Britain's War Secretary on the South

Will Fight the Boers to a Finish on Their Own Plan of Action.

OTTAWA, Nov. 13.-A cable to the militia department from South Africa states that Trooper William Volans whose mother lives in Portland, Ore gon, was severely wounded Nov. 4 at Witkomst, and that Trooper John D. Ludgate, whose mother resides at Whitegate, Ontario, was accidentally seriously wounded in the leg at Vet river, Nov. 7th. Both belonged to the an officer in Western Canada ha offered the militia department to raise a squadron of 178 cavalrymen as a third contingent for service in South Africa. He suggests that the squadron be horsed in South Africa. LONDON, Nov. 13 .- Mr. Brodrick, the British war secretary, speaking tonight at a banquet given in London in his honor by the City Carlton Club, declared that the Boers were hiding their tracks by murdering Kaffirs behind them. "Lord Kitchener wired today," he continued, "that the coldplooded murder of natives, had become frequent of late, and that two dead natives, their hands tied behind their backs, were found Nov. 10 at the bottom of a mine shaft."

Later in his speech Mr. Brodrick said Great Britain now had 42,000 Boers in custody in the concentration camps and on various islands, and that 11,000 more had been killed or wounded had left the country on parole. He added that he believed the number of Boers now in the field was about 10,-

"The country has set its teeth and intends to go through the process of wearing down," he exclaimed. "We intend to provide Lord Kitchener with fresh troops to replace the tired ones. Only today a certain colony made an offer to help us."

Mr. Brodrick said he was sorry anything had happened to affect the career of Sir Redvers Buller, and he assured the company that the deafness of Sir Evelyn Wood was not a bar to the work that officer had to do as commander of an army corps.

Mr. Brodrick explained that four battalions and two cavalry regiments would be drawn from India for service

LORD ROSEBERY

Sees All Around General Apathy and reply has been received. Impotence.

LONDON, Nov. 14.—Lord Rosebery, speaking tonight in Edinburgh, said he did not intend again to try to secure a reform of the house of lords, for this was not a task for an individual, but one needing a national impulse.

"I would like to see," he continued, "an experiment for a year of a government.

"an experiment for a year of a gov-ernment formed entirely of business men, such, for example, as Mr. Carne-gie and Sir Thomas Lipton, instead of

"I would ask you, are we getting our money's worth for the money spent? We are beginning to learn the lesson that great measures must in future be carried more by the harmony of contending parties or by the agreement of elligerent politicians than by the repowering ascendancy of any one faction in the country."

Continuing, the speaker said he blamed no party and blamed no government, but saw around him ques-tions demanding solution and a general apathy and impotence to deal with m. Political parties, he said, must on occasions be willing to sink their differences and forget who was in power, and who would get credit for the carrying out of measures if they wished those measures to be carried

MISS STONE " " SF

BOSTON, Nov. 13.—The executive officers of the American board of foreign missions concerning the case of Miss Ellen M. Stone issued a statement today intended to be corrective of erroneous reports that have been widely circulated relative to the conditions attending her capture by the brigands. This statement affirms that Miss Yone was in pursuit of her customary duties as a missionary when she was captured. The route over which she was travelling is one which is continuously used by missionaries and without reason for apprehending any special danger. No warning was given to Miss Stone as to this particular journey, either by the Turkish or Bulgarian authorities. She had the usual escort of 18 or 20 people, and was accustomed to carry with her a Turkish teskre or permit to travel. One of the missionaries acquainted with the region states that the route Miss Stone took was the safest of any in that region. The statement further affirms that there is no ground whatever for criticizing Miss Stone for want of precaution in making the journey.

WASHINGTON. Nov. 12.—Such official information as comes to the state department from Sofia and Constantinople is confirmatory of the press reports of Dr. Dickinson's negotiations with the Bulgarian government from Sofia and Constantinople is confirmation with the Bulgarian government from Sofia and Constantinople is confirmation as stone's release by negotiations, with the brigands without interference by the Bulgarian government will be successful. It is apprehended, however, that through his declination to permit the Bulgarian government from any legal liability for money paid over as ransom to secure Miss Stone's release.

SOFIA, Nov. 13 (or fictitious).—A Greek priest yesterday introduced himself with the statement that he had met a Turkish officer with Miss Stone and Madame Tsilka near Riumaiabala. He added that the women asked him to tell people that he had seen them. This fiction is three weeks old.

He told the president that next to Great Britain and Germany, the trade of Canada with the United States represented more in money to the manufacturers and producers of the United States than that of any other country, and that unless something was done to further that trade in the way of rediprocal concessions, all of it might be endangered. The president said that he did not need to be reminded of the importance of a question to which he had given much thought and attention. He said, however, that he did not think it proper for him to express a preference for reciprocity with one particular country; that the whole subject was being cahvassed and he hoped that something would be done at the approaching session of congress. He added that the organizations represented could do much by bringing influence to bear upon their representatives in congress.
