POOR DOCUMENT

MC 2033

FROM ALL OVER THE MARITIME PROVINCES

THE BORDER TOWNS.

St. Stephen, Oct. 23—On Friday afternoon Mrs. Almon I. Teed gave a drive to her cottage at the Ledge, where a supper was served and a game of bridge enjoyed. This outing was arranged for the pleasure of Mrs. Arthur S. Burdette, who was the guest of honor. The other guests were Mrs. Hazen Grimmer, Mrs. W. F. Todd, Mrs. Henry Graham, Mrs. John E. Algar, Mrs. C. N. Vroom, Mrs. Frank Todd and Mrs. James G. S. Stevens.

Mrs. Warren Hatheway has returned to Calais where she will make her future home.

Mrs. Harold Purves most pleasantly entertained the Neighborhood Whist Club, of which she is a member, at her home on Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. Kenneth Young has been in town for a day or two this week.

Mrs. John D. Chipman has been visiting Woodstock (Ont.)

Miss Carrie Wass, who has been visiting in Halifax (N. S.), arrived in St. Stephen on Tuesday evening en route to her home at the Scotch Ridge.

A very happy wedding party gathered at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick O. Sullivan, at half past six o'clock this morning to witness the marriage of their daughter, Miss Bessie, to Mr. Harry Osborne Budd. Rev. Geo. M. Young, pastor of the Methodist church, performed the marriage ceremony. The bride looked extremely well in a stylish traveling costume of plaid cheviot, with hat to match. There were no attendants. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served, and the happy young couple left for Bath (Me.), where they will spend several days before returning to St. Stephen where they will reside. The wedding gifts were very handsome and numerous. The groom's gift to his bride was an elegant set of furs.

Mrs. Julius T. Whitlock is visiting friends in Fredericton.

Mrs. David Bruce has returned from a visit in Boston.

It was heard with much sorrow in St. Stephen on Tuesday that Georgie, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Young, who are residing in Brookline (Mass.), for the winter, was very ill with appendicitis, at the Emerson Hospital in Boston. Late news today tell she was progressing finely from an operation, and there was every hope of recovery.

Mrs. Arthur S. Burdette left on Monday for Boston en route to Alameda, California, to visit her sisters, Mrs. W. G. Talcott, and Mrs. Edgar Hitchcock, who will return with her to San Jose, Costa Rica, early in December.

Mrs. Charles F. Beard and Master Amherst Beard have returned from Houlton (Me.)

Mrs. T. H. Sprague, of Woodstock, was the guest of Mayor and Mrs. Teed last week.

On Tuesday Mrs. W. A. Clark received a letter from Hai Waei, China, from her son, Rev. Harold Clark, containing the sad news of the death of his young wife some six weeks ago. Mrs. Clark was Miss Lillian McDonald, of Doaktown, and was married in St. Stephen only last Christmas day, and started with her husband for China, where he has been stationed as a missionary from the Presbyterian Society. Great sympathy is expressed here for Mr. Clark, who left here with his young wife, so full of hope and enthusiasm in their work, only a few months ago with no thought of the sorrow that has come to him before the year ended.

WOODSTOCK

Woodstock, Oct. 23—Mrs. T. F. Sprague, Mrs. W. D. Rankin, Mrs. J. S. Creighton, Mrs. W. B. Belyea, Mrs. Welch, Miss Marion Rankin, Mrs. A. D. Holyoke, Mr. J. S. Creighton, Mr. William Dickinson, Mr. George Balmain, Mr. Hugh Harrison, Mr. A. D. Holyoke, Mr. Arthur Garden, Mr. Clarence Sprague, Mr. Norman Loane, Mr. George Mitchell, Mr. William Dalling, went to St. Stephen on Friday to play the St. Stephen golf team a return game, the result being thirty-eight up in favor of Woodstock. Several of the ladies remained over Sunday.

The body of the late Frank C. Stephenson arrived from Saskatoon on Monday, the funeral taking place that afternoon. Rev. G. D. Ireland officiated, assisted by Rev. R. G. Fulton. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Archie Cole, Roy Watt, Ira McAffee and Walter Stone.

Miss Helen Good left on Friday for Fredericton to resume her work as kindergartner, after a vist with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Comben.

Rev. J. J. McCaskill, of Fort Kent, was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Phillips last week.

Rev. G. D. Ireland and Mrs. Ireland and children returned on Saturday after a visit in Fredericton.

Miss Hester Hume was hostess at a tea on Friday afternoon, the guests being Mrs. G. W. Vanwart, Mrs. G. A. White, Mrs. J. N. W. Winslow, Mrs. G. B. Manzer, Mrs. Torrop, Mrs. J. S. Leighton, Mrs. A. G. Bailey, Mrs. White (Fraserville, Que.), Mrs. F. W. McLean, Mrs. Wm. McConnell, Mrs. W. W. Hay, Mrs. C. L. Jordan, Mrs. T. S. Duncan, Mrs. Alexander Dunbar, Miss McRoberts, Miss Burns, Miss Elizabeth Bull.

