Tuberculosis Sunday.
Through the efforts of the National Sanitarium Association with the co-operation of the clergy of all denominations and the Department of Education, Sunday, November 26, and Monday, November 27th, have been set apart as Tuberculosis Sunday and Tuberculosis Day in the schools. Literature on the subject has been distributed to ministers and teachers throughout the Province, and the widest possible publicity is urged, that all may join in stamping out this dread disease.
Saunders-Edwards.
On Wednesday afternoon, November 15th, a quiet wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. Robert Edwards, second concession of Elizabethtown, when his daughter, Mary, became the wife of Mr. James H. Saunders, a prominent citizen of Smiths Falls. The Rev. J. B. G. Wright, of Maitland, performed the ceremony, after which a wedding supper was served. Many beautiful gifts were received by the bride, among them being a cabinet of silver from the T. Eaton Co., Winnipeg, with whom she had been associated for some time. Mr. and Mrs. Saunders left on a trip to Toronto, Hamilton and other points, after which they will reside in Smiths Falls. The Record extends congratulations to Mr. Saunders and a welcome to his bride.—Rideau Record.

Driver Harvey Wilson Wounded.
Mrs. S. Wilson received a message from the Militia Department on Saturday advising her of the wounding of her son Harvey S. S. Wilson, who has lost one foot and had a hand badly injured. Harvey was with the Queen's Battery, enlisting from Kingston. He has "done his bit" like thousands of others, and will likely be invalided home as soon as he is able to stand the voyage.
Fractured a Leg.
Mr. K. P. Hutton, the teller of the Bank of Ottawa, is off duty for a week now with a bone fracture. He fell upon the slippery pavement a week ago Saturday evening and fractured the small bone of the leg. The fracture was not obvious for a day or two, until the X-ray was applied, when the break was located. He will be off duty for a few weeks. He is being relieved in the bank by Mr. W. G. Stewart, of Ottawa.
Beckwith's Day of Prayer.
Thursday (St. Andrew's Day) will be observed by the Presbyterian people of Beckwith as a day of prayer and fasting. Divine services will be held in Franktown Church at 11 a.m., and the noon hour will be spent in solemn prayer and meditation. Service will also be held in Black's Corners Church at 2 p.m. Rev. James Taylor, of Brantford, will be the special preacher of the day. The public will be cordially welcomed to these services.

The Perth Shoe Co. Ltd., has received a Dominion charter.
The Presbytery of Lanark and Renfrew is in session here to-day.
The Oddfellows elect officers this evening, to be followed by a social hour.
Visit our store, Tuesday, Dec. 28. Turkey Fair Day, and get your share of the special bargains we are giving.
H. ABDALLAH.
Mr. C. J. Foy, of Perth, has been appointed grand solicitor of the C.M.B.A.
The Bates & Innes Co. are installing two new water wheels at the knitting mill.
Perth had its first case under the Ontario Temperance Act, when a citizen paid $10 and costs for being drunk.
Mr. E. H. Ritchie, the new manager of the Bank of Ottawa, arrived yesterday to assume the duties of his position.
Hughes' annual One Cent Sale, Dec. 5th to 9th. Bigger and Better than Ever.
A boycott of potatoes has been declared by the Montreal Housewives' League, and rice and macaroni are recommended as a substitute.
The river was frozen over as far down as the dam on Sunday, and boys were crossing on the ice. Monday morning found it open again and the temperature above 40.
A number of Perth boys connected with the 130th Batt., and transferred to other battalions, were in the trenches in France just one month from the time they left Canada.
Be sure and keep Thursday night, December 14th, in reserve for the Sunshine Y attraction, "In the Ferry House," a one act comedy. The proceeds to be used for Christmas baskets and relief work. Everybody come and help along this worthy cause.
The young people of Zion Church have in course of preparation the humorous play, "The District School at Blueberry Corners," which they purpose presenting early in December, probably the 7th.

Renfrew, which recently decided to put up a new library and got a grant from the Carnegie fund, has decided to go to it on a large scale, and Mayor Rochester went to New York to seek an increased grant.
Some of our local boys who are with the Queen's Field Ambulance Corps have gone across continent to the coast in charge of a number of disabled soldiers who are returning to their homes. They are Stanley McCullough, Bob. Menzies, Herb Sinclair, Harry Robertson.
Miss Glenn, of Glenn-Charles, Toronto, Canada's Hair Fashion Store, will be in Carleton Place, Friday, Dec. 1st, at the Mississippi Hotel, with a full line of Ladies' and Gentlemen's Hair Dressing. Those not satisfied with the appearance of your hair, consult Miss Glenn. Free demonstration.
Flight officer R. F. P. Abbott, son of our townsman, Mr. C. H. Abbott, who recently completed his course at the Curtis Aviation School, left for Montreal last week after a brief holiday at home. He will leave shortly for overseas to join the aviation corps of the British Navy.

Had an Arm Fractured.
Mr. Jos. Lewis, of the 7th Line Beckwith, had the misfortune to have an arm broken last Thursday. He was engaged with the manure spreader when his horses bolted and threw him out, causing the mishap. Medical aid was summoned from Carleton Place and the fracture was reduced.
Innisville Boy Meets with Mishap.
Mervin Morris, son of Mr. J. H. Morris, Innisville, met with rather a serious mishap on Saturday last, by which he lost part of a thumb and two fingers. He was emptying the powder out of a shell over a stove when the shell exploded. Dr. McEwen was summoned from town, who dressed the injured hand.
Major A. B. Gillies Wounded.
The casualty lists of last week contained, in the list of the Canadians wounded, the name of Major A. B. Gillies, of Carleton Place. Enquiry from the parents here elicits the information that the Major has not been wounded in the physical sense, but is suffering from shell shock, and hopes to be on duty again very soon—probably is back in the trenches now.
Rev. Mr. Dobson Accepts Call.
At an adjourned meeting of the Hamilton Presbytery, held last Tuesday, the call from Zion Church to Rev. W. A. Dobson, B.A., B.D., of Dunnville, was formally accepted, and his translation to the Presbytery of Lanark and Renfrew was agreed to. Rev. J. J. Monks represented the latter Presbytery and Rev. Dr. Drummond represented Zion congregation at the meeting. Mr. Dobson preaches his farewell at Dunnville on the 10th December, and will probably be inducted to his new charge on the 15th of December.
A Canadian State-owned line of steamships is to be operated between Atlantic and Pacific ports by way of the Panama Canal, the contracts for two vessels having been authorized.
The youngest soldier to leave Kingston for the firing line has been killed in action. He was Driver Percy George Lazell. When only a little over fifteen years of age he went overseas with C Battery, R.C.H.A., being transferred to the 48th Howitzer Battery, with which he was fighting when killed. Driver Lazell, who was only sixteen last May, has two brothers in the Royal Navy and one with No. 1 Canadian Field Ambulance Corps.
