We don't know

A generic election story

By JOHN STILLWELL and
PETER THOMPSON

(Susan Forestell, Dean Frost, Hitler Kitty) won yesterday's Student Union Presidential election by a (huge, moderate, close) margin.

Voter turnout was (high, low, average) in this year's election, which saw party politics (gain, not regain) the prominence it once had at UNB.

This election saw (the first hockey ever, the second female president, the president) in the history (human could not be reached, inner press time).

The (strong, weak, average) president and (his, her, their) policies of (softer toilet paper, voice, a stronger student voice).

CR Marc Braithwaite, expressed (pleasure, displeasure) at the (high, low) voter turnout. The President elect (will, will not) be seated (as usual, because of the declaration of "no contest" in which case, the presidential election will be redone in September).