Dr. Charles M. Hay and Mrs. Hay will leave this week for Hot Springs, Arkansas, after spending the summer in town with Mr. Hugh Hay.

Mr. Hugh Wright, who has been spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Mair, left on Monday on his return trip to Vancouver (B. C.)

Mrs. L. P. Farris, of White's Cove, Queens county, is spending a few days with her father, Mr. Hugh Hay.

Hon. W. P. Jones and Mrs. Jones were visitors in St. John last week.

Mr. Percy G. Hall, of the Royal Bank, St. John, is relieving Mr. William Dickinson, manager of the local branch, who is spending his vacation in Rexton.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. White and children, of Fraserville (Que.), are guests of Mr and Mrs. G. A. White.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stevens, of Boston, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Stevens.

Mrs. J. D. Walker and son, of Millinocket (Me.), were guests of Miss B. G. Walker this week.

Mr. C. L. Tilley, of the post office department, is visiting relatives in Sussex.

Mr. Leo Scholey left on Monday for North Sydney, to which branch of the Bank of Nova Scotia he has been transferred.

Misses Jessie and Nellie Foster entertained about fifty of their young friends on Tuesday evening. Games and music occupied the evening.

Mrs. L. R. Bull, of Hawkshaw, spent a few days of last week in town.

Mr. Wendell R. Jones, of the Royal Bank staff, has entered for the Herald road race, a ten-mile cross-country run, in Montreal on Thanksgiving day.

Mr. W. Watson Allen, of St. John, was in town last week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Brite, of New York, passed through town on Wednesday after a hunting trip on the Tobique.

Miss Emma Cogswell, of Hartland, spent the latter part of the week in town with Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Watson.

Rev. G. B. McDonald, of St. John, was in town this week.

Mr. S. W. Smith, of Mount Pleasant, was in town on Wednesday.

Miss E. E. Kilburn was a visitor in St. John on Friday.

SHEDIAC.

Shediac, N. B., Oct. 24.—Rev. A. F. Burt, of Shediac Cape, left town on Wednesday of this week on a trip to Montreal.

Mr. G. Simpson, of Halifax, visited his mother, Mrs. Thos. Simpson, last week at her home, Main street, east.

Mrs. Clinton Davison, of Moncton, was the guest recently of Mrs. Woodford Avard.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Doucette visited their daughter, Mrs. Albert Steeves, at her home, Dover, on Sunday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Dustan and little son, Master Gordon, have been visiting Mrs. Dustan's parents, Rev. W. and Mrs. Penna, Methodist parsonage, during the past week.

Mrs. G. Tapley and little child, in company with Mrs. Tapley's sister, Miss Estelle McDonald, Point du Chene, returned last week from a short trip to Quebec.

Mr. R. S. Murray spent Sunday last in St. John.

Dr. and Mrs. Harley Murray, who have been enjoying a fortnight's trip to Boston and other points of interest in Massachusetts, returned home on Monday of this week.

Mr. Chas. Roberts, who has been spending some weeks in the southern States, has returned home.

Dr. Edwin Freeze spent a few days in Halifax last week.

Miss Diana Jones, of Moncton, is spending some weeks in Shediac, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Dickie.

Mrs. August Poirier, accompanied by her three little sons, left on Tuesday of this week for Philadelphia to remain during the coming winter with her parents, Capt. and Mrs. Landry.

Mrs. G. Ryan, of Moncton, has been spending a few days at the home of her brother, Mr. J. D. Weldon, Weldon House.

Mrs. C. Avard, of Sackville, is visiting Mrs. H. W. Murray, Shediac, west.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Moore, who have been visiting for the past few weeks in Campbellton, Montreal and other points of interest, returned home on Tuesday of this week.

Mrs. Sydney Dewolf, accompanied by her two little children, returned today (Thursday) to Sydney from a month's visit with her parents, Capt. and Mrs. J. Newman, "the old homestead," Shediac Cape. Mrs. Caryl Newman also accompanied her sister, Mrs. Dewolf, and will remain for the winter months in Sydney.

Miss Dysart, of Cocagne, was in town this week en route to Boston, where she intends remaining during the winter.

Mrs. Williams, of New York, accompanied by her son, Mr. B. Williams, left town recently after spending some weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Russell, Main street.

Miss Nessie Ferguson, who has been enjoying some time in New York city, was in Shediac for a few days last week en route to her home in Richibucto. While in town Miss Ferguson was the guest of Miss Gertrude Evans, Main street.

