The refusal of Premier Duplessis to see the committee of Presidents prompted the strike dazzling display while McIntyre racked up a hat trick decision.

Main topic of dissention is the insufficient support of the universities by the province. Que-bec universities do not accept federal grants in accordance with Duplessis' view that education is strictly a provincial domain.

The student presidents felt that the present system of provincial grants could be improved. In a

Williams, Montreal and McGill up with thirty-five seconds remaining in the game. Spare forward, universities deliberated all yesterday morning before coming to a winning counter at the 8.41 mark of the ten minute overtime period.

With an inspired Harry Stirling in the Mount Allison nets and centre Jim McIntyre leading the offense, the Mounties appeared to be heading for the finals. Stirling blocked 36 out of 40 shots in a

John Bassett, between the pipes for the Red and Black squad made 26 saves to back up the UNB defensive corps.

Ed McLellan opened the scoring in the first period. Don Morrow dug the puck out of the corner to McLellan in front of the net with McLellan hoisting the puck over a prostrate Stirling. Mount A's McIntyre got that one back four minutes later with a nice shot that caught the corner from twenty feet out.

At the 15.08 mark of the second period, Neal put the Mounties one up, when he scored on a rebound after Bassett kicked one shot out. A little over a minute later, Currie McCarthy evened the score when he snared Mockler's rebound and sank it.

In the third frame, the Mounties rammed in three goals in five minutes. Van Snick started the proceedings, carrying the puck into the UNB corner of the rink. McIntyre scored on his centered pass. Three minutes later, Maxwell scored with a hard thirty foot shot. Two minutes later McIntyre scored his third of the night and the possible series winner when he whipped a rising shot into the top corner of the net.

A desparate UNB team, one goal down, put on the pressure received by the Student Disciplinary Committee, was discussed. It was decided that they should be placed at the disposal of the SRC. NOVEL FLAGS FLOWN

Toronto CUP—The Distinctive Canadian Flag Plan lumbered limply off the ground early Monday morning. Standard flags were raised outside important buildings in Edmonton, Toronto, Kingston and Fredericton.

In Toronto, the flag was raised with a minimum of difficulty and the rope was cut to make lower- ing. Another first was the bodying difficult. However, it was replaced by mid-afternoon.

The Kingston flags were raised A.M., but the operation required rattling check in the third period

Seven penalties were handed out by referees Wif Miles and Vic Leury in the hard fought but extremely clean game. The Red Devils received four and the Mounties three.

A couple of firsts occurred during this game. The first happened during the opening period when UNB defenseman John Sears received his first penalty of the season, that for highstickcheck that Hedley Savoy threw. Savoy has generally played the puck rather than the man, but
