The home of Mrs. E. Gilroy, Henry street, was on Tuesday evening the scene of a very pleasant event, when, at 7.30, her youngest daughter, Ketha, was united in marriage with Mr. William J. The youthful bride was most becomingly attired and looked very charming indeed. A large number of useful and valuable presents testified to the esteem in which the bride is held by her numerous friends. After the usual congratulations, all repaired to the dining room where an elegant repast was served. The evening was passed very pleasantly, and when Mr. and Mrs. Morris said good-bye to the company they received the best wishes of all for a long and happy wedded life.

SABBATH SCHOOL CONVENTION.
Of all departments of christian effort, perhaps none receives less recognition or appreciation than the work of the Sabbath school teachers, when the importance of that work is duly considered. Occasionally, at S. S. entertainments and similar gatherings, kind words are spoken regarding the great "nursery of the church," but, generally speaking, the teachers labor on, altogether unrequited, from pure love of the work, and succeed in bringing many of their little charges near unto the kingdom.

When the annual convention of the Leeds County S. S. Association was announced to be held here on Tuesday of last week, it was thought by some that there would be but a meagre attendance, and they were agreeably surprised to find that the interest in the work was such as to bring delegates and visitors from all parts of the county, resulting in a large attendance at both the afternoon and evening sessions.

Mr. D. Fisher presided, and after devotional exercises, commencing at 2 p. m., by Rev. G. N. Simmons B. A., Rev. F. H. Sproule of Frankville gave a paper on "The Spiritual Life of the Teacher". A profitable discussion followed this instructive paper.

The "Home Department" was treated in an interesting way by Mr. M. H. Eyre of Athens. This department was inaugurated about eighteen years ago, at the same time as the Epworth League, and from its inception Mr. Eyre has taken a deep interest in it, and in explaining its workings new and valuable information was imparted. Mr. Eyre is an enthusiast along this line and will be pleased to assist any Sabbath school in the county desiring to establish a home department.

The Round Table conference conducted by Mr. Jackson, proved very interesting and profitable, resulting in the solution of a large number of such problems as are occasionally presented to the teacher.

A business meeting followed the regular session, at which the bounds of the Association were made to include the Sabbath schools in the rear of Elizabethtown, rear Yonge and Escott, Rear Leeds and Lansdowne, Kitley, North Crosby, South Crosby, Bastard, and South Elmsley. The following were elected officers:
President—D. Fisher, Athens.
Vice-Pres.—C. J. Gilroy, Glen Buell.
Secy-Treas.—R. G. Murphy, Elgin.
Vice-Presidents—Robert Janson, Westport; Solomon Russel, Delta; W. Livingston, Frankville; E. W. Smith, Greenbush; R. Harvey, Lyndhurst; M. H. Eyre, Athens; representative to general executive, J. Thompson, Athens.

On motion, the resident ministers of the different municipalities and the officers, were constituted an executive committee.

At the evening session, Rev. Mr. Lawson conducted the devotional exercises, and after a short address by the new president, Mr. Fisher, the Rev. Mr. Sycamore of Brockville delivered an address on "Our Scholars," speaking from Gen 48: 8, 9. His treatment of the subject was such as to delight the large and critical audience assembled. He is a pleasing speaker—clear in his diction, broad in his views, sound in his logic—and will always be welcomed at public gatherings in Athens.

Mr. Jackson then spoke upon the subject of what had been accomplished by organized Sabbath schools and made clear the many great benefits that had been obtained by this means.

The question drawn and the usual votes of thanks followed, and then the doxology and benediction closed one of the most interesting, profitable meetings ever held by the L. C. S. S. A.

This convention has been the means of more thoroughly organizing and uniting the S. S. workers of the county, and it is expected that great good will result.