Mr. J. Walker and family, who have been occupying their summer cottage at Point du Chene during the past few months, return on Friday of this week to Moncton.

Mrs. Robert Jardine, who has been spending a fortnight at the home of Mrs. E. A. Smith, Main street East, left during the week for her home in Kingsclear. Mrs. E. J. Smith accompanied her daughter, Mrs. Jardine, upon her return and will remain for the winter as her guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Toole, of St. John, spent part of last week in Shediac, the guests of Mrs. W. B. Deacon, Main street, upon their return home from a visit to friends on P. E. Island.

Mr. R. Winters, of the Bank of Montreal, who has been enjoying a fortnight's vacation at his home in Mahone Bay (N. S.), returned to Shediac on Saturday of last week. Mr. Hall, who has been filling Mr. Winters' position in the bank during his absence left on Monday for Ontario.

Mrs. Crowther, who has been spending the past few months in town the guest of Mrs. Chas. Roberts, leaves this week for her home in the United States.

Mr. LeRoy Tait, of the Bank of Montreal, St. John, arrived home on Saturday of last week on a fortnight's holidays.

Miss Anna Doiron, who has been spending the past three months in Boston, has returned home.

One of the most delightful little social affairs of the season was given by Mrs. S. C. Charters, of Pt. du Chene, on Thursday of last week, when she was hostess at a highly recherche luncheon and enjoyable afternoon of fancy work in honor of her daughter, Miss Jay. The luncheon table at which were seated twelve guests was prettily decorated with pink and deep red chrysanthemums, and presented an extremely dainty and tempting appearance. Among the ladies present were: Miss Webster, the Misses Margaret and Annette Evans, Miss Gertrude Walker, the Misses Winnie and Laurie Steven, Miss Lena Bray, Miss Beatrice Harper, the Misses Lena and Hilda Tait, Miss Nora Allen, Miss Fannie Lyons.

Another very enjoyable social function was the evening fancy work given by the Misses Lena and Hilda Tait on Tuesday of this week, to a number of their lady friends, at their home Elm Bank. The guests present upon this occasion were Mrs. Jas. White, Miss Fannie Lyons, Mrs. McIntyre, Ottawa; the Misses Minnie and Elsie Weldon, Miss Lena Bray, Mrs. H. B. Steeves, the Misses May and Beatrice Harper, Mrs. Geo. Blakney, Mrs. Jas. Dustan, Moncton; the Misses Annette, Margaret and Gertrude Evans, Miss Webster, Miss Joy Charters, Mrs. Geo. Ross, Mrs. A. J. Webster, Miss J. McDougall, Miss Minnie Howie, Mrs. A. J. Tait, Miss Alice Burnyeat, Miss Bessie Lawton.

Mr. W. R. Williams, owing to illness is confined to his residence, Calder street.

Mr. and Mrs. Burley of Ontario, who have been spending some time in Moncton, are at present guests at the Weldon.

ST. STEPHEN.

St. Stephen, Oct. 28—Rev. R. G. Fulton, of Woodstock, grand master of the Orange Association of New Brunswick, will, on Sunday morning next, occupy the pulpit of the Methodist church here. The Orangemen of this town and the members of other lodges in this vicinity will attend the Methodist church at that service, and Rev. Mr. Fulton will speak to them. In the evening Mr. Fulton will also occupy the pulpit of the same church.

Rev. G. M. Young, the pastor of the church, will go to Woodstock on Saturday and occupy Mr. Fulton's church at Woodstock, where he will preach the annual educational sermon.

Mrs. Frank Ross and son Kenneth have gone to Boston for a week or ten days.

Mrs. G. T. Baskin is visiting friends in Sussex.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry O. Budd have returned and are occupying their house at West End.

The funeral of the late Fred. B. Hill, of Calais, will take place this afternoon.

Richard Opie Bell, the superintendent of the Seamen's Mission at Montreal, will assist Rev. G. M. Young in conducting special services here in January.

Colonel and Mrs. J. D. Chipman arrived from Montreal on Friday.

Miss Helen Barker, of St. John, who has been a guest at the Methodist parsonage, returned home by C. P. R. today.

SACKVILLE.

Sackville, Oct. 23.—Mrs. Carter, of Moncton, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Leaman Dixon, Squire street.

Mrs Duncan McEachern. of River Hebert (N. S.) is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Thos. Lund, Bridge street.

Mr. Percy Huestis, of Summerside (P. E. I.), has accepted a position in the drug store of H. H. Woodworth, Medical Hall.

The friends of Mr. Walter Cahill are glad to see him around again after being confined to his residence for several weeks.

Miss Gertrude Hamilton, of the Ladies' College, spent Sunday with her aunt, Mrs. James Wheaton, of Upper Sackville.

