Hon. John A. Barron,
Stratford, Ontario.

Dear Judge Barron:

I regret that your telegram in reference to judges' salaries, and letter with further particulars with regard thereto, were not received until after the Bill respecting judges' salaries had passed the House of Commons.

You will appreciate how futile it would have been for me to have attempted any modification of its provisions in the Senate. I can only regret that it was not possible for me to do anything one way or the other. I need hardly say that, had your wire been received in time, it would have been a pleasure to me to have made in Parliament the representations which it contains.

With kind regards,

Believe me,

Yours very sincerely,
