

SNELL PAYS HONOR TO ONE OF ITS RETURNED HEROES

Gnr. Lyons Presented With a Signet Ring and Watch Fob as a Token of Appreciation.

Snell, N. B., May 21.—Gunner Harold H. Lyons was given a warm reception on Monday evening, when forty friends assembled at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Brown to welcome the returned hero. A most enjoyable time was spent in games and music. During the evening Gnr. Lyons was presented with a handsome signet ring and watch fob as a token of appreciation for his noble services. Mr. W. I. Fenton made the presentation with a very pleasing address. Gnr. Lyons thanked the donors for their kindness. Refreshments were served and the party dispersed after singing the National Anthem.

Gnr. Lyons was one of our youngest heroes. When scarcely sixteen years of age he enlisted in the 1st Stago Battery in July, 1915, and reached the firing line in November. He went through some of the greatest engagements, being at the Somme in 1916 also on the Ypres salient, Vimy Ridge, Passchendaele, etc. He was twice wounded, receiving his last wound just previous to the signing of the armistice and was sent to the hospital at Orpington, England, where he remained some weeks before returning to his homeland.

London, May 30.—The committee of deputies of British Jews and the Anglo-Jewish association have sent a telegram to the Council of Four expressing, on behalf of English Jews, "horror at the continuance of the cruel pogroms against the Jews in Poland." The message urges the Allied and Associated leaders at the conference to urge their best endeavors to put an end to the murders and outrages and punish the offenders.

THE BOLSHEVIKI COMMITTED MANY ATROCITIES AT RIGA

Before They Retired They Shot Thirty Persons in the Central Prison—Riga Captured With Slight Fighting.

Paris, May 30.—The Bolsheviks, before they retired from Riga, shot thirty persons in the central prison there, according to official reports received by the American peace delegates. The anti-Bolshevik troops captured Riga with slight fighting, surprising the Bolsheviks, who fled hastily.

All the stores and homes of the well-to-do were pillaged by the Bolsheviks and most of the bourgeois were compelled to leave the city before it fell. The material damage to the city was slight. In the various prisons sixteen hundred hostages were found. The reports describe them as being in a state of unspeakable misery and starvation when they were released.

MARSHAL HAIG TO CHURCHMEN

Urges United National Church to Develop the Spirit of Brotherhood Born of the War.

London, May 30.—(Reuters).—Field Marshal Haig and General Horne visited the Church of Scotland General Assembly. They were received by a guard of honor of chaplains. Addressing the assembly, Sir Douglas Haig urged the establishment of a general staff for the Christian churches of the empire analogous to the Imperial General Staff in the military organization of the empire, as the only means of securing general peace. He said it was to develop the spirit of brotherhood born of the war for which the active help of a vigorous national church was necessary. A beginning should be made by forming a united national church of Great Britain after which a great imperial church should be formed to maintain the determination of the people of the empire.

Field Marshal Haig rejoiced in the movement for Presbyterian reunion in Scotland. What Scotland hoped to gain for herself, he said, she must help to gain for the whole empire.

NAVAL SEAPLANE N C-4 FAILED TO REACH PLYMOUTH

Was Forced to Descend Early in Its Attempt Friday—Will Try Again Today.

Washington, May 30.—The American naval seaplane N. C-4 after being forced to descend early today in the Montego river, about one hundred miles up the coast from Lisbon, was able to resume its flight at 9.38 a.m. (Washington time), and succeeded in reaching Ferrol, a Portuguese port about 250 miles from Lisbon. This information was received late today by the Navy Department and it was presumed that N. C-4 would leave for Plymouth, England tomorrow.

HAWKER PUTS HIMSELF RIGHT

His Remarks, Taken up by the American Press, Were Not Intended as Criticising the U. S. Navy Flights.

London, May 30.—Harry G. Hawker, in an interview in the Evening Globe regarding American press comments on the speech he made at a luncheon to newspaper men, Wednesday, said: "The Americans misunderstood my point. I was not criticizing their attempt. It is impossible to compare the two flights. We did not wish to have battleships supplied by the government along the route."

"My remarks were intended for those who were criticizing the government for not supplying them. I wish the Americans the very best of luck. Their flights have been beautifully organized jobs from beginning to end."

"I am very sorry, indeed, that the American press has misunderstood me. Nothing was farther from my mind than to criticize the Americans."

YALE STUDENTS MOBBED BY CROWD OF RETURNED MEN

Students Said to Have Made Some Unkind Remarks During a Parade of Soldiers and Sailors.