Mr. William Holland, a well known resident of Melrose, is dead. He is survived by a widow and two children.

Mrs. Herbert Wood and her mother, Mrs. Sumner, of Moncton, left recently on a trip to Toronto.

Mrs. A. C. Wells was in town yesterday the guest of Mr. P. Trueman. Mrs. Wells will proceed to St. John tomorrow, where she will spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. McCully.

Mrs. Fred Donkin was the guest recently of Mrs. Leaman Dixon, Squire street.

Mrs. H. G. Fawcett, Mrs. W. Best, Mrs. Arthur Blakeney and Miss Elisabeth Nelson were in Fenwick (N. S.) on Thursday attending the funeral of the late Francis Smith.

Mrs. Daniels, of Nappan, was the guest recently at the Ladies' College.

Mrs. James Palmer, accompanied by her nurse and little son, Kenneth, arrived home last week from Fredericton, where they have been for a month.

Mrs. Thos. Estabrooks returned Thursday from a pleasant visit to Montreal.

Friends of Professor Sweetser will be sorry to hear that he has had to resign his position in New York on account of ill health.

Rev. and Mrs. Dickie are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. Cameron, York street.

Many friends will regret to hear of the death of Miss Jane Trenholm, which occurred at the home of Mr. Arthur George, Upper Sackville. Miss Trenholm had spent the summer in Nova Scotia and had just returned when she was suddenly taken ill with congestion of the lungs and speedily passed away on Thursday morning. Deceased leaves a large circle of friends who esteemed her very highly.

Mr. J. Bain, of Montreal, has rented the house lately occupied by Mrs. B. Trites on York street.

The Main street Baptist church has extended a call to Mr. McNeill and it is understood that he has accepted it, and will move here about the first of November.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Avard spent Sunday in Shediac.

Mrs. Geo. Trueman, of Moncton, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Pickard Trueman, Weldon street. Mrs. Pickard Trueman returned last week from Campbellton.

Mrs. Harry Dixon, of Portland, Oregon, and her mother, Mrs. B. Read, who have been visiting friends in Sackville, left Monday for Moncton.

It is reported that Mrs. Bartlett, of York street, is ill with pneumonia.

Mrs. W. W. Flint, of Concord (N. H.) is in town renewing old acquaintances.

The many friends of Mrs. James Wheaton, of Upper Sackville, will be sorry to learn that she is very ill with pneumonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Black, Middle Sackville, will leave tomorrow for St. John.

Mr. N. T. Avard, of Joggins, was in town over Sunday.

The Reading Circle in connection with the missionary auxiliary of the Methodist church, was re-organized on Monday evening, the meeting taking place at the Methodist parsonage. Miss Baker, the president, gave a synopsis of Gloria Christi, the book to be studied this year.

At a meeting of the W. C. T. U. on Tuesday evening Mrs. Harmon Humphrey gave an interesting account of the branch meeting held recently in St. Stephen.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of the bride when Mr. Thomas H. Hacker, of Prince Edward Island, and Mrs. Edward Silliker, of Fort Monkton, were united in marriage by Rev. J. S. Gregg. A number of the friends of the bride had decorated her home with autumn leaves and cut flowers. The bride, who was prettily gowned in white silk with bridal veil, entered the parlor on the arm of her brother. She carried a beautiful bouquet of sweet peas and maiden hair fern and was unattended. A recherche luncheon was served after the ceremony. The many beautiful wedding presents testified to the great popularity of the bride among her many friends. The groom's present was a handsome fur-lined coat. Among the guests from a distance were Miss Kathleen Silliker, of New York, daughter of the bride; Mrs. George F. Enos, of Medford (Mass.), and Mrs. Weeks, of Jersey City. The happy couple will reside in P. E. Island.

The concert given by the Mt. Allison A. A. A. on Friday evening in the University residence was largely attended and much enjoyed. Delightful violin solos were given by Misses Ayer, Reddin, Smith and Messrs. Guy, Hallet, Wood and Smith, and were much appreciated. Miss Marie Tucker gave a pleasing vocal solo, while Miss Hughes gave a reading which was much enjoyed.

Mrs. George McSweeney, of Moncton, was in town Saturday.

A number of relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Silas Hayward, Port Elgin, met at their home last Thursday evening, the occasion being the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage. The beautiful array of remembrances speaks of the places held by Mr. and Mrs. Hayward in the hearts of a wide circle of friends.

Mr. Arlington Rafuse was presented with a handsome set of military brushes on behalf of the members of the fire department, of which he was foreman. Mr. Rafuse left last week for Lunenburg (N. S.), much to the regret of his many friends in Sackville.

Miss Lizzie Palmer is the guest of her brother, R. F. Palmer, Londonderry (N. S.)

