S PICNIC HELD AT TORRYBURN

Ideal Weather for the Big Outing

Seven Hundred Boys and Girls in This Morning's Parade—Having a Good
Time on the Grounds

The season's banner event—the Bishop's picnic—is being held today at Torryburn, and thousands left by train to enjoy the day. Ideal picnic weather prevailed and indications point to the day surpassing any previously held.

Of course the children's procession was the most interesting feature of the morning. The little ones presented a very attractive appearance and the marching was highly creditable. There were about seven hundred boys and girls in line. The grade eight and nine girls were there, as well as the four year old tot. The girls were attired in white, while the boys all wore their best Sunday suits.

The procession itself was one of the largest of its kind ever seen in St. John. Assembling at St. Malachi's and St. Joseph's halls respectively, the boys and girls secured their tickets from the teachers. Headed by the City Cornet Band the procession left the halls at 9:30 o'clock. The route of march was: Sydney, King Square, Charlotte, King, Dock and Mill to the Union Depot.

All along the route hundreds of persons lined the streets. The first train departed for Torryburn at 10 o'clock, carrying the children, band, and a number of adults. Upon arrival at the grounds the picnicers found everything in readiness for their reception. Tennis had been erected and the merry-go-round and swings were soon in full operation.

The second train left for Torryburn at 12:30 o'clock, carrying several hundred adults. The last train left at 2:30 o'clock and every available space was taken.

Dinner was served on the grounds by an efficient corps of ladies. His Lordship Bishop Casey drove over the route of march with the procession this morning. Rev. A. W. Methuen was working vigorously in the interests of the picnic. He was assisted in directing the procession this morning by Rev. Michael O'Brien, Rev. William Duke, Rev. D. S. O'Keefe and Daniel O'Leary.

MANY CHANGES IN NEWSPAPER STAFFS

The Boys Hardly Know Where They are Living

All the Papers Have New Men, or Have Reorganized Their Forces—
Stronger Than Ever

There have been so many changes in the staffs of the various city newspapers during the past few months, that the boys have almost to stop and think where they will find each other, or even where they are themselves. When the Standard resumed operations some months ago, it included in its writing staff, Mr. O. L. Barbour, formerly of the Sun, Mr. E. H. Howard, of the Globe, C. W. Clarke, of the Sun, and Messrs. Conlon and Cummins previously unattached. The vacancies in the Sun staff were filled by the engagement of Gerald Huxford and "Ben" Bolt.

Later Harry Lanney of the Globe star accepted a position with the Montreal Star. Then the strike on the Standard came, which resulted in the entire force throwing up their jobs.

During the past week or two, there has been an almost entire reorganization. The Standard has, in Mr. Barbour's place, Rupert Walker, formerly one of the reporting staff on the Telegraph, A. D. Merkel, formerly of the Sun, Stanley Smith, for sometime on the Telegraph, but lately editor of the Chatham Commercial, Mr. O'Connor, a new man, and Cecil Scott, formerly of the Sun.

There has been somewhat of a reorganization in the Telegraph as well. Mr. Frank McCafferty, who for a number of years has so capably filled the position of city editor, has transferred to the Times, where he assumes the position of news editor. Other new men on the Times are Jas. Dever, who joined four or five weeks ago, and Wm. McNulty, who has been a member of the staff for some four or five months.

McCafferty's place on the Telegraph has been taken by O. L. Barbour, while the Telegraph writing staff has also been strengthened by the transfer of A. E. McGinley and Stan Taylor, of the Times, and includes as well George Scott and Harold Belyea.

In the Sun office C. W. Clarke has returned to his first love, "Sammy" Howard has also associated himself with this paper, and Mr. Conlon, a light former member of the Standard, with the "Ben" Bolt left yesterday for Montreal where he is engaged in the Herald office. Gerald Hughes, who had been on the Sun for the past few months has transferred to the Star, joining Messrs. Ervin, Robb and McDade in turning out the best evening paper in St. John.

The Globe has engaged Mr. Macaulay, a U. N. B. man. And now you know about as much of the gang as they do themselves. What's more they can play base ball.

MISS MARY CAPLES WINS THE ALUMNAE MEDAL

St. Vincent's Valdeiorian Captures First Place Among the Graduates

The results of the matriculation examinations, which were made public yesterday, show that Miss Mary Caples captures the alumnae gold medal for the highest standing among the St. Vincent graduates. Miss Caples made a very creditable showing, figuring in the first division. She was the valdeiorian at the St. Vincent's High School exercises.

As previously announced Miss Rosalie Waterman, of the St. John High School, valdeiorian led the St. John county valdeiorians in the matriculation papers.

SPRINKLER SYSTEM SAVED THE CORNWALL MILL

Fire in the Dry Room, Early This Morning,
Put Out Without the Department's Help.

About 4:15 o'clock this morning an alarm was sent in from box 231 for a fire in the dry room of the Cornwall Mill on Winter street. The fire was a large quantity of cotton, and had gained considerable headway before it was discovered. When the heat was sufficient, the patent sprinklers got in their work and numerous streams of water were poured on the flames. With another stream from the mill pump the fire was soon under control. The department responded promptly but their services were hardly needed as the fire was put out by the mill employees. The building and contents are fully insured.

ADVANCE SHOWING OF MEN'S SUITS FOR FALL

New Models—Dressy
Cloths—Latest Coloring
All the Late and Snappy
Styles Are On Display

Green is the predominating shade and it is brought out strongly in many cloths, while in others will be found but a tinge of the ruling color. Browns and greys will also find favor with many.

The materials are, in the main, soft finished fabrics, such as Saxony, Cheviots, Tweeds, with a sprinkling of suits in Worsteds.

The patterns are hair line stripes and broad stripes, in a great number of pretty weaves.

Coats are cut single breasted in two, three and four button models, quite long, with lapels in a variety of lengths, and all generously broad. Some coats have centre vent, many with fancy cuffs and pocket flaps, others perfectly plain. A few coats are trimmed with snuffed pearl buttons.

Trousers are made snug at waist and fairly full in hips and thighs, tapering at bottom. Quite a few trousers have belt strap and pocket flap.

Suits cannot be made better or to fit more perfectly than these we have to show you. The most correctly fashioned, and the choicest suits of the coming season are here awaiting your critical inspection.
