

The Proof is in the Drawings

—they show the absolute utility of the
NORTHERN TIMER ELEVATOR for Fords

It lifts the Timer at once up to the most accessible position and away from mud, grit, oil and dampness.

Price each $7.00

Sixty per cent. of all ignition trouble on Ford cars is caused by the timer or wiring. The excessive amount of oil that accumulates in and around the timer very quickly decomposes the rubber insulation on the wiring. The oil will gum and cause poor contact in the timer. Every time oil is put in the motor a certain amount is spilled over the wires and outside of timer shell, just where it is not wanted.

When driving in the rain or mud, the first place to be splashed is the bottom of the radiator and through on to the timer. As mud is an electrical conductor, this is no place for the timer. Every time the car is washed water gets to the timer and its parts, wiring, etc., short-circuiting them, which causes trouble.

The Timer, when elevated, is inverted, thereby shedding all water or oil that may be accidentally spilled upon it. Contacts remain perfectly clean, and timer functions properly.

Any Ford replacement part will fit the Northern Timer Elevator. No holes to drill or changes to be made. The whole job can be done in one-half hour.