Mrs. Frank Harrison and family left Tuesday to join her husband in Newark (N. J.), where they will in future reside.

The engagement of Miss Amy Mildred Carver, daughter of Richard Carver, of Pownal (P. E. I.), to Rev. E. A. Westmorland, of Alberton, has been announced. The wedding will take place early in November. Miss Carver, who taught at Mt. Allison recently, has hosts of friends who will wish her bon voyage through life.

Miss Minnie Estabrooks left Tuesday en route to New York. She will stop over in St. John, where she will be joined by Mrs. James Rainnie, who will accompany her to Boston.

SUSSEX.

Sussex, Oct. 25.—Mrs. Walter Fairweather and little son, Harold, have returned from a visit to Fredericton.

Miss Sara Byrne is visiting her sister, Mrs. Dufferin Harper, at Riverside, Albert county.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hazen and family left Thursday for California, where they will spend the winter.

Miss Grace McKay has returned from a visit to Chatham.

Mrs. A. B. Pugsley was in St. John this week.

Mr. Fred Ryan, of Sackville, was in town on Wednesday.

Mrs. J. G. Smith, who has been spending a month in Boston, returned home the first of the week.

Mrs. W. H. Bell, of Newcastle, is the guest of Mrs. Isaac DeBoo.

Mr. Wm. Kirk, who has been spending his vacation at his home here, returned to New York this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack and children, of Halifax, are in town the guests of Mrs. Jack's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Rogers, at the Methodist parsonage.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. McKay and Miss Alice White returned last week from a trip to Toronto and other Canadian cities.

Mrs. Shaw and Miss Lillian Shaw, of St. John, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Shaw's mother, Mrs. Morrison.

Dr. Warren Sharp, of Binghampton (N. Y.), is in Sussex the guest of his sister, Mrs. W. W. Stockton.

Mr. and Mrs. Tilley, of Woodstock, are in town the guests of their son, Mr. J. F. Tilley, Church avenue.

Miss Harrison, of Nappan (N. S.), is visiting Miss Dollie Harrison.

Mr. R. V. Arnold, who has been spending his vacation at his home here, returned to Pictou (N. S.) this week.

Mr. H. P. Robinson has returned from a trip to Toronto.

Miss Hazel DeBoo spent a few days of this week in St. John.

Mr. G. H. Barnes, of St. John, is spending a few days in Sussex.

Major Elliott, of Halifax, was in Sussex this week.

DORCHESTER.

Dorchester, Oct. 24—Miss Mina Lockhart left home last week to join her father, Capt. Lockhart, who is in port in one of the Southern States, and will accompany him on his next ocean trip, being absent some months.

Miss Aileen Chapman has been in Amherst visiting friends for the past two weeks.

Captain Clinton Cook, of Parrsboro, has been in town the guest of Mrs. F. C. Palmer.

Mrs. Bell returned to Maplehurst this week after a week's visit with Moncton friends.

Mr. S. L. T. Harrison, who has been absent for some weeks in Boston and elsewhere is expected in town this week.

Mr. C. L. Hanington went to Hopewell Cape on Tuesday to be present at the Albert county court.

Mrs. Leslie Alexander, of Colorado, who spent the summer in town has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Willett, of Moncton, were guests of Mrs. Hanington on Monday of this week.

Mrs. Fletcher, who was visiting her sister, Mrs. David Chapman, left town for her home in Nova Scotia last week.

Arrangements are being made by the Dorchester band for a large dance to be given in town at an early date.

A number of strangers were in town at the Windsor on Sunday last from Moncton and Sackville, including several who came in automobiles with Chas. Fawcett, of Sackville, and Dr. Ferguson and Dr. Bourque, of Moncton.

The concert on Monday night last under the auspices of the Methodist church, was in every way a great success. Madam Yulisse Harrison was much enjoyed and was well assisted by Miss Dorothy McSweeney, reader; Miss Jennie Redden, violinist, and Mr. A. S. Robinson, reader.

Mrs. C. H. Martin entertained delightfully at five o'clock tea on Saturday last to a large number of her friends. Those present were: Mrs. A. R. Emmerson, Mrs. Godfrey, Mrs. J. F. Teed, Mrs. H. W. Palmer, Mrs. White, Mrs. Oulton, Mrs. Frederick Emmerson (Moncton), Mrs. A. D. Richard, Mrs. M. B. Palmer, Mrs. Maynell, Mrs. Wetmore (St. John), Mrs. McQueen, Mrs. W. D. Wilbur, Mrs. W. F. Tait, Mrs. Douglas, Mrs. McGrath, Mrs. Papineau, Mrs. J. H. Hickman, Mrs. A. H. Chapman, Mrs. Gillespie, Miss Chapman, Miss Etta Chapman, Miss Nellie Palmer, Miss Ada Palmer and Miss Annie Wilbur.

