SABBATH.

The Sabbath was as pleasant a day as could be desired. The Sabbath School was held at 9 A. M. There was preaching at 11 A. M. by Rev. J. F. Smith; at 3 P. M. by Rev. G. A. Hartley, and at 7 P. M. by Rev. A. Taylor. In other places the preaching was as follows:—Sussex Baptist Church, by Revs. J. McLeod and J. E. Reud; Methodist Church, by Rev. J. T. Parsons; Midland and Norton by Rev. G. W. McDonald; Newtown by Revs. F. Babcock and E. B. Gray; Moncton, by Rev. William DeWier; and South Branch by Rev. R. French. So far as we could learn these services were all well attended, some of them very largely. The attendance at the place of Conference was very large. A great many were unable to get into the Church, and an overflow meeting was held in the Hall near by, where Rev. J. Gunter preached. The good seed so widely sown will bear fruit. At the close of the evening preaching the ordinance of the Lord's Supper was administered, a very large number participating.

The other preaching meetings during the session were, Thursday evening preceding Conference, Rev. W. De Wier: Monday at 10 A. M., by Licentiate J. W. Clark; and Tuesday afternoon, by Licentiate H. Hartt.

MONDAY, Oct. 8th, 1877.

Business Session met at 9 A. M. Moderator in the Chair. Opened with singing, and prayer by Rev. E. Weyman. After roll-call the Minutes of last Session were read and approved.

Election of Moderator and Assistant Moderator resulted in the choice of Rev. T. Vanwart Moderator, and Rev. W. Kinghorn Assistant Moderator.

The retiring Moderator and his successor, on leaving and taking the Chair respectively, made appropriate remarks.
