September 9, 1916.

Hon. W.L. Mackenzie King,
The Roxborough,
Ottawa, Ont.

My dear Mr. King:-

When I was in Hamilton, in a conversation with Mrs. Wm. Hendrie, she encouraged me to make the request which I now desire to make. Would it be possible for you to speak to the men of our church sometime within the next season? I have in this church a remarkable body of representative business men, some of them heads of the great steel corporations of this city, and it would be a great favor to us if you could arrange to meet them some week night the coming year. I do not know what compensation to offer, but if it is within the horizon of possibility, I should be very happy to have you speak on the subject of industrial relations. This meeting would of course be on a week night, and if an additional engagement could be made for you with the Commercial Club, or with the University of Pittsburgh, or the Carnegie Tech Institute, for some hour during the day, I would gladly see that it was made.

Yours very sincerely,

Hugh T. Kerr