Mrs. T. F. Gillespie was hostess at a very pleasant five o'clock tea this afternoon to a number of her friends.

Mr. George F. Atkinson, after being confined to the house for some weeks is able to be out again.

Mrs. W. R. Palmer, who has been ill for some weeks is much improved.

HOPEWELL HILL

Hopewell Hill, Oct. 26—A very successful concert under the asupices of the Albert Methodist church was held in Oulton hall last evening in aid of the fund for paying off the debt on the parsonage. There was a large audience present and the programme was greatly enjoyed. One of the finest pieces of the evening was The Whippoorwill, by a mixed quartette, composed of Mrs. Geo. Tingley, Mrs. Hicks and Messrs. Geo. J. Trueman and Geo. Tingley. The vocal solos by Mrs. Copp, Miss Stella Crocker and Mrs. D. W. Harper, all received high praise, and every number on the list was well received. Mrs. Geo. J. Trueman and Miss Annie Copp were the accompanists.

After the entertainment refreshments were sold, and in all the sum of $48 was realized.

Mrs. Alice Peck is quite ill at her home here, and under the care of Dr. J. T. Lewis, of Hillsboro.

The funeral of Mrs. Calhoun, wife of John C. Calhoun, formerly of Albert, took place today, the body having arrived by train yesterday from Jacquet River, where Mr. Calhoun has been living for some years. The deceased was formerly Miss Horsman, of Elgin.

At the annual meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Mrs. J. E. Peck, president; Mrs. Luther Archibald, vice-president; Mrs. Alex. Rogers, corresponding secretary; Miss Ethel R. Peck, recording secretary; Mrs. W. J. McAlmon, treasurer.

The ladies of the Methodist church will give a Thanksgiving supper and Hallowe'en social, on Thursday evening, Oct. 31st, at the residence of Mrs. Joseph Robinson.

The four months' old child of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Goodall, of Riverside, died this morning.

BATHURST.

Bathurst, N. B., Oct. 24—Mrs. D. T. Johnston returned during the week from a visit to Chatham.

Mr. Hugh Sheasgreen made a short visit to Bathurst this week and left on Wednesday accompanied by Mrs. Sheasgreen who has been visiting in Bathurst and vicinity since early in the summer. They will visit Mr. Sheasgreen's relatives in Northumberland county before returning to their home.

Miss Margaret McKendy, who was called to her home in Douglastown on account of her mother's illness last week, has returned, leaving her mother quite improved.

Miss Burchell, of Nelson, who was making a visit to friends here, has returned to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Moore, of Shediac, spent a few days here with their son, Dr. O. B. Moore. Mr. and Mrs. Moore were on their way to the Canadian west where they will visit for a short time before going to Florida to spend the winter.

Miss Pauline White will accompany her uncle, T. M. Burns, M. P. P., on his tour of inspection of railways, as his secretary.

Miss Sophie Benson has returned to Chatham after a visit here.

Mrs. J. McNichol has returned from a visit to Newcastle and Chatham.

Mr. T. D. Adams visited Douglastown last week.

Rev. Mr. Carson, of St. Martins, is shortly to take charge of St. George's church here, which has had no rector since July.

Mrs. O'Mara, of Montreal, has come to spend the winter months with her brother Mr. P. H. Melvin and family.

Mr. Art McKendy made a short visit to his home in Douglastown on account of his mother's illness.

Mr. Earl Crocker, of the Royal Bank of Cardenas, Cuba, spent a few days of his vacation here, visiting with friends.

Mr. Theodore A. Doucet, associated with others, has opened a Dramatic school in Detroit (Mich.) His many friends in Bathurst are pleased to learn of his venture and wish him much success.

Misses Annie and Bourgeois Melvin and Mr. P. H. Melvin have returned from a visit to Montreal.

ST. ANDREWS.

St. Andrews, Oct. 24—Mr. John Kelly, government inspector of lights, is spending a few days in town looking after the government work.

Mrs. Henry Todd and daughter, Mrs. Fred P. McNichol, are being entertained this week by Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Morris.

Mrs. Robert R. Armstrong made a short stay with friends in St. Stephen this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Everett and sons are enjoying a week in Boston (Mass.)

Miss Maria Byrnes has gone to St. John for a few weeks holidays among her friends.

Mrs. Bert Rigby took steamer for Calais (Me.), and St. Stephen, and after a short but pleasant stay returned on Friday last.

Mrs. Frank P. Barnard, who has been the guest of Mrs. George Elliott, Calais (Me.), for a time, returned on Tuesday, delighted with her visit.

Mds. E. Andrews and daughter, Miss Beatrice, are visiting friends in St. Stephen and Calais (Me.)