New Haven, Conn., May 27.—A mob of several hundred men, largely recently discharged soldiers and sailors, attempted a concerted attack on the Yale University campus tonight. Police details succeeded in preventing an early invasion of the campus but further trouble is looked for. Two students are reported as being badly beaten up near the Yale grounds. The affair grew out of slighting remarks made by some persons near the campus Saturday last during a welcome home parade of the veterans, who claim that the perpetrators were Yale men.

At 9.45 it seemed almost certain that the mob would get out of control of the police. At that time augmented numbers of rioters were reported as smashing windows of Yale buildings and threatening more severe damage. Several students at that time, caught off the campus, had been mobbed. Virtually every policeman in the city had been mobilized and sent to the campus area.

THE UNITED STATES MAY BE EMBROILED

Mexican Troops Preparing to Pass Through Arizona Without U. S. Permission.

Washington, May 30.—Reports from the border that Mexican federal troops mobilizing at Epulme, Sonora, for shipment in bond through Arizona, on route to Juarez, gave officials here little concern. It was believed here the mobilization began before the Mexican government could get word to the commanding officer that the state department had withheld, for the present, permission for the troops to pass through American territory.

Officials said the American government officials on the border would not permit the Mexicans to cross the line without instructions from Washington, regardless of the fact that the Acting Governor of Arizona had not withdrawn his permission for the Mexicans to pass through that state.

GENTLEMEN YOU MUST SIGN!

London, May 30.—Premier Lloyd George, in his speech to the Welsh division at Amiens last Sunday, according to the South Wales Daily News:

"We say to the Germans: 'Gentlemen, you must sign. If you don't do so at Versailles, you shall do so in Berlin. We are not going to give way.'"

RHINELAND STATUS NOT DEFINITE

Some Question as to Whether it Will be Declared an Independent Republic.

Frankfurt, Thursday, May 29 (by The A. P.).—Although a semi-official announcement was made here yesterday that the Rhineland was to be declared an independent republic, advice today from Coblenz say the step has not yet been taken. The leaders of the Communist party, who were supposed to be in favor of separation, are said to be opposing it, unless the German national assembly and the Prussian Diet deliberately approve of the plan and have it incorporated in the peace treaty.

The Compliment Paid the Hot Spot Chalmers by other Makers

SO successful has been the public response to the Hot Spot feature of the Chalmers and so readily and consistently has this device made good that imitations are now beginning to appear on other cars.

"Yes, we too have a Hot Spot device on our car," is a comment to be heard daily in other motor establishments.

There are two vital weaknesses in the imitations. First, the Hot Spot is not efficient without the Ram's-horn. Second, the Ram's-horn is not a device that can be "fitted to" any motor. (The motor must be designed to fit the Ram's-horn.)

It is the proper co-ordination of all three—the Hot Spot, the Ram's-horn and the Cylinder block—that has made Chalmers one of the few great cars of the world.

It is always a compliment to be imitated. None greater can be paid. But you will be full of compliments for the present day Chalmers after you've turned the thousand-mile mark in one.

A Valuable Colored Map — OF — The New Germany

One of the most interesting features in the May 31st issue of The Literary Digest is a full-page colored Map showing the new Germany as it will be after the Peace Treaty is signed, and the old Germany as it was before the war. This map will prove invaluable as a present and future source of information and can be cut out and inserted in your encyclopedia, atlas, history, or other reference volume, where it will always be handy as a means of settling doubtful points.

There is a wide selection of authoritative, timely, and very interesting news-articles included in this week's "Digest," among which are:

A WORD ABOUT THE EDITORS OF "THE DIGEST"

The editors of most publications come into personal touch with the reading public through special articles, editorials, and so forth, in which they voice their individual views. Not so with THE LITERARY DIGEST, whose editorial policy is strictly impersonal, not a hint of the opinions of its staff on any question appearing in its columns. Nevertheless, the editors of THE DIGEST are a very real and powerful influence in the community, because they determine the subject matter of the magazine from week to week and its mode of presentation. Always their study is to be impartial and self-effacing, yet they leave their expert mark on everything that they handle, for they are all proved experts, each in his particular field, whether it be politics, art, science, religion, letters, or what not. They give you of their best, seeking for no acclaim, but constantly striving to present for your consideration all the news in all its bearings. Their quiet work gives THE DIGEST its acknowledged unique distinction.