Mrs. Robert Morrel visited St. Stephen last week, returning by steamer Friday morning.

Miss Laura Shaw, who is teaching at Bocabec, spent Saturday with her parents.

Mrs. Corey Green, of Carleton (N. B.), and Miss Tillie Kirk, of Milltown (N. B.), were in town on Tuesday last attending the funeral of Mrs. Harry Jones.

Rev. J. T. Allen and daughter, Miss A. Allen, left on Thursday's train for Winnipeg. They will remain in Montreal for a few days and then proceed to Winnipeg. A very large number of friends assembled at the station to say good bye.

Messrs. W. J. Richardson and James G. Stevens, of St. Stephen, registered at Kennedy's Hotel Tuesday and Wednesday, of this week.

A party of ladies among whom were Mrs. Fred Andrews, Mrs. Fred A. Stevenson, Mrs. Richard Keay, Misses Minnie Keay, Nettie Maloney and Mrs. Jennie Clarke drove to St. Stephen on Tuesday.

Miss T. A. Algar has been confined to her room for several days with the prevalent cold.

Mrs. M. N. Cockburn gave a small party this week. Among the guests were the Misses Amy Stuart, Lottie Hartt, Gwen Jack, Martha A. Osborne, Rev. F. H. Rigby and Mrs. Woods.

Mr. Walter Inches, of St. Stephen, was in town this week, a guest at Kennedy's Hotel.

Miss Minnie Gardiner has secured a position in Montreal (Can.), as a stenographer.

Mr. A. Laflin, of St. Stephen, is putting plate glass windows in Mr. G. Harold Stickney's store. This is a quite up-to-date store in every way.

Mrs. G. Durelle Grimmer gave the teachers of the public schools a nice outing on Saturday last in the way of a buckboard ride to her cabin at Chamcook Lake. A substantial and delicious supper was served. Mrs. Grimmer was assisted by Mrs. Fred Andrews and Miss Jessie Main.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Hartt are spending a week in Boston and vicinity.

Mr. David Eggleton, of Whitingsville, has been visiting his father, who is an aged gentleman nearly 93 years old, but very smart and intelligent, and is a pleasure to his children.

Mr. Frank G. Stoop is still gaining strength and walks out on fine days, also takes carriage rides.

Mr. George Howard was a passenger by Saturday's train. On Monday he accompanied his mother to Woodstock, where she will make an extended visit to her daughter, Mrs. McKibbon.

Another accident occurred on the Bar Sunday morning by which a valuable horse was drowned and two young men narrowly escaped death.

RICHIBUCTO

Richibucto, Oct. 26—Mrs. P. Babin went this week to Moncton to visit her brother, Dr. Fred Richard, and to join her mother, Mrs. Docithee Richard, who also is visiting her son.

Miss F. A. Caie has been attending the provincial convention of the N. B. and P. E. I. Sunday School Association in Fredericton this week. She will spend some little time with her sister in St. John before her return home.

Miss Kate O'Donnell has been very seriously ill with typhoid fever. It was at one time feared that she would not recover.

Miss Agnes Ferguson, teacher of the intermediate department in our Grammar School here, has returned home from a visit to Boston.

HAMPTON

Hampton, Kings Co., Oct. 23—Mr. Geo. M. Wilson went to Woodstock last Thursday and returned home on Friday.

Mrs. Margaret Schmilevsky, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Smith, of Main street, Hampton Station, who has spent the past month or so with her parents, returned to Boston on Thursday last to resume her duties as professional nurse.

Mrs. William Langstroth, of Everett street, Hampton Station, went to Woodstock last Thursday, where her husband is engaged in the erection of the new Baptist church.

Miss Ada March, daughter of Mr. Wm. H. March, of Main street, Station, has returned from St. John, where she has been engaged in nursing, and next week returns to her duties in connection with one of the Boston hospitals.

Mrs. George M. Wilson, of Main street, Station, returned on Saturday from a very pleasant month's visit to friends in the United States, taking in the cities of Newcastle, Pennsylvania, New York and Brooklyn, Niagara Falls, Boston and other places.

Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Donald, of Main street, Station, returned from a ten days' trip to American cities on Saturday evening. They expected to have Miss Helen Ring, of St. John, as their guest on Monday on her return from Coverdale, Albert county, where she was visiting, but instead there came the sad news of her sudden death at the latter place on Sunday.

Mr. Harry H. Scovil, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Scovil, who is attending to engineering work on the C. P. R. in Victoria and Carleton counties, came home on Saturday to spend the week-end.

The Rev. G. A. Ross, Methodist minister here, left today for Fredericton, where he delivers an address before the Sunday School Association, now in session.

Miss Netta Ross, of Charlottetown (P. E. I.), came through on Monday, bringing her niece, Marjory, to her home at the Methodist parsonage.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bailey, of Boston, who have been visiting for the past three weeks with Mrs. Bailey's mother and sister, Mrs. Botsford and Mrs. Clark, at their home on Church Hill, returned to the States on Tuesday.

Mrs. Brittain and her daughter, Mrs. John Thompson, of Boston, arrived here on Tuesday and are guests with Mrs. Thomas Williamson on Railway avenue. Mrs. Brittain has been a guest with Mrs. Thompson since June.

Mrs. Henry Gilbert, of Hampton Village, is seriously ill at her home.

Mrs. Harry J. Bridges, of St. John, was a visitor to Hampton on Tuesday.

Mrs. James Rourke and her daughter, Ella, of St. Martins, were here yesterday.

Mrs. Robert W. Smith came up from St. John on Monday to her home at Lakeside. Mrs. Smith intends to take a trip west immediately and will probably spend the winter with friends there.

Miss Rita Crawford, of Lakeside, is visiting her brother, Mr. F. Herbert Crawford, at Amherst (N. S.)

Mr. Sheriff Freese, who has been laid sick with threatened pneumonia, for the past two weeks, is again able to be about and to attend to his duties.

PETITCODIAC.

Petitcodiac, Oct. 24—Miss Beatrice Armstrong went to St. John Tuesday to spend a few days with relatives.

During the past week Miss Alice Keith has been the hostess at two very pleasant affairs, a tea party on Saturday evening, and a thimble party Tuesday evening.

Miss Wheaton, who has been enjoying a holiday at her home here, returned last week to Newton (Mass.), to resume her professional duties as nurse. Miss Wheaton was accompanied by her sister, Miss Nellie Wheaton, who will spend the winter there with relatives.

Miss Daisy Robertson returned Saturday to Medford (Mass.), after spending a few weeks here the guest of Mrs. G. F. Fowler.

Mrs. Langstroth and Miss Jean Langstroth, of Sussex, arrived Tuesday, and are visiting friends here.

Mrs. S. C. Goggin and her guests, Mrs. Taylor, of Moncton, and Miss Nellie Goggin, of Chatham, are enjoying a few days with friends in Havelock.

Mr. Uz King, who has been spending a few weeks in Fredericton returned Wednesday.

On Friday evening, at the Baptist parsonage, a reception was held for the pastor, Rev. John Smith McFadden and his bride. There was a large and representative gathering present, and a very pleasant evening spent.

Mr. W. A. Simpson returned Thursday from a fortnight's trip to Portland and Boston.

Mrs. J. W. Lowery and Miss Maud Lowery left Saturday for Jerusalem, Queens county, to visit relatives.

CHATHAM

Chatham, N. B., Oct. 22—Mr. Arthur Winslow left this week for Ottawa, where he has secured a position in the public works department.

Mr. and Mrs. Stafford Benson, of Campbellton, were in town on Sunday.

Miss Lillian Walls has returned to Providence (R. I.), after spending the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Walls, Duke street.

Mr. Frank McLean returned to Boston this week.

Miss Jamieson went to St. John Wednesday morning.

Mrs. George E. Fisher and Miss Mamie Nicol are visiting friends in Picton (Ont.)

The Misses Snowball spent a few days in Newcastle this week.

Miss Ellie Jardine has returned to Boston, after a two months' visit at her home here.

Mrs. Jardine, of Rexton, visited Miss Addie Johnston this week.

Mr. Samuel Waddleton, of New York, is visiting his parents, after an absence of more than six years.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Searle have returned from Quebec.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Welsh and little son, of Fredericton, were in town this week.

Mr. William Cameron went to Hampton on Monday.

Miss Myrtle Jardine is visiting friends in Loggieville.

Miss Lillian Murdoch went to Fredericton this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wing have returned from a visit to St. John.

Miss Nellie Goggin is visiting friends in Petitcodiac.

Miss Carrie McLean has returned to Boston, accompanied by Miss Ida McLean.

Mrs. E. Neale has returned to her home in Brooklyn (N. Y.), after spending the summer here.

Mrs. R. A. Snowball was in St. John last week.

Mrs. Dick visited St. John last week.

Mr. Albert McLean is visiting friends in Charlottetown this week.

Mrs. McDougall, of Sydney, is visiting Mrs. John McLaughlin, Water street.

Chatham, Oct. 26—The funeral of John Knowles was held on Friday from his late residence, Lower Water street. The deceased had been ill for over a year, and was about 65 years old. Rev. G. A. Sellar conducted the services and interment was in Riverside cemetery.

Rev. G. A. Sellar has returned from Boston where he spent his vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Welch, of Bristol, Carleton county, are at the River View.

Miss Grace McKay has returned to her home in Sussex, after a pleasant visit to Miss Helen